Turncoat Aids GIs In Battle

Saigon (UPI) — Outnumbered American jungle fighters turned back a mortar attack early Friday in a running battle with North Vietnamese regulars that was swelling in size and intensity. Five U.S. battalions drove into the jungles in an effort to trap the communist force and annihilate it.

Thursday, a scrawny North Vietnamese turncoat officer directed U.S. artillery and air strikes against his former comrades and helped GIs give the coup de grace to a shattered Red battalion.

The U.S. cavalrymen and paratroopers killed scores more of the enemy, running the toll in Operation Nathan Hale in the central highlands to 414 known dead, and 622 estimated dead.

An American commander estimated that up to 4,000 communist troops were massed in the region and both the Americans and communists were bringing up reinforcements. Continued heavy fighting appeared certain.

Viets In Action

South Vietnamese marines and 1st Division troops operating farther north in their first major operation since the government political crisis erupted in March killed at least 312 communists and captured 40—most of an enemy battalion.

American battle casualties last week were reduced by about 50%. U.S. military spokesmen disclosed in Saigon. The number of Americans killed in action dropped to 79 from the previous week's figure of 142. The total wounded dropped from 741 to 567

The South Vietnamese lost 175 killed in action and the known number of communist dead was placed at 928, a drop of 300 from the previous week which reflected a lull in ground action for the period.

The North Vietnamese defector, 1st Lt. Le Duc Thong, 35, surrendered Wednesday to American forces near Tuy Hoa, 210 miles northeast of Saigon.

"That guy sure gave us some good information," said Capt. Daniel P. Davison of Milwaukee, Wis., commander of A Company, 2nd Battalion of the 7th Cavalry

Rights Hymn Singers Stampeded By Police

. . . ATTEMPT TO ERECT TENT MEETS DEFEAT

Canton, Miss. (AP)—Choking clouds of tear gas routed a crowd of Negroes and whites Thursday night when they tried to set up the tents of the Mississippi march on a Negro school ground.

Some 100 police moved in on the crowd of about 2,500 who marched to the school ground after a roaring rally at the courthouse in the center of Canton.

The charging officers, wearing gas masks and helmets, knocked down one of the big revivalist-style tents, which was almost erected, and began pulling it into a pile

The center area was ringed by patrolmen with leveled shotguns and rifles. The clouds of gas and flailing police boots sent hundreds stampeding in all directions to get away from it.

The attempt to place the tents at the same site where 11 men were arrested in a similar attempt earlier Thursday came after Stokely Carmichael, fiery leader of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, told the crowd

"This is the time we separate the men from the white folks."

As the crowd approached the school, a city spokesman met the leaders and told them

"You are not permitted to place your tents on the school ground."

The crowd continued to move onto the school grounds, singing the civil rights hymn, "We Shall Overcome."

Speaking from the top of a truck, Floyd B. McKissick, director of the Congress of Racial Equality, saw the police unlimber the gas grenades and shouted:

"There's gas! Put your handkerchiefs over your face!"

About 40 canisters of tear gas were lobbed into the area.

'Take That Down'

"Let them have an escape route," a police commander shouted. "Move in and take that tent down."

John Truss, 26, a Canton Negro, said he was trying to help raise the tent when the tear gas canisters started falling

"It was like being in hell," he said. "They started falling. They were screaming, crying."

Mercury vapor street lamps gave the scene an eerie glow. Several news photographers were clubbed by the troopers. A wrecker was brought in to haul away the rented truck which transports the tents

With the tents gone, most marchers apparently scattered to Negro homes for the night. Police withdrew from the Negro area

'Time Has Come'

Before the police action, Carmichael had asked the crowd to make a circle around the tent site. He cried: "The time for running has come to an end if you tell all them white folks in Mississippi the nigger has stopped running."

King, who heads the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, anxiously urged the crowd to remain calm.

After the tear gas, King called the demonstration by the Negroes "a marvelous display of nonviolence in the midst of the most brutal inhumanity to man."

King and other Negro leaders huddled at a nearby Negro home for a conference after the attack

'Unequaled Barbarism'

Afterwards, McKissick said, "Those bastards never gave any warning. There were women and children in there. It was barbarianism that has never been equalled."

On a street corner near the school a crowd of Negroes gathered. Several shouted at passing police cruisers, "You pot-gutted sons of bitches."

Other Negroes screamed curses. Many yelled, "Fascists! Fascists!"

James Phipps, 21, with the Mississippi march for 10 days, was overcome by gas. Phipps, one of the march's "black power" advocates, screamed: "I swear to God I'll get every son of a bitch."

A large segment regrouped later and marched off to a nearby church. They began singing, "Black and White together."

King Aide Taken

Hosea Williams, a top aide to Dr. Martin Luther King, was one of those taken into custody. Another was C. O. Chinn, 45, a local Negro civil rights leader who Wednesday night was charged with shooting a white man. Chinn was freed earlier Thursday on $7,000 bond.

The 11 men later were released on bond.

A federal judge at Jackson turned down a request by King and others for a court order directing Philadelphia officers to protect the civil rights demonstrators. Judge Dan Russell gave no reason for his decision.

In Washington, White House aides said President Johnson had told King that Mississippi Gov. Paul Johnson has "given assurance law and order will be maintained" in Philadelphia. King had asked the President for federal protection.

Legislature OK Needed On City's Building Idea

By BOB SCHREPF
Star Staff Writer

It will take legislative action at the next Unicameral session if the plan of Mayor Dean Petersen and other Lincoln interests to construct a joint office building with off-street parking on 15th St., two blocks north of the Capitol is to be approved.

As revealed by the mayor Thursday, the city would offer to purchase a full block of land bounded by 14th and 15th, L and M, develop a ground level to be leased to merchants and construct four to five additional levels for off-street parking. (Details on Page 6.)

The state could top the structure with floors for needed office space, the mayor proposed.

He said the project is still in preliminary planning stages, that one or two buildings are feasible and that alternate sites along 15th might be considered.

Funds Appropriated

The legislature has appropriated funds and has directed the Capitol Building Commission to plan for the construction of a state office building "to be known as the Nebraska Centennial Building to be located on real estate owned by the State of Nebraska adjacent to the State Capitol building."

State-owned land south of the Capitol and east of the Governor's Mansion was foremost in the legislative eye at the last session.

State Attorney General Clarence Meyer said, "a project of that kind (as proposed by the city) would require legislative authorization . . . the 1965 law would have to be amended."

"The question of what is adjacent is a question of fact, not law—we might have to make a determination, but not now," Meyer added.

Alternative Proposal

The building commission and the executive board of the Legislative Council have given Lincoln until July 1 to come up with an alternate proposal for the location of the state office building.

Mayor Petersen said the Lincoln plan, worked out by himself, City Council members John Selleck and Carroll Thompson and local businessmen and architects, will be presented to the commission for review.

State Engineer John Hossack, Capitol Building Commission member, said the group would schedule a meeting "probably fairly early in July."

"The Legislative Council quite probably will want to look at it if the idea is at all appealing," Hossack said.

He added that the commission "has been ordered to get on with plans for the building, period."

Another statehouse source commented, "it was hoped that some progress could be made by now; however, nothing was provided for by law."

Gov. Frank Morrison, after discussing the Lincoln proposal earlier with Petersen, "felt it was an excellent idea," the mayor said.

President Part In Racist Structure, Says Meredith

Memphis, Tenn. (UPI) — James H. Meredith, arriving to rejoin the Mississippi "freedom march" at Canton, Miss., said Thursday night that President Johnson is "a part of the white supremacy structure" that must be changed.

Accompanied by Negro comedian Dick Gregory, Meredith flew from New York where he had recuperated from shotgun pellet wounds received June 6, the day after he began the "freedom march" at Memphis.

Meredith had made the statement about the President at a stopover in St. Louis. Asked about it at Memphis, he said he meant no personal criticism of the President.

Hamilton's Draft Status Brought Up

Washington (AP)—The draft status of actor George Hamilton, who has been dating Lynda Bird Johnson, was brought into hearings on the operations of the Selective Service Thursday by Rep. Alvin E. O'Konski, R-Wis.

Without mentioning Hamilton by name, O'Konski noted that he had read in newspapers about "a movie actor in California with a $200,000 home and a $30,000 Rolls Royce" and an annual income of $100,000 who got a deferment because he has "to support his mother who went through four husbands."

The actor was in Kanab, Utah, where he is making a movie. He said that if O'Konski was referring to him, the figures were incorrect and that O'Konski's statements had no factual basis.

Hamilton would not say what the correct figures were.

"Obviously, I have no comment," the actor said. "It's something I feel I wouldn't want to get into."

"That system nauseates me," O'Konski said, comparing the case with poor youths with large families who had been drafted in his district.

Hamilton was classified 3A by his New York City draft board several years ago on grounds members of his family depended on him for their support.

O'Konski said that in his district in the past six months no one had been drafted from a family with more than $5,000 income. "If the draft continues in its present form," he said, "I'm afraid we won't have the poor with us very long."

Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director who was on the witness stand, said there was not much he could say in reply to O'Konski. "He is indicting America," Hershey said of O'Konski.

In New York, a Selective Service spokesman said Hamilton, now past 26, was still classified as 3A.

Hamilton's dependency deferment, however, has extended his draft eligibility to age 35.

At Madison, Wis., Col. Bentley Courtenay, Selective Service director for Wisconsin, said he had no information on which to formulate a comment on O'Konski's statement.

Hershey Against Lowering Age To 24

Washington (AP) — The director of the Selective Service System told a House committee Thursday he opposes lowering the draft liability age ceiling from 26 to 24 years.

But Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey said he favors lesser standards in educational, physical and minor arrest areas to broaden the man-power pool for the draft.

"I'm against it," Hershey said when asked how he feels about lowering the age ceiling from 26 to 24.

He also indicated he favors taking some registrants over 26. Questioned about this, he replied:

"I wouldn't mind being pushed by this committee into looking into this."

Hershey testified a second day before the House Armed Services Committee looking into operations of the draft in the wake of sharp criticism by congressmen, educators and others. He will return Friday.

Critics contend that current draft selection methods are inequitable and discriminate against the poor who can't afford to go to college.

Rep. Richard Schweiker, R-Pa., termed these methods antiquated as a "horse and buggy in a jet age" and advocated a computerized, national manpower pool.

Ruling Asked: Can Lincoln District Vote On County's Education Unit?

Lancaster County voters will decide Nov. 8 whether the county should be excluded from state's educational service unit system, but the question loomed Thursday whether Lincoln School District voters may also participate.

The Lincoln district already has excluded itself under an LB301 option exercised by its board of education.

However, the remaining school districts in the county are assigned to an educational service unit created by the 1965 Legislature unless the electorate votes for exclusion

Lancaster County Election Commissioner B. J. Holcomb said she would seek an attorney general's ruling on whether Lincoln voters should also vote on the special county issue.

Assistant Secretary of State Allen J. Beermann said the conduct of Lancaster County's special election on the educational service unit plan "is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the election commissioner."

He said the secretary of state's powers only extend to the certification of petition requiring the election be held.

NYC Snubbing Pro-U.S. Faisal

New York (AP) — Saudi Arabia's King Faisal, fresh from a kid glove White House welcome to this country, got the back of the hand from New York Thursday, because of his remarks about Jews.

Under pressure from Jewish organizations, politicians and others, Republican Mayor John V. Lindsay snubbed Faisal as did Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. The king appeared to take the affront calmly, however.

Faisal's remarks Wednesday in Washington that Jews who support Israel are enemies of the Arabs was termed by Lindsay "extremely" offensive not just to Jews, but to all citizens of New York."

No Local Dignitaries

There was no representative of either city or state on hand at LaGuardia Airport when Faisal flew in from Washington in late afternoon. Present, however, were State Department officials and United Nations representatives.

Lindsay previously had cancelled a reception and banquet in honor of the Middle East monarch and a city hall spokesman said: "The mayor will not greet him, nor see him."

For his part, Rockefeller, running for re-election, called off a scheduled courtesy visit with Faisal.

In Washington, the White House had no comment on the calculated snub to Faisal except to say the mayor had not been in touch with President Johnson. A similar rebuke to Faisal's brother and predecessor, King Ibn Saud, during a visit to New York drew a reaction of displeasure from President Eisenhower in 1957.

Wagner Did It

On that occasion, Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner also ruled out any official welcome for Saud, calling him anti-Jewish, anti-Catholic and an upholder of slavery. Wagner subsequently won re-election that year.

A dissenting Jewish view was offered by Alfred M. Lilienthal, a member of the anti-Zionist American Council for Judaism. He said he will demand Lindsay's impeachment for what he called "sabotaging the American national interest in a quest for votes."

Faisal is one of the few openly pro-American leaders in the Middle East.

Replying to a question, Faisal told newsmen in Washington Wednesday that he considered his country's "enemy" to be, not Israel, but the Zionists who by "aggression" transplanted Arabs from their Palestinian homeland.

'Unfortunately'

Faisal then was asked about and Arab boycott of American business firms that trade with Israel. He replied:

"Unfortunately, Jews support Israel and we consider those who provide assistance to our enemies as our own enemies."

New York, which has a primary election coming up next Tuesday, has an estimated 1.8 million Jews, and the reaction to Faisal's remarks was instant and explosive. Lindsay isn't on the ballot.

First to protest was City Councilman Theodore Weiss, a candidate for a Democratic congressional nomination. He said any honor paid the king would be an insult to the city's Jewish residents.

Farbstein Weighs In

His opponent, incumbent Rep. Leonard Farbstein, was not far behind Weiss in adding his demurrer to any city welcome for Faisal.

Non-Jewish protests also were raised.

A pro-Arab group, the Action Committee on American-Arab Relations, in a telegram to city hall said: "Any discourtesy against the Arab guest of America will bring the retaliation of the Action Committee."

Credits To King

Lilienthal and Richard Korn, president of the American Council for Judaism, both contended that Faisal had correctly differentiated between Judaism and Zionism.

"The king stated it was 'the Zionists' that were the enemies of his country and 'Zionist aggressions' that resulted in the tragedy to Palestine," said Lilienthal.

"To raise the issue of anti-Semitism against the pure Semites, the Arabs, is meaningless. Anti-Semitism is a product of the Western world and not the Arab world where throughout the centuries Jews have found sanctuary and refuge until the political Zionist movement changed their status."

Taciturn Hero Gets Top Medal

Washington (UPI) — A soft-spoken Southerner, still bearing the scars of wounds received in combat a year ago, received the nation's highest military decoration Thursday for his heroism in the Vietnamese war.

1st Lt. Charles Q. Williams, 32, a wearer of the green beret of the Army's Special Forces, was presented the Medal of Honor by President Johnson in ceremonies at the White House also attended by Brig. Gen. John T. Kennedy, 81, one of the oldest living holders of the medal.

Williams and Kennedy, the President said, were examples of Americans who had fought "for a world of peace, a world that might become, however slowly, worthy of the human spirit."

Enlisted

An Army man since he enlisted at 20 in 1953, Williams managed to hold together a tiny band of Special Forces men, Navy Seabees and South Vietnamese soldiers when their camp at Dong Xoai was attacked by a much larger enemy force.

Williams was wounded five times during the 14-hour battle, and on his right forearm is one of the permanent marks of that night of June 9-10, 1965, an eight-inch scar.

Williams' pretty brunette wife, the former Anita Mae Gossette of Fayetteville, N.C., smiled at the ceremony Thursday when someone described her husband as a "man of few words."

Referring to her husband's saying that he would rather have the Medal of Honor than be president of the United States, Mrs. Williams said, "He's talked more today than he has since he got back from Viet Nam."

Hard For Her

The Williams family learned a week ago that the lieutenant would be awarded the medal, and were cautioned not to tell anyone. Mrs. Williams said it wasn't difficult for her husband to keep quiet, but for her part, "it was hard not to tell."

Kennedy, like Williams a native of South Carolina, won his medal with the 6th U.S. Cavalry in the 1909 campaign against the Moro tribesmen in the Philippines. On July 4 that year, Kennedy, then a second lieutenant, led a hazardous mission against an enemy-held cave on Patian Island.

Also present for Thursday's ceremony were Williams' four children and his mother, Mrs. Izora Hill, of Vance, S. C. His brother, Airman 1.C. John A. Hill Jr., is stationed at Seward Air Force Base, Tenn., and a sister, Mrs. Sue Bair, lives at Elloree, S. C.

Angry Dodd Wants His Ex-Secretary Charged

Washington (UPI) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., angered at a suggestion he might have received a $10,000 payoff from lobbyist Julius Klein, asked the Justice Department Thursday to bring perjury action against his pretty former personal secretary.

He exploded in anger after Mrs. Majorie Carpenter, a petite 28-year-old blonde, testified she overheard two Dodd aides speculate that Klein gave him "at least" $10,000 to help the lobbyist keep some West German clients.

Mrs. Carpenter was the second witness at hearings before the Senate Ethics Committee on charges by columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson that Dodd went to Germany at government expense to help Klein, a Chicago public relations executive.

The first witness, former aide James P. Boyd, accused the senator of "misappropriating hundreds of thousands of dollars" in campaign contributions.

'Social Relationship'

Mrs. Carpenter also said under cross-examination that she had had what Dodd's attorney called a "social relationship" with Boyd since 1963 and that, in the lawyer's words, "he is important to you."

When Mrs. Carpenter, who is divorced, was asked if she planned to marry Boyd, who is also separated from his wife, the question went unanswered when Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., interrupted and said he thought it "a rather personal question."

Mrs. Carpenter testified that she heard David Martin tell Jerry Zeiller that Klein "must have paid at least $10,000." She quoted Zeiller, now on the staff of Sen. Norris Cotton, R-N.H., as replying, "Oh, at least that."

She also testified in the jammed hearing room that Martin, who flew to Germany with Dodd, had praised Klein to a string of high West German officials.

Just Guessing

Under questioning, Mrs. Carpenter conceded in her soft Arkansas drawl that the men's conversation was "mere speculation" and not statements of fact. Stennis then ruled that the testimony be stricken from the record.

MRS. CARPENTER

At an afternoon session, both Martin and Zeiller were called as witnesses. Both said under oath that Mrs. Carpenter's report on the alleged conversation was false.

Also testifying was Helen Batherson, a buxom blonde former executive secretary to Klein in his Washington office. Miss Batherson punctuated some of her replies with giggles and soon had the hearing room laughing, too.

She said she was Klein's executive secretary, personal secretary and office manager in Washington. She said she made appointments for the visits which Klein made here two or three times a month.

'Girl Friday'

Asked what else she did, she replied: "Well, I was girl Friday for 12 years and that covers a lot of territory."

Generally, Miss Batherson confirmed information previously provided by documents and testimony. She said she knew Klein asked Dodd on "innumerable occasions" to intercede to help build Klein's "image" with his unhappy German clients. She said Klein tried to do the same with other Senate friends.

She testified that Klein paid the bill when Dodd and other senators were hosts at luncheons for German leaders here.

The agricultural research service of the U.S Department of Agriculture has awarded the University of Nebraska a $48,178 grant to be used in a 2½ year study of certain aspects of hog cholera vaccine.

15 Charged In Fire Death

Biloxi, Miss (AP)—A federal grand jury charged 15 white men Thursday with the fatal firebombing of Negro leader Vernon Dahmer Sr. In what the FBI branded as Ku Klux Klan terrorism to discourage Negro voting.

The 15, identified by the FBI as Klansmen, were indicted on two counts each—conspiring to intimidate Dahmer and other Negroes because of their efforts to vote, and actually intimidating them.

The group included Sam H. Bowers Jr., 41, Laurel bachelor labeled by the FBI as imperial wizard of the militant White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

Also indicted were the 13 white men arrested by the FBI March 28 in the Jan. 10 attack on the Dahmer Home-Grocery near Hattiesburg, and Mordaunt William Hamilton Sr., operator of a Hattiesburg hardware stare.

The FBI said the 13 were members of the White Knights and Hamilton had broken with the White Knights to join the rival United Klans.

The indictments were brought under the 1965 voting rights act and another federal law which provides that anyone who causes an act to be committed is punishable as a principal.

Dahmer was former president of the Forrest County branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Pompano Beach Believed Normal

Pompano Beach, Fla. (AP) — The streets of Pompano Beach's Negro district returned to normal Thursday, and Negro and white leaders said they believed the violence that rocked the city was over.

The leaders sat down to open lines of communications between the races, analyze the trouble and try to prevent a recurrence.

Liquor stores and bars, closed tight Wednesday as bands of Negroes roamed, were reopened for business.

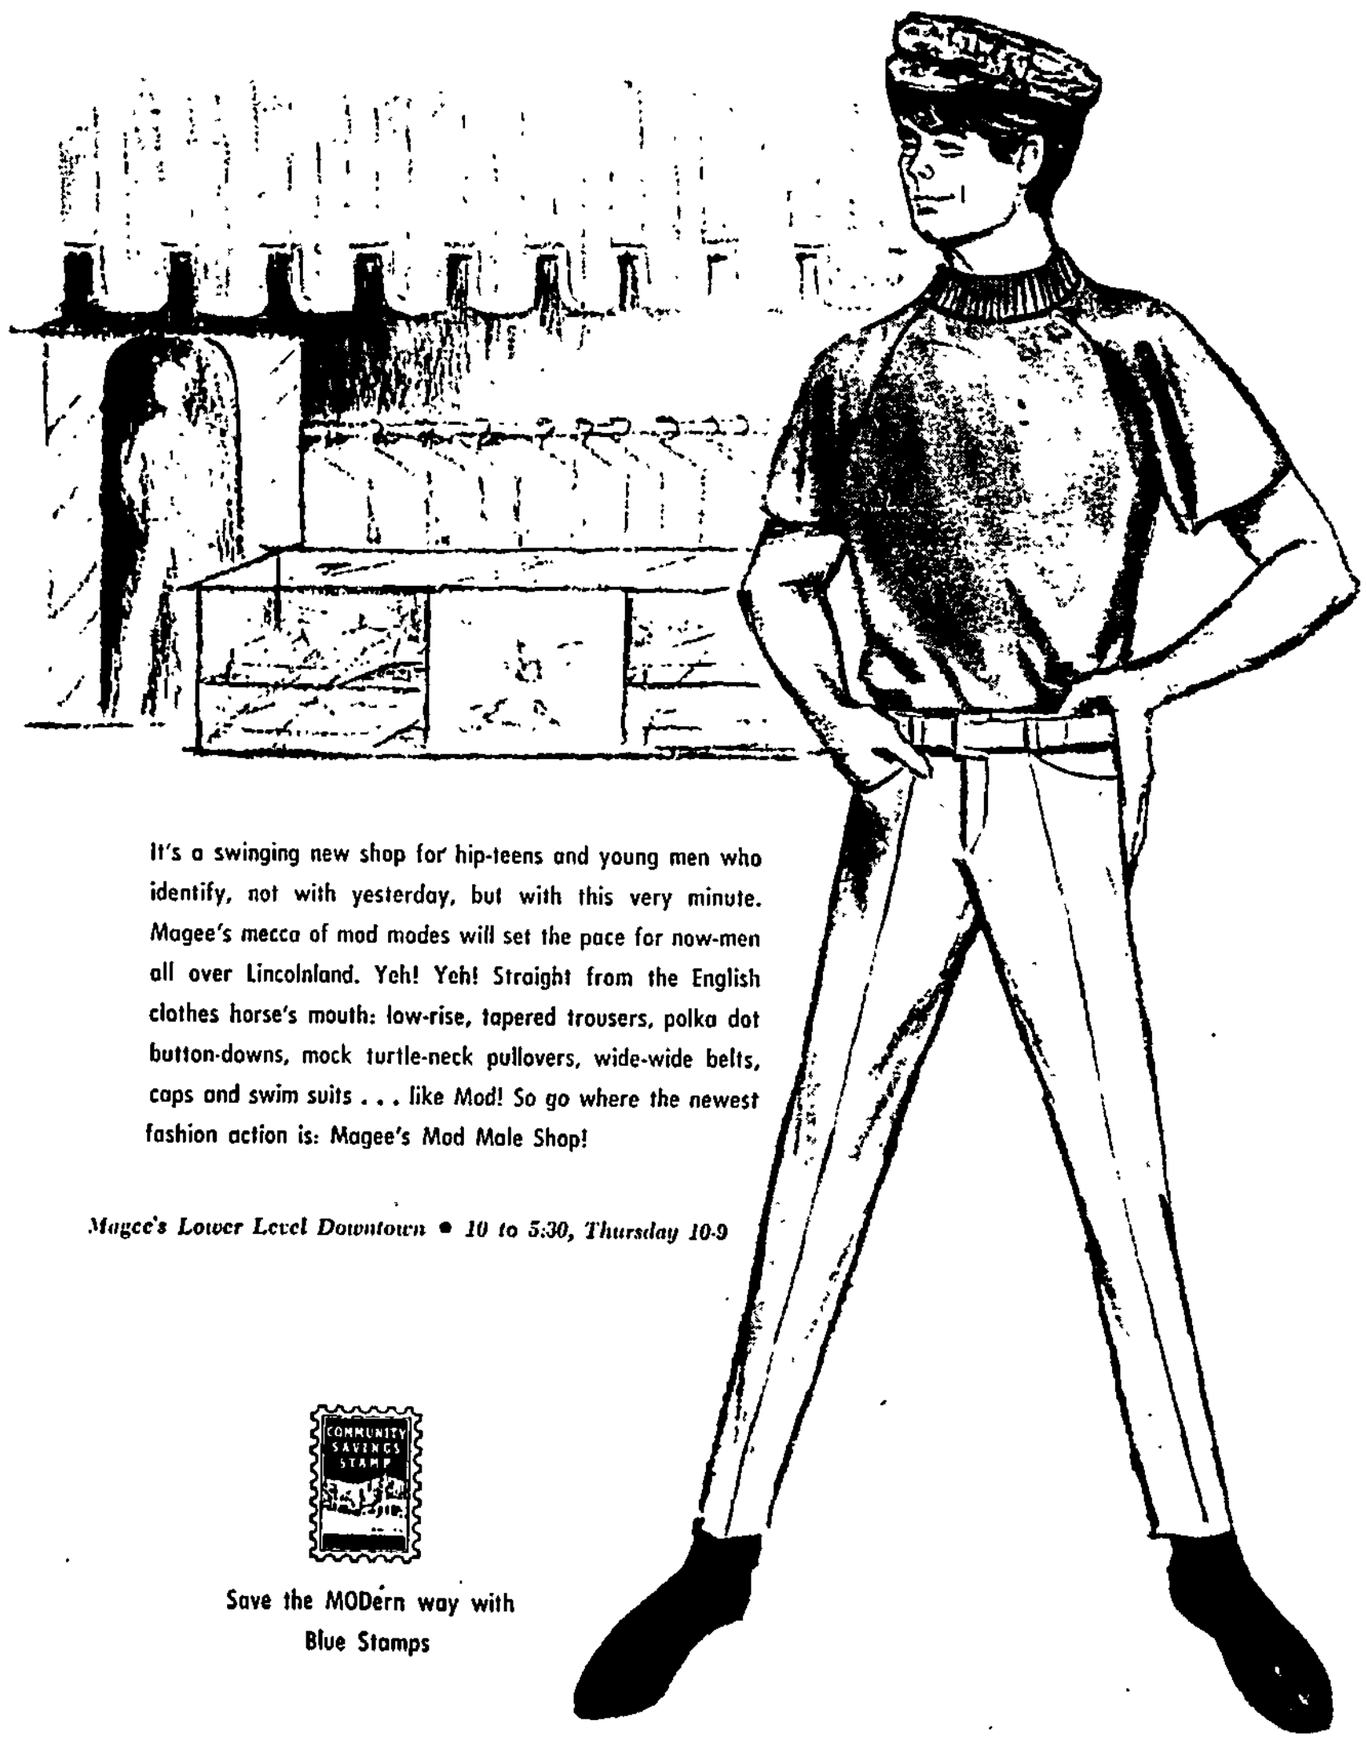

An occasional patrol car replaced the platoons of riot police that for two days tried to keep order.

NYC Snubbing Pro-U.S. Faisal

New York (AP) — Saudi Arabia's King Faisal, fresh from a kid glove White House welcome to this country, got the back of the hand from New York Thursday, because of his remarks about Jews.

Under pressure from Jewish organizations, politicians and others, Republican Mayor John V. Lindsay snubbed Faisal as did Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. The king appeared to take the affront calmly, however.

Faisal's remarks Wednesday in Washington that Jews who support Israel are enemies of the Arabs was termed by Lindsay "extremely offensive not just to Jews, but to all citizens of New York."

No Local Dignitaries

There was no representative of either city or state on hand at LaGuardia Airport when Faisal flew in from Washington in late afternoon. Present, however, were State Department officials and United Nations representatives.

Lindsay previously had cancelled a reception and banquet in honor of the Middle East monarch and a city hall spokesman said: "The mayor will not greet him, nor see him."

Groundwater Supply Plentiful For Nebraska

Geologist Tells Basin Inter-Agency Members

Scottsbluff (AP) — State geologist Eugene C. Reed said Thursday it is unlikely that Nebraska ever will draw on its groundwater resources so heavily that the reservoir will be exhausted.

A matter of economics ultimately will limit withdrawals and result in stabilization, although at lower water levels than now prevail, he declared in an address to the Missouri Basin Inter-Agency Committee in Scottsbluff.

"As ground levels lower," he explained, "the costs of lifting water will progressively increase and potential yields of wells will progressively decrease, but these factors will not be of serious proportion until the reservoir is half depleted, which may not occur for some period of time."

Reed, director of the conservation and survey division at the University of Nebraska, discussed problems related to the use of groundwater for irrigation purposes in Nebraska. The points he made included these:

27,102 Wells

—As for the beginning of this year, Nebraska had 27,102 registered irrigation wells, supplying water to an estimated 2,914,000 acres of land.

—Groundwater taken for irrigation utilizes only about 36% of average annual recharge.

—The effects of over-use of groundwater resources are largely local and appear to have little regional or statewide effect. The rate of lateral movement of groundwater is very slow under most conditions.

—Probably one of the greatest needs in the state is for better total water management, recognizing that a combination of surface and groundwater irrigation has the "greatest potential for effective utilization without extensive depletion and without extensive damage as a result of seepage."

In another address, State Water Resources Director Dan S. Jones Jr. said the comprehensive surface water rights law enacted by the 1895 Nebraska legislature, many times amended and interpreted by the courts, "has been found to be generally satisfactory."

'Certain Deficiencies'

"It admittedly has certain deficiencies," he said, "but it has been reliable enough that the rights of those whose many millions of dollars have been invested in irrigation and power developments have been adequately protected."

Gov. Frank Morrison told the Inter-Agency Committee a Missouri River Commission is essential.

The commission, with executive authority, would replace the committee which is limited to a co-ordinating job. Morrison said the committee has served well, but there are certain things that need to be done that are not being done.

Archeologists Losing Race To Bulldozers

Scottsbluff (AP) — An archeologist said Thursday that scientists trying to salvage evidence of the prehistory of the Missouri Basin are having trouble keeping ahead of the bulldozers and earth movers on water conservation projects.

The trouble, said Dr. Wilfred D. Logan, is the rapid multiplication of the conservation activities of federal agencies.

In the face of increasing pressure to act quickly, he said, "we face a shortage of competent professional scientists" and shortage of funds.

'Amateur' Threat

An additional threat, he said, is the "amateur excavator" who has more leisure time today to collect arrowheads and other Indian artifacts also being sought by scientists.

Logan, of Omaha, is a research archeologist for the Smithsonian Institution. He spoke Thursday before the Missouri Basin Inter-Agency Committee.

Dr. Logan declared that the scientific salvage effort in the Missouri Basin, which began in 1947, "is one of the major research efforts of mankind."

Sollenberger Is Bellevue College Prexy

Bellevue (AP)—Dr. Sam Sollenberger, assistant dean of the University of Omaha College of Adult Education, has been named first president of Bellevue College, which expects to enroll its first freshman class in 1967.

The college plans to offer adult education classes this fall.

Fairbury Native

Dr. Sollenberger, 39, is a native of Fairbury.

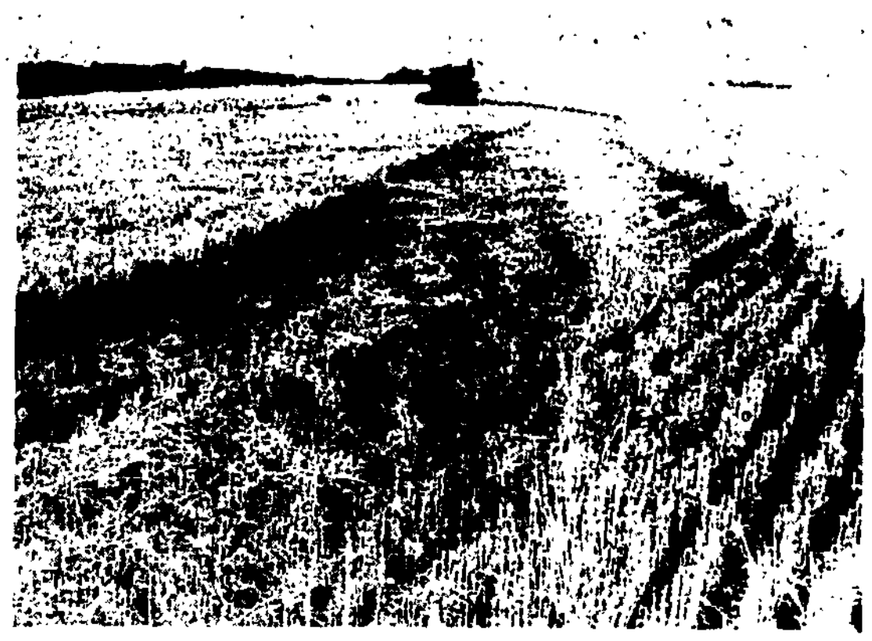

The board announced purchase of the old International Telephone and Telegraph building northwest of Bellevue as a site for some adult education classes.

A permanent campus is planned on an 88-acre tract near the Fontenelle Forest. A college costing from $6 million to $8 million is expected to be complete in about five years.

Rainfall Reports

Latest rainfall received throughout Nebraska as reported by the U.S. Weather Bureau and the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company included:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Alda | .20 | North Platte | 2.70 |
| Alma | .70 | Ravenna | .35 |
| Burwell | .31 | Scottsbluff | .13 |

| Lexington | 1.50 | Wood River | .14 |

Wheat Harvest Gets Off To Slow Start

So far only a few Nebraska farmers have cut that long-awaited first swath through the wheat field, but grain elevators should be in real business next week. Drought conditions are expected to lower yields considerably, as on this farm owned by Ruben Gibson of Gilead. His combine was getting about 20 bushels per acre after a total rainfall on the crop of only three inches. (Star Staff Photo).

School For Retarded Plans Told

Omaha (AP) — The director of Boys Town announced Thursday plans to build a school for the mentally retarded.

Msgr. Nicholas Wegner said "perhaps a $10 million" establishment is envisioned on a 240-acre site at 144th street north of West Dodge Road. The location is across the highway and just west of the main Boys Town campus.

Msgr. Wegner said at full development in about five years the school would have an enrollment of 500 boys "and perhaps girls" between the ages of 6 and 16 in I.Q.s of between 40 and 60.

The Catholic Franciscan Brothers, who are dedicated to "poor, neglected boys," have agreed to operate the school, he said. Brothers John Bosco Bosmensatt and Cyrian Hill of the order's Cincinnati office joined in making the announcement.

Msgr. Wegner said Boys Town has "some money" with which to start the program, but most of the financing will come from contributions.

He envisaged about 50 cottages, an auditorium, chapel, dining hall, classrooms, administration offices and recreational plant as part of the new institution. Students would not use any of the regular Boys Town buildings.

Boys Town bought the land about five years ago.

The new school will be known as The Boys Town Division for Exceptional Children. Its aim will be to teach skills to retarded children so that they may become self-sufficient.

Bullet Burns Now Believed Self-Inflicted

Hastings (AP) — Elmer J. Payne, 23-year-old Lawrence, Kan., man hospitalized after he appeared at a Clay County farm Wednesday night reporting he had been shot by a hitchhiker, was released from a Hastings hospital Thursday.

Clay County Sheriff Lloyd Pontine said Payne's injuries were not bullet wounds but superficial bullet burns apparently self inflicted. He was transferred to the county jail at Clay Center pending word from Topeka, Kan., officials on a warrant issued some time ago.

Stolen Gun

Pontine said the .22 caliber gun found in Payne's car was reported by Kansas officials to have been stolen in Lawrence.

The Lawrence, Kan., man drove into the farmyard of Ray Dieringer early Wednesday evening and told of being shot by a hitchhiker he had picked up in a cafe in Sutton.

Payne was quoted as saying he was shot after turning from Highway 6 onto a gravel road about 1½ miles east of the junction with Highway 6.

Hail, Winds, Lightning Lash West, Northern State Areas

By The Associated Press

Storms brought hail, high wind and damaging lighting to Nebraska late Wednesday and into Thursday.

Golf-ball size hail hit west of Scottsbluff. Hail also fell in the Sidney area.

Winds gusted up to 58 miles an hour at Ainsworth.

At North Platte rainfall accumulated to 2.70 inches. Almost an inch of rain fell at Valentine between 7 p.m. and 1 p.m. During the same period Sidney had more than three-quarters of an inch.

Lightning knocked out a switch at the Nebraska Public Power System substation at Ainsworth shortly after midnight interrupting electrical service on Consumers Public Power District lines to Bassett, Ainsworth, Valentine, Cody, Nenzel, Kilgore and Crookston along with some KBR rural lines.

Consumers started up a small generator at Valentine and restored service promptly to Cody, Nenzel, Kilgore and Crookston and Valentine got back into service in about a half hour. Through the use of an emergency two-way feed system from O'Neill Consumers was able to restore power to Bassett and Ainsworth in about 1½ hours. By that time the trouble was located and regular service restored.

Turner will succeed Dale Hohnstein, superintendent at Bushnell for four years, who accepted a similar position at Paxton.

Drivers, Pickers Dunked In River

Vancouver, B.C. (AP)—Four boys on their way to pick strawberries and the drivers of a small truck and a car were knocked into the Fraser River when a barge ripped out a section of bridge.

All were reported rescued. One was hospitalized.

Dry Weather Hoped For In Wheat Region

Sidney (AP) — Winter wheat farmers in the Nebraska Panhandle would gladly dispense with moisture for the next three weeks if the temperatures would linger in the 80's.

With the exception of some wheat in the east Gurley-Dalton area which was damaged by hail and wind Tuesday night, the winter wheat crop is excellent throughout the southern Panhandle.

Principal hail damage was five to 10 miles east of Gurley and Dalton. The damage area was not large, however.

The straw is short, because of a dry month of May, but the heads are lush and are filling well.

"If we don't get any really hot weather in the next few weeks, harvest should start in this area about July 10 to 15," said Ivan Liljegren, Cheyenne County agent.

Deuel County's harvest should begin about July 4, according to observers there, and be well under way on or about July 10.

In northern and western Cheyenne County harvest starting dates are around July 15 to 19, all depending on the weather, of course.

Scottsbluff Girl Named Queen Of Appaloosa Show

Syracuse, N.Y. (AP) — Patti Ann Hamburger of Scottsbluff, Neb., 20-year-old chestnut-haired beauty, reigned Thursday as queen of the 19th National Appaloosa Horse Show.

Miss Hamburger was picked from a field of 60 contestants at a dinner here.

As queen, she will preside over the three-day show which opens Friday.

Rickey Glass, 16, Fairfield, Is Dead

Fairfield—Funeral services for Rickey Lee Glass, 16, were held here Thursday at the Community Presbyterian Church. He died Monday en route to a Hastings hospital after becoming ill while at work in Hastings.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Glass of Fairfield, he had just completed his junior year at Fairfield High School. Surviving in addition to his parents are two brothers, Galen of Omaha and Leon of Hastings, and his grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Glass of Fairfield.

General LeMay Bronze Bust At SAC Dedicated

Omaha (AP)—A bronze bust of Gen. Curtis E. LeMay (ret.), who headed the Strategic Air Command for nine years, was dedicated at Strategic Air Command Headquarters Thursday.

LeMay, who retired in 1965 as Air Force chief of staff, was described by Arthur Storz Sr., longtime friend and associate, as "one of the greatest military geniuses of modern times."

Gen. John D. Ryan, present SAC commander, said, "The people who view this bust cannot help but be inspired by this great man."

The original bust, done by Phil Kraczkowski of Boston, was placed at the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo. Two copies were made. One remains at SAC, the other was presented to the general.

Normal June precipitation 4.50 inches.
Total June precipitation to date 2.68 in.
Total 1966 precipitation to date 7.62 in.

Extended Forecast

Nebraska: Temperatures will average near normal throughout the five-day period Friday through Monday. Cooler at the beginning of period with scattered showers and thunderstorms amounting to one-fourth to one-half an inch mostly during the first half of the period.

Normal lows for the five-day period are from 59 to 66 with normal highs in the lower 80s north to upper 80s south.

Kansas: Temperatures will average a little below normal in the west and near normal in the east during the five-day period. Precipitation from scattered showers and thunderstorms will amount to from one to two inches mostly during the first half of the period.

Normal lows are from 58 to 68 with normal highs in the upper 80s north to near 90 in the south.

Summary of Conditions

A large warm area of high pressure is centered over eastern Kentucky, combining with numerous small storm and low pressure centers scattered over the western two-thirds of the nation. A stationary front extending southwest from Niagara Falls to New Mexico is moving only slightly to the west, passing through the Nebraska area sometime around Saturday.

This will produce slightly cooler temperatures due to increased cloudiness with some locally heavy thunderstorms expected. Because there is no high pressure area to the west of the front, the front and conditions surrounding it will tend to remain stagnant for several days.

Groundwater Supply Plentiful For Nebraska

Geologist Tells Basin Inter-Agency Members

Scottsbluff (AP) — State geologist Eugene C. Reed said Thursday it is unlikely that Nebraska ever will draw on its groundwater resources so heavily that the reservoir will be exhausted.

A matter of economics ultimately will limit withdrawals and result in stabilization, although at lower water levels than now prevail, he declared in an address to the Missouri Basin Inter-Agency Committee in Scottsbluff.

"As ground levels lower," he explained, "the costs of lifting water will progressively increase and potential yields of wells will progressively decrease, but these factors will not be of serious proportion until the reservoir is half depleted, which may not occur for some period of time."

Reed, director of the conservation and survey division at the University of Nebraska, discussed problems related to the use of groundwater for irrigation purposes in Nebraska. The points he made included these:

27,102 Wells

—As for the beginning of this year, Nebraska had 27,102 registered irrigation wells, supplying water to an estimated 2,914,000 acres of land.

—Groundwater taken for irrigation utilizes only about 36% of average annual recharge.

—The effects of over-use of groundwater resources are largely local and appear to have little regional or statewide effect. The rate of lateral movement of groundwater is very slow under most conditions.

—Probably one of the greatest needs in the state is for better total water management, recognizing that a combination of surface and groundwater irrigation has the "greatest potential for effective utilization without extensive depletion and without extensive damage as a result of seepage."

In another address, State Water Resources Director Dan S. Jones Jr. said the comprehensive surface water rights law enacted by the 1895 Nebraska legislature, many times amended and interpreted by the courts, "has been found to be generally satisfactory."

'Certain Deficiencies'

"It admittedly has certain deficiencies," he said, "but it has been reliable enough that the rights of those whose many millions of dollars have been invested in irrigation and power developments have been adequately protected."

Gov. Frank Morrison told the Inter-Agency Committee a Missouri River Commission is essential.

The commission, with executive authority, would replace the committee which is limited to a co-ordinating job. Morrison said the committee has served well, but there are certain things that need to be done that are not being done.

Archeologists Losing Race To Bulldozers

Scottsbluff (AP) — An archeologist said Thursday that scientists trying to salvage evidence of the prehistory of the Missouri Basin are having trouble keeping ahead of the bulldozers and earth movers on water conservation projects.

The trouble, said Dr. Wilfred D. Logan, is the rapid multiplication of the conservation activities of federal agencies.

In the face of increasing pressure to act quickly, he said, "we face a shortage of competent professional scientists" and shortage of funds.

'Amateur' Threat

An additional threat, he said, is the "amateur excavator" who has more leisure time today to collect arrowheads and other Indian artifacts also being sought by scientists.

Logan, of Omaha, is a research archeologist for the Smithsonian Institution. He spoke Thursday before the Missouri Basin Inter-Agency Committee.

Dr. Logan declared that the scientific salvage effort in the Missouri Basin, which began in 1947, "is one of the major research efforts of mankind."

Sollenberger Is Bellevue College Prexy

Bellevue (AP)—Dr. Sam Sollenberger, assistant dean of the University of Omaha College of Adult Education, has been named first president of Bellevue College, which expects to enroll its first freshman class in 1967.

The college plans to offer adult education classes this fall.

Fairbury Native

Dr. Sollenberger, 39, is a native of Fairbury.

The board announced purchase of the old International Telephone and Telegraph building northwest of Bellevue as a site for some adult education classes.

A permanent campus is planned on an 88-acre tract near the Fontenelle Forest. A college costing from $6 million to $8 million is expected to be complete in about five years.

Rainfall Reports

Latest rainfall received throughout Nebraska as reported by the U.S. Weather Bureau and the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Company included:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Alda | .30 | North Platte | 2.70 |
| Alma | .70 | Ravenna | .35 |
| Burwell | .31 | Scottsbluff | .13 |

| Lexington | 1.50 | Wood River | .14 |

Turner To Head Bushnell School

Bushnell (AP) — Lee Turner, superintendent at the Lorenzo Public School the last four years, has signed a contract to serve as superintendent at the Bushnell public school.

Turner will succeed Dale Hohnstein, superintendent at Bushnell for four years, who accepted a similar position at Paxton.

Drivers, Pickers Dunked In River

Vancouver, B.C. (AP)—Four boys on their way to pick strawberries and the drivers of a small truck and a car were knocked into the Fraser River when a barge ripped out a section of bridge.

All were reported rescued. One was hospitalized.

Wheat Harvest Gets Off To Slow Start

So far only a few Nebraska farmers have cut that long-awaited first swath through the wheat field, but grain elevators should be in real business next week. Drought conditions are expected to lower yields considerably, as on this farm owned by Ruben Gibson of Gilead. His combine was getting about 20 bushels per acre after a total rainfall on the crop of only three inches. (Star Staff Photo).

School For Retarded Plans Told

Omaha (AP) — The director of Boys Town announced Thursday plans to build a school for the mentally retarded.

Msgr. Nicholas Wegner said "perhaps a $10 million" establishment is envisioned on a 240-acre site at 144th street north of West Dodge Road. The location is across the highway and just west of the main Boys Town campus.

Msgr. Wegner said at full development in about five years the school would have an enrollment of 500 boys "and perhaps girls" between the ages of 6 and 16 in I.Q.s of between 40 and 60.

The Catholic Franciscan Brothers, who are dedicated to "poor, neglected boys," have agreed to operate the school, he said. Brothers John Bosco Bosmensatt and Cyrian Hill of the order's Cincinnati office joined in making the announcement.

Msgr. Wegner said Boys Town has "some money" with which to start the program, but most of the financing will come from contributions.

He envisaged about 50 cottages, an auditorium, chapel, dining hall, classrooms, administration offices and recreational plant as part of the new institution. Students would not use any of the regular Boys Town buildings.

Boys Town bought the land about five years ago.

The new school will be known as The Boys Town Division for Exceptional Children. Its aim will be to teach skills to retarded children so that they may become self-sufficient.

Bullet Burns Now Believed Self-Inflicted

Hastings (AP) — Elmer J. Payne, 23-year-old Lawrence, Kan., man hospitalized after he appeared at a Clay County farm Wednesday night reporting he had been shot by a hitchhiker, was released from a Hastings hospital Thursday.

Clay County Sheriff Lloyd Pontine said Payne's injuries were not bullet wounds but superficial bullet burns apparently self inflicted. He was transferred to the county jail at Clay Center pending word from Topeka, Kan., officials on a warrant issued some time ago.

Stolen Gun

Pontine said the .22 caliber gun found in Payne's car was reported by Kansas officials to have been stolen in Lawrence.

The Lawrence, Kan., man drove into the farmyard of Ray Dieringer early Wednesday evening and told of being shot by a hitchhiker he had picked up in a cafe in Sutton.

Payne was quoted as saying he was shot after turning from Highway 6 onto a gravel road about 1½ miles east of the junction with Highway 6.

Hail, Winds, Lightning Lash West, Northern State Areas

By The Associated Press

Storms brought hail, high wind and damaging lighting to Nebraska late Wednesday and into Thursday.

Golf-ball size hail hit west of Scottsbluff. Hail also fell in the Sidney area.

Winds gusted up to 58 miles an hour at Ainsworth.

At North Platte rainfall accumulated to 2.70 inches. Almost an inch of rain fell at Valentine between 7 p.m. and 1 p.m. During the same period Sidney had more than three-quarters of an inch.

Lightning knocked out a switch at the Nebraska Public Power System substation at Ainsworth shortly after midnight interrupting electrical service on Consumers Public Power District lines to Bassett, Ainsworth, Valentine, Cody, Nenzel, Kilgore and Crookston along with some KBR rural lines.

Consumers started up a small generator at Valentine and restored service promptly to Cody, Nenzel, Kilgore and Crookston and Valentine got back into service in about a half hour. Through the use of an emergency two-way feed system from O'Neill Consumers was able to restore power to Bassett and Ainsworth in about 1½ hours. By that time the trouble was located and regular service restored.

85% More Graduated

Washington — From 1955 to 1965 the number of American college graduates per year rose 85%. The increase was from 388,843 to 746,124.

Dry Weather Hoped For In Wheat Region

Sidney (AP) — Winter wheat farmers in the Nebraska Panhandle would gladly dispense with moisture for the next three weeks if the temperatures would linger in the 80's.

With the exception of some wheat in the east Gurley-Dalton area which was damaged by hail and wind Tuesday night, the winter wheat crop is excellent throughout the southern Panhandle.

Principal hail damage was five to 10 miles east of Gurley and Dalton. The damage area was not large, however.

The straw is short, because of a dry month of May, but the heads are lush and are filling well.

"If we don't get any really hot weather in the next few weeks, harvest should start in this area about July 10 to 15," said Ivan Liljegren, Cheyenne County agent.

Deuel County's harvest should begin about July 4, according to observers there, and be well under way on or about July 10.

In northern and western Cheyenne County harvest starting dates are around July 15 to 19, all depending on the weather, of course.

Scottsbluff Girl Named Queen Of Appaloosa Show

Syracuse, N.Y. (AP) — Patti Ann Hamburger of Scottsbluff, Neb., 20-year-old chestnut-haired beauty, reigned Thursday as queen of the 19th National Appaloosa Horse Show.

Miss Hamburger was picked from a field of 60 contestants at a dinner here.

As queen, she will preside over the three-day show which opens Friday.

Rickey Glass, 16, Fairfield, Is Dead

Fairfield—Funeral services for Rickey Lee Glass, 16, were held here Thursday at the Community Presbyterian Church. He died Monday en route to a Hastings hospital after becoming ill while at work in Hastings.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Glass of Fairfield, he had just completed his junior year at Fairfield High School. Surviving in addition to his parents are two brothers, Galen of Omaha and Leon of Hastings, and his grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Glass of Fairfield.

High temperature one year ago 81; low 63.

Sun rises 4:56 a.m., sets 8:02 p.m.
Normal June precipitation 4:50 inches.
Total June precipitation to date 2.68 in.
Total 1966 precipitation to date 7.62 in.

Extended Forecast

Nebraska: Temperatures will average near normal throughout the five-day period Friday through Monday. Cooler at the beginning of period with scattered showers and thunderstorms amounting to one-fourth to one-half an inch mostly during the first half of the period.

Normal lows for the five-day period are from 59 to 66 with normal highs in the lower 80s north to upper 80s south.

Kansas: Temperatures will average a little below normal in the west and near normal in the east during the five-day period. Precipitation from scattered showers and thunderstorms will amount to from one to two inches mostly during the first half of the period.

Normal lows are from 58 to 68 with normal highs in the upper 80s north to near 90 in the south.

Summary of Conditions

A large warm area of high pressure is centered over eastern Kentucky, combining with numerous small storm and low pressure centers scattered over the western two-thirds of the nation. A stationary front extending southwest from Niagara Falls to New Mexico is moving only slightly to the west, passing through the Nebraska area sometime around Saturday.

This will produce slightly cooler temperatures due to increased cloudiness with some locally heavy thunderstorms expected. Because there is no high pressure area to the west of the front, the front and conditions surrounding it will tend to remain stagnant for several days.

Centers A Tough Question

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

No more difficult decision has ever been faced by the City-County Planning Commission than the one it now faces regarding two proposed new major shopping centers for the city. One center would be in the area of 52nd and R and one in the area of 48th and Van Dorn. Both would be on the order of Gateway, now operating northeast of Cotner and O and the only such center of its kind in Lincoln.

Tied up in a neat package in the two new center proposals are all those things that will bear heavily upon the future of Lincoln, its prosperity and its environment. On the side of the new centers is a growing feeling that Lincoln is behind the times in its economic outlook, that it has not adopted the kind of policies and attitude that spell successful industrial expansion. There is a belief shared by many that Lincoln is too restrictive with its zoning, too demanding with its building code and too niggardly in its public services. At least the zoning and public services questions constitute prime considerations at this stage of things.

Dragging Its Heels

Zoning and public services, of course, are tied closely together. With two new shopping centers, Lincoln would have to invest more heavily in street improvements and probably other utilities than current thinking now dictates. Also, the centers would tend to shift the direction of emphasis in utility construction.

Now, it is the proper function of zoning to control such things as street and sewer needs, to regulate the development of land so that such utility demands are in keeping with maximum efficiency and the city's ability to provide them. However, it is not the purpose of zoning to retard expansion in keeping with a city government's unwillingness to meet its responsibilities.

In the case of Stevens Creek east of Lincoln, land subdivision, which is a part of zoning, has been held up in a discriminatory manner because the city has failed to meet its responsibilities. The area is ripe for development but being held back by government decisions steeped in years of poor public planning and current timidity. To what extent the same thing might be involved in the 52nd and R and 48th and Van Dorn proposals is terribly difficult to ascertain. This is a part of the decision, however, that the commission and then the City Council will have to make in the weeks ahead. Are the street improvements that would be essential for these developments inadvisable from a scientific traffic point of view or do they merely represent an investment the city is afraid to make?

This much can be said—the city government has been twiddling its thumbs for years now in the matter of a concentrated and enlightened approach to traffic movement. For years, the city has been millions and millions of dollars behind its need and has done absolutely nothing to cure the situation. It has no idea in mind at the present time as to what it might do to meet this shortage over the next decade. We have drifted along in a kind of euphoria that promises to give us a rude awakening one of these days soon. Perhaps the day will be when the city receives its long awaited and long overdue traffic study. This study may again spotlight the relatively adverse nature of the Lincoln traffic situation. To the credit of the City-County Planning Commission, it has consistently advocated a bond issue to bring Lincoln's street system up to date, an advocacy that has routinely been ignored in total by the City Council.

Another legitimate functon of zoning is to protect property values and this is a vital consideration in the current shopping center controversy. There are business and residential property owners and interests near both proposed centers who do not want these installations, who think the developments will be a liability to them.

There are downtown Lincoln interests who feel the centers will be excessive competition and observers and interested parties alike who feel that the centers will erode the downtown Lincoln tax base. All of these are pertinent thoughts but again, there is a question of degrees.

Zoning that is too protective also leads to decay due to lack of competition. Competition is the lifeblood of our economic system and to stifle it is as destructive as abandoning yourself entirely to it. The business too protected by zoning becomes lazy and unimaginative and its property values become inflated. There are some signs that downtown Lincoln has tried to live more off its monopolistic type of advantages than off of any stronghold on its own bootstraps. Where is its beauty, its parking, its lighting and its advanced traffic planning?

Competition's Value

The feeling seems to be that the two new shopping centers will fail to get the nod they need from the commission and City Council. But the uncertainty of whatever decisions is made ought to impress upon us the lack of urgency with which we are assuming our total community responsibilities.

Identification

There was a time when the newly rich reached for status by spending large sums supporting opera or buying European art masterpieces.

The music bit wasn't so good. The patrons had to show up, spending hours listening to something they could not understand. Art was better. One could hang it on the wall and forget it. Later it could be contributed to a gallery in perpetuation of the tincture of culture it gave to the original buyer.

Now it is different. If you want status, buy a wrist watch.

Switzerland is a champion at making watches. Its watchmakers, who export 95 per cent of their product, are doing a land office business. Among their best customers are the newly made nations.

In parts of Africa where little if any clothes are worn, a wrist watch is about the best status symbol one can find. And since there are all varieties of watches, they offer a good way to tell one's rank. A cheap wrist watch run by a mainspring is sufficient to prove the wearer is a citizen of the modern age. If he is better off than that, he can wear a watch with a gold case. He can rise from there to a self-winding watch, from there to a self-winder with a stop-watch mechanism or one that also gives dates, or calculates elapsed time.

If a man is head of his country, he can wear a wrist watch that does all those things and rings an alarm, too.

Service Units Face Vote

State Senator Ross Rasmussen has said he is confident that voters will approve the educational service units as established under terms of a bill he authored in the last session of the Legislature. The bill divided the state into 19 centers and petitions forcing a vote in the matter have been successful in 79 counties.

But the petition movements required only 5 percent of the voters and, thus, are not much of any any indication of support or dislike of the centers. The public, Senator Rasmussen said, is beginning to take a careful look at the center approach and beginning to realize the potential there.

The potential, of course, is very great. The centers would provide schools within them to unite their efforts in the pursuit of those educational opportunities they now lack. Thus, they could provide libraries, physical education, special education, counseling and a host of other programs that might well be impossible for any single school.

Rather than weakening local school districts, the centers ought to strengthen them by turning them into operations that offer much greater opportunity to their students. Schools that might never survive on their own may find it possible to continue through the assistance of such centers.

Parents who now might be anticipating moving their children into a more advanced school system may find they can do as well in their own local district. The approach is one that should be welcomed in the more lightly populated or rural areas of the state where low enrollments and a small tax base make first-class educational facilities impossible to provide.

What The Doctor Ordered

Any conflict that might develop between the Job Corps Center at the abandoned Lincoln Air Force Base and local educational institutions over the hiring of faculty is just the kind of conflict the doctor would order. A Job Corps spokesman has said the center will not raid local schools in hiring its faculty but will seek teachers from all over the nation.

State Education Commissioner Floyd Miller has said he fears it may be inevitable that the center will cause a "disturbance" in the Nebraska teaching ranks even though center officials have shown concern. He said that administrative and teacher salaries at the center will definitely be above those at the Vocational-Technical School at Milford and in the Omaha and Lincoln school systems.

But Lincoln and Omaha school officials expressed no such concern. Omaha School Superintendent Paul Miller said, in fact, that the Job Corps centers in Lincoln and Omaha will attract Nebraskans who would have gone to other states for jobs.

We hope that Dr. Miller was expressing more a matter of fact than of concern. He of all people should welcome an influence that would tend to upgrade public salaries since this is one of the most serious problems faced in the public sector of our economy.

One of the big reasons this state loses so many of its young people is because the salaries found are not as attractive as they are in many other areas. City and state governments, particularly, have been plagued with this problem. Any influence the new Lincoln Job Corps center might have toward improving salaries in the area will be most welcome and an ultimate service to our economy.

Cunningham Leans Toward Auto Lobby

WASHINGTON — Working quietly backstage, the auto lobby has made amazing progress in the House Commerce Committee toward gutting the auto safety bill.

Detroit's chief weapon has been the National Auto Dealers Association and its members. It's an election year, congressmen need campaign funds, and the combination of this plus astute salesmanship has caused the auto dealers to brag that they have the Staggers committee all sewed up.

The bill the committee is reporting out is milk-and-water compared to the tougher Senate bill when it comes to setting safety standards which the automobile industry must follow.

The key congressmen whom the auto lobbyists claim to have wrapped up are: Walter Rogers, Tex., Democrat; Glenn Cunningham, Neb., Albert Watson, S.C., James Harvey, Mich., Arthur Younger, Calif., all Republicans, with support from most of the other Republicans on the committee.

Rogers of Pampa, Tex., incidentally, is the Democrat who has gone to bat for Madison Avenue to champion unregulated cigaret advertising and the TV networks' demand that they be free to glut the airways with commercials. So it's not surprising that Rogers is for the auto industry lobby, which is a long way from Pampa, Tex.

It's also not surprising that Rep. Cunningham of Omaha is for the auto lobby. Though George Meany and the AFL consistently endorse him, Cunningham votes for almost everything labor is against, except the Taft-Hartley Act.

☆ ☆ ☆

Congressmen who are for strong safety standards for the auto industry include Torbert MacDonald, Mass., John Moss, Calif., Lionel Van Deerlin, Calif., John M. Murphy, N.Y., Olive Huot, N.H., Charles Farnsley, Ky., and James MacKay, Ga., all Democrats. However, they are unorganized and handicapped by the fact that the committee staff, William Dickson and Charles Stevenson, are apathetic and seem influenced by the auto dealers lobby.

Kindly Chairman Harley Staggers, D-W.Va., appears bewildered by the controversy, hasn't taken a strong stand as did Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee.

Magnuson, with the help of other senators, took the weak Johnson administration bill and put teeth in it. Knowing the makeup of the Senate committee, the auto dealers didn't waste time lobbying on the Senate side. They concentrated on the weaker House committee and achieved results.

Congress Feeling Pressure Of Youth

WASHINGTON — The impact on American politics of ambitious youth and the spread of impressionism is mixed. It hits the Senate hard, the House much less. In the short run, some Republicans stand to profit, notably in California; but Democrats are better prepared to prevail generally and for the long pull.

Democrats got their head start in 1960, when John F. Kennedy became the first president born in the 20th century. An ambitious and powerful father had left his mark on Kennedy, whose first announced appointments represented the old order, J. Edgar Hoover remaining as FBI chief and Allen Dulles, brother of the Eisenhower secretary of state, continuing as director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Traces of this paternal fealty remain in the government today, noticeably in continuation of associates of the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, a friend of the founding father, in secondary but important jobs. But, by and large, Kennedy attracted the younger generation, which is now demanding to be heard.

Sen. Robert Kennedy, so unlike his brother in personality and temperament, is not so much the inspiration of this group as its legatee. He will almost certainly meet with challenges along the way.

Statistics emphasize the premonitory chill running through the Senate. Its 1966 class includes four incumbents over 70 and 19 over 60. The average age is 60 and would be much greater had not senators appointed or elected to fill unexpired terms been strikingly more youthful than their predecessors. All were born in this century.

The oldest of this latter group, comprising three Democrats and three Republicans, is Sen. Ross Bass of Tennessee, Democrat, 48.

His party colleagues are Fred Harris of Oklahoma, 35, and Walter Mondale of Minnesota, 38. James Pearson of Kansas is dean of the three Republicans at 46. Robert Griffin of Michigan is 42, and John Tower of Texas is 40.

Oregon is a special case, as Sen. Maurine Neuberger is retiring.

But the nominees for her seat reflect the trend. Gov. Mark Hatfield, Republican, is 43. Rep. Robert B. Duncan, Democrat, 45.

The average age of the House dropped similarly in the Johnson-Humphrey landslide, when younger men mowed down seniors in such unlikely places as the Middle West. Democratic optimism about the party's chances of maintaining its heavy House majority is largely based on the feeling that the party has already caught the wave of the future and will ride with it.

☆ ☆ ☆

By historical accident, President Kennedy's successor, Lyndon Johnson, goes back to the New Deal and Vice President Humphrey was close to it, though both were born in this century. The President, a compromiser by necessity when senator from Texas, quickly embraced and forwarded the Roosevelt program. Humphrey had always advocated it.

There is now no youth revolt against their leadership; but a gap between generations exists, and the young rebels among the Democrats are hastening to fill it.

Raincoats Almost Obsolete?

By MONA B. PARKER

The Comstock News states with positive emphasis that Nebraska weather just simply cannot be predicted . . .

"It can change so suddenly that weather forecasters are talking about how dry it's getting to be when it's already raining."

The Burwell Tribune found no argument when it described as "just about one of the nicest things that has happened" to that part of the country in a long time the rainfall that blessed the area exactly at a time when it was needed.

Corn was coming along in pretty good shape and the alfalfa was better than they had a right to expect, but with the rains, things "are really looking up."

☆ ☆ ☆

Speaking of rain, J. C. Crosland had rather an interesting observation in the Hooker County Tribune at Mullen. Raincoats are getting to be almost an obsolete item, he thinks. At least, there was the smell of mothballs in the air around the Crosland residence as such wear was dug out "of wherever such almost useless garments are stored."

He says that in modern living, the car has almost replaced the raincoat, and "the fastest some of us move is the dash from the car to the house on rainy days."

A Kearney family was not exactly reassured on educational prospects and attitudes, as far as their five-year-old daughter is concerned.

They were wondering, in view of the fact that she will start school proper this fall, just what her reaction to the first day of summer Bible school would be. When she returned home, her mother asked if she planned to return the next day.

A Hastings father has read "Tom Sawyer" but apparently his two young sons never got around to Mark Twain's classic. And it may be just as well, from the father's point of view. He owns two power mowers and about once a week he starts them up, all revved and rarin' to go and before he knows it, he has a son on the handle of each machine, enthusiastically cutting the grass. The wise and relaxed father reports that they zig a little here and zag a little there and probably use up more gas than he would, but the job gets done, the boys have a good time—and he takes it easy.

"Yes," was the answer. "I forgot my sweater."

The Scribner farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ahrndt has a segregation situation all its own. It isn't one that is likely to stir up any marches or rioting. A few feathers might fly, but that is all. But it is a bit unusual.

Mrs. Ahrndt writes for the Scribner Rustler and tells the story there. They have 34 mallards and 16 muscovy ducklings and they are all together in a pen with the mothers that hatched them. The four mallard hens and their babies stay on one side and the two muscovy hens and their broods on the other.

"If by chance a dark duckling crosses the line over to the white or vice versa, six angry mother ducks scold and pick at the odd ball. To each his own. No integration in that brooder shed."

Peggy Neal, Blue Hill Leader columnist, had a gardening hint to pass on to readers that might not be so attractive but makes up in comfort what it lacks in style. Someone she heard of uses an old pair of her son's basketball knee pads for the hands-and-knees work in the garden. She has often been accused of playing field hockey in her outfit, but doesn't care one whit.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Garden County News at Oshkosh had an item under what was apparently "something borrowed," but we got such a chuckle from it that we decided to relay it, also . . .

"Note found under a windshield wiper: 'I have just smashed into your car. The people who saw the accident are watching me. They think I am writing down my name and address. They are wrong.'"

Safety Idea

Lincoln, Neb.

Ideas are so often appraised well by the press that I relate an idea that was born of a dream, the dream I believe to have been sparked by effective news coverage.

I have refrained from sharing the idea for some time, but a certain gnawing makes me wonder if I shouldn't share it.

The dream: I came upon a terrible highway pile-up—me, a non-smoker, without a flashlight, the telephone booth without light, the telephone book removed, and no small change in my pocket. What did I do? I dialed Operator twice — zero-zero—and State Aid answered, and help was quickly dispatched.

There was more to the dream, but the idea is a simple dialing free everywhere in the U.S.A. for help. Every ambulance, doctor aide, fire department, police and sheriff has a different telephone number in every town. Why not dial double zero for help anywhere in these United States and let the cost of this service be paid for from the federal telephone tax?

If the idea is appraised as a worthwhile one, let us share it with the National Safety Council.

Debate Offered

Wayne, Neb.

As a student enrolled in a state college in Nebraska and as a person seeking higher education, knowledge and enlightenment, I was appalled at the recent statements made by one Mr. Denney on his policy in Viet Nam. Mr. Denney, a Republican seeking the First District congressional seat in Nebraska, proposes to send more and more of our innocent boys to that amorphous mass of disintegrating men, into the tropical bug-infested hell of South Viet Nam. Mr. Denney is the first person who has spoken so radically for all-out war. His tactics as a politician surprise me, and I pray that our vote as citizens of Nebraska surprises him in the fall election. I invite everyone to look into the statements and work of the incumbent, Congressman Clair A. Callan. He has not only worked for the First District, but represented the entire state of Nebraska in Washington.

The Young Democratic Clubs of Nebraska have resolved in their state convention this spring to urge all candidates seeking political seats to meet in face-to-face debate so that the voters become familiar with each person's position on vital questions. In connection with this resolution, Wayne State College offered their services in the form of a summer election institute to allow debates. Letters were sent and met their death simply because Curtis, Tiemann and other Republican candidates flatly refused the opportunity this summer. The Democratic candidates including Gov. Morrison, Lt. Gov. Sorensen, and Congressman Callan indicated a willingness at any convenient time.

I think this illustrates to the voter one of two significant facts—either the Republicans are afraid of the incumbents or they really don't have any issues of their own to debate. I hope the voters remember these facts when they go to the polls. If they want Nebraska to be a prosperous, growing state, they should choose the right leaders.

Zest Of Travel

Lincoln, Neb.

Vacation is a period of absence from work. By plane, one misses all the sights of pleasure between. But by other means, one may watch the easy flow of changing pictures. There are Nebraska's young green fields, broken by a slowly winding river. There are trees that offer travelers a moment of rest. Iowa varies with its bluffs and wandering roads. Kansas still clings to a smoothness of timber, fields, with unusual gray inland waters studded with dead wood.

No longer are there herds of grazing cattle, horses, the big red barn the predominating farm building. There is a new modern sleekness in the landscaping of homes, blended color scheme and skyline.

As one moves into Missouri, there is a complete difference. Rugged and rocky bluffs leap skyward, softened by clinging vines, wild flowers and trees is beautiful disarray. There are many show horses being trained. In parts of this state, one is nobody unless an owner of such animals.

Traveling is education in so many ways never found in books.

Praise For Buses

Lincoln, Neb.

As a daily bus rider for the past 14 years, I would like to compliment the Lincoln City Lines on their excellent service, and the drivers who are invariably courteous and helpful. Few businesses could operate so well as this company does, for it is true not too many people ride the bus, preferring their cars except in bad weather when I notice they leave their cars at home and ride the bus.

The feeling seems to be that the two new shopping centers will fail to get the nod they need from the commission and City Council. But the uncertainty of whatever decisions is made ought to impress upon us the lack of urgency with which we are assuming our total community responsibilities.

Cunningham Leans Toward Auto Lobby

WASHINGTON — Working quietly backstage, the auto lobby has made amazing progress in the House Commerce Committee toward gutting the auto safety bill.

Detroit's chief weapon has been the National Auto Dealers Association and its members. It's an election year, congressmen need campaign funds, and the combination of this plus astute salesmanship has caused the auto dealers to brag that they have the Staggers committee all sewed up.

The bill the committee is reporting out is milk-and-water compared to the tougher Senate bill when it comes to setting safety standards which the automobile industry must follow.

The key congressmen whom the auto lobbyists claim to have wrapped up are: Walter Rogers, Tex., Democrat; Glenn Cunningham, Neb., Albert Watson, S.C., James Harvey, Mich., Arthur Younger, Calif., all Republicans, with support from most of the other Republicans on the committee.

Rogers of Pampa, Tex., incidentally, is the Democrat who has gone to bat for Madison Avenue to champion unregulated cigaret advertising and the TV networks' demand that they be free to glut the airways with commercials. So it's not surprising that Rogers is for the auto industry lobby, which is a long way from Pampa, Tex.

It's also not surprising that Rep. Cunningham of Omaha is for the auto lobby. Though George Meany and the AFL consistently endorse him, Cunningham votes for almost everything labor is against, except the Taft-Hartley Act.

☆ ☆ ☆

Congressmen who are for strong safety standards for the auto industry include Torbert MacDonald, Mass., John Moss, Calif., Lionel Van Deerlin, Calif., John M. Murphy, N.Y., Olive Huot, N.H., Charles Farnsley, Ky., and James MacKay, Ga., all Democrats. However, they are unorganized and handicapped by the fact that the committee staff, William Dickson and Charles Stevenson, are apathetic and seem influenced by the auto dealers lobby.

Kindly Chairman Harley Staggers, D-W.Va., appears bewildered by the controversy, hasn't taken a strong stand as did Sen. Warren Magnuson, D-Wash., chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee.

Magnuson, with the help of other senators, took the weak Johnson administration bill and put teeth in it. Knowing the makeup of the Senate committee, the auto dealers didn't waste time lobbying on the Senate side. They concentrated on the weaker House committee and achieved results.

Congress Feeling Pressure Of Youth

WASHINGTON — The impact on American politics of ambitious youth and the spread of impressionism is mixed. It hits the Senate hard, the House much less. In the short run, some Republicans stand to profit, notably in California; but Democrats are better prepared to prevail generally and for the long pull.

Democrats got their head start in 1960, when John F. Kennedy became the first president born in the 20th century. An ambitious and powerful father had left his mark on Kennedy, whose first announced appointments represented the old order, J. Edgar Hoover remaining as FBI chief and Allen Dulles, brother of the Eisenhower secretary of state, continuing as director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Traces of this paternal fealty remain in the government today, noticeably in continuation of associates of the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy, a friend of the founding father, in secondary but important jobs. But, by and large, Kennedy attracted the younger generation, which is now demanding to be heard.

Sen. Robert Kennedy, so unlike his brother in personality and temperament, is not so much the inspiration of this group as its legatee. He will almost certainly meet with challenges along the way.

Statistics emphasize the premonitory chill running through the Senate. Its 1966 class includes four incumbents over 70 and 19 over 60. The average age is 60 and would be much greater had not senators appointed or elected to fill unexpired terms been strikingly more youthful than their predecessors. All were born in this century.

The oldest of this latter group, comprising three Democrats and three Republicans, is Sen. Ross Bass of Tennessee, Democrat, 48.

His party colleagues are Fred Harris of Oklahoma, 35, and Walter Mondale of Minnesota, 38. James Pearson of Kansas is dean of the three Republicans at 46. Robert Griffin of Michigan is 42, and John Tower of Texas is 40.

Oregon is a special case, as Sen. Maurine Neuberger is retiring.

But the nominees for her seat reflect the trend. Gov. Mark Hatfield, Republican, is 43, Rep. Robert B. Duncan, Democrat, 45.

The average age of the House dropped similarly in the Johnson-Humphrey landslide, when younger men mowed down seniors in such unlikely places as the Middle West. Democratic optimism about the party's chances of maintaining its heavy House majority is largely based on the feeling that the party has already caught the wave of the future and will ride with it.

☆ ☆ ☆

By historical accident, President Kennedy's successor, Lyndon Johnson, goes back to the New Deal and Vice President Humphrey was close to it, though both were born in this century. The President, a compromiser by necessity when senator from Texas, quickly embraced and forwarded the Roosevelt program. Humphrey had always advocated it.

There is now no youth revolt against their leadership; but a gap between generations exists, and the young rebels among the Democrats are hastening to fill it.

Raincoats Almost Obsolete?

By MONA B. PARKER

The Comstock News states with positive emphasis that Nebraska weather just simply cannot be predicted . . .

"It can change so suddenly that weather forecasters are talking about how dry it's getting to be when it's already raining."

The Burwell Tribune found no argument when it described as "just about one of the nicest things that has happened" to that part of the country in a long time the rainfall that blessed the area exactly at a time when it was needed.

Corn was coming along in pretty good shape and the alfalfa was better than they had a right to expect, but with the rains, things "are really looking up."

☆ ☆ ☆

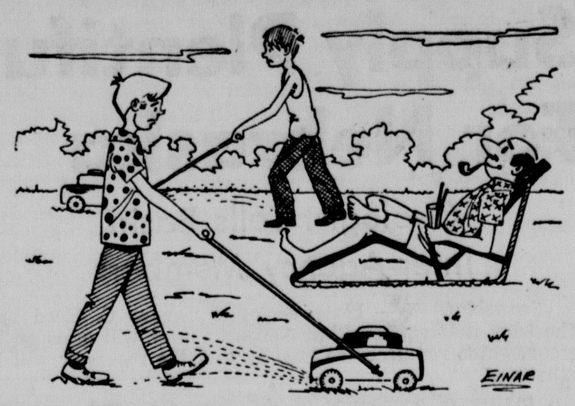

Speaking of rain, J. C. Crosland had rather an interesting observation in the Hooker County Tribune at Mullen. Raincoats are getting to be almost an obsolete item, he thinks. At least, there was the smell of mothballs in the air around the Crosland residence as such wear was dug out "of wherever such almost useless garments are stored."

He says that in modern living, the car has almost replaced the raincoat, and "the fastest some of us move is the dash from the car to the house on rainy days."

A Kearney family was not exactly reassured on educational prospects and attitudes, as far as their five-year-old daughter is concerned.

They were wondering, in view of the fact that she will start school proper this fall, just what her reaction to the first day of summer Bible school would be. When she returned home, her mother asked if she planned to return the next day.

A Hastings father has read "Tom Sawyer" but apparently his two young sons never got around to Mark Twain's classic. And it may be just as well, from the father's point of view. He owns two power mowers and about once a week he starts them up, all revved and rarin' to go and before he knows it, he has a son on the handle of each machine, enthusiastically cutting the grass. The wise and relaxed father reports that they zig a little here and zag a little there and probably use up more gas than he would, but the job gets done, the boys have a good time—and he takes it easy.

"Yes," was the answer. "I forgot my sweater."

The Scribner farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ahrndt has a segregation situation all its own. It isn't one that is likely to stir up any marches or rioting. A few feathers might fly, but that is all. But it is a bit unusual.

Mrs. Ahrndt writes for the Scribner Rustler and tells the story there. They have 34 mallards and 16 muscovy ducklings and they are all together in a pen with the mothers that hatched them. The four mallard hens and their babies stay on one side and the two muscovy hens and their broods on the other.

"If by chance a dark duckling crosses the line over to the white or vice versa, six angry mother ducks scold and pick at the odd ball. To each his own. No integration in that brooder shed."

She has often been accused of playing field hockey in her outfit, but doesn't care one whit.

Safety Idea

Lincoln, Neb.

Ideas are so often appraised well by the press that I relate an idea that was born of a dream, the dream I believe to have been sparked by effective news coverage.

I have refrained from sharing the idea for some time, but a certain gnawing makes me wonder if I shouldn't share it.

The dream: I came upon a terrible highway pile-up—me, a non-smoker, without a flashlight, the telephone booth without light, the telephone book removed, and no small change in my pocket. What did I do? I dialed Operator twice — zero-zero—and State Aid answered, and help was quickly dispatched.

There was more to the dream, but the idea is a simple dialing free everywhere in the U.S.A. for help. Every ambulance, doctor aide, fire department, police and sheriff has a different telephone number in every town. Why not dial double zero for help anywhere in these United States and let the cost of this service be paid for from the federal telephone tax?

If the idea is appraised as a worthwhile one, let us share it with the National Safety Council.

Debate Offered

Wayne, Neb.

As a student enrolled in a state college in Nebraska and as a person seeking higher education, knowledge and enlightenment, I was appalled at the recent statements made by one Mr. Denney on his policy in Viet Nam. Mr. Denney, a Republican seeking the First District congressional seat in Nebraska, proposes to send more and more of our innocent boys to that amorphous mass of disintegrating men, into the tropical bug-infested hell of South Viet Nam. Mr. Denney is the first person who has spoken so radically for all-out war. His tactics as a politician surprise me, and I pray that our vote as citizens of Nebraska surprises him in the fall election. I invite everyone to look into the statements and work of the incumbent, Congressman Clair A. Callan. He has not only worked for the First District, but represented the entire state of Nebraska in Washington.

The Young Democratic Clubs of Nebraska have resolved in their state convention this spring to urge all candidates seeking political seats to meet in face-to-face debate so that the voters become familiar with each person's position on vital questions. In connection with this resolution, Wayne State College offered their services in the form of a summer election institute to allow debates. Letters were sent and met their death simply because Curtis, Tiemann and other Republican candidates flatly refused the opportunity this summer. The Democratic candidates including Gov. Morrison, Lt. Gov. Sorensen, and Congressman Callan indicated a willingness at any convenient time.

I think this illustrates to the voter one of two significant facts—either the Republicans are afraid of the incumbents or they really don't have any issues of their own to debate. I hope the voters remember these facts when they go to the polls. If they want Nebraska to be a prosperous, growing state, they should choose the right leaders.

Zest Of Travel

Lincoln, Neb.

Vacation is a period of absence from work. By plane, one misses all the sights of pleasure between. But by other means, one may watch the easy flow of changing pictures. There are Nebraska's young green fields, broken by a slowly winding river. There are trees that offer travelers a moment of rest. Iowa varies with its bluffs and wandering roads. Kansas still clings to a smoothness of timber, fields, with unusual gray inland waters studded with dead wood.

No longer are there herds of grazing cattle, horses, the big red barn the predominating farm building. There is a new modern sleekness in the landscaping of homes, blended color scheme and skyline.

As one moves into Missouri, there is a complete difference. Rugged and rocky bluffs leap skyward, softened by clinging vines, wild flowers and trees is beautiful disarray. There are many show horses being trained. In parts of this state, one is nobody unless an owner of such animals.

Traveling is education in so many ways never found in books.

Praise For Buses

Lincoln, Neb.

As a daily bus rider for the past 14 years, I would like to compliment the Lincoln City Lines on their excellent service, and the drivers who are invariably courteous and helpful. Few businesses could operate so well as this company does, for it is true not too many people ride the bus, preferring their cars except in bad weather when I notice they leave their cars at home and ride the bus.

OFF THE RECORD By Ed. Reed

"Did you keep my date amused while I finished dressing, Dad?"

Identification

There was a time when the newly rich reached for status by spending large sums supporting opera or buying European art masterpieces.

The music bit wasn't so good. The patrons had to show up, spending hours listening to something they could not understand. Art was better. One could hang it on the wall and forget it. Later it could be contributed to a gallery in perpetuation of the tincture of culture it gave to the original buyer.

Now it is different. If you want status, buy a wrist watch.

Switzerland is a champion at making watches. Its watchmakers, who export 95 per cent of their product, are doing a land office business. Among their best customers are the newly made nations.

In parts of Africa where little if any clothes are worn, a wrist watch is about the best status symbol one can find. And since there are all varieties of watches, they offer a good way to tell one's rank. A cheap wrist watch run by a mainspring is sufficient to prove the wearer is a citizen of the modern age. If he is better off than that, he can wear a watch with a gold case. He can rise from there to a self-winding watch, from there to a self-winder with a stop-watch mechanism or one that also gives dates, or calculates elapsed time.

If a man is head of his country, he can wear a wrist watch that does all those things and rings an alarm, too.

Service Units Face Vote

State Senator Ross Rasmussen has said he is confident that voters will approve the educational service units as established under terms of a bill he authored in the last session of the Legislature. The bill divided the state into 19 centers and petitions forcing a vote in the matter have been successful in 79 counties.

But the petition movements required only 5 percent of the voters and, thus, are not much of any any indication of support or dislike of the centers. The public, Senator Rasmussen said, is beginning to take a careful look at the center approach and beginning to realize the potential there.

The potential, of course, is very great. The centers would provide schools within them to unite their efforts in the pursuit of those educational opportunities they now lack. Thus, they could provide libraries, physical education, special education, counseling and a host of other programs that might well be impossible for any single school.

Rather than weakening local school districts, the centers ought to strengthen them by turning them into operations that offer much greater opportunity to their students. Schools that might never survive on their own may find it possible to continue through the assistance of such centers.

Parents who now might be anticipating moving their children into a more advanced school system may find they can do as well in their own local district. The approach is one that should be welcomed in the more lightly populated or rural areas of the state where low enrollments and a small tax base make first-class educational facilities impossible to provide.

What The Doctor Ordered

Any conflict that might develop between the Job Corps Center at the abandoned Lincoln Air Force Base and local educational institutions over the hiring of faculty is just the kind of conflict the doctor would order. A Job Corps spokesman has said the center will not raid local schools in hiring its faculty but will seek teachers from all over the nation.

State Education Commissioner Floyd Miller has said he fears it may be inevitable that the center will cause a "disturbance" in the Nebraska teaching ranks even though center officials have shown concern. He said that administrative and teacher salaries at the center will definitely be above those at the Vocational-Technical School at Milford and in the Omaha and Lincoln school systems.

But Lincoln and Omaha school officials expressed no such concern. Omaha School Superintendent Paul Miller said, in fact, that the Job Corps centers in Lincoln and Omaha will attract Nebraskans who would have gone to other states for jobs.

We hope that Dr. Miller was expressing more a matter of fact than of concern. He of all people should welcome an influence that would tend to upgrade public salaries since this is one of the most serious problems faced in the public sector of our economy.

One of the big reasons this state loses so many of its young people is because the salaries found are not as attractive as they are in many other areas. City and state governments, particularly, have been plagued with this problem. Any influence the new Lincoln Job Corps center might have toward improving salaries in the area will be most welcome and an ultimate service to our economy.

Manpower Training Offered 3,300

By Associated Press

Training programs under the Manpower Development and Training Act (MDTA) have been offered approximately 3,300 unemployed Nebraskans since 1963, State Labor Commissioner Lambert Eitel reported Thursday.

Although nationally and in Nebraska the unemployment rate has dropped, there still remain residual pockets of hard core unemployed among older workers, disadvantaged youth, minority group members, the educationally deficient and the migrating farm worker.

Training efforts in the coming fiscal year — starting July 1—will be directed towards these groups, Eitel said.

Planning Meet

The comments were contained in a news release issued jointly by Eitel and State Education Commissioner Floyd Miller following a conference between the two to discuss Nebraska's MDTA plans.

A national policy change putting more emphasis on on-the-job training and less on classroom training is reflected in the allocation of federal funds for Nebraska.

The allocation for the coming year, fiscal 1967, has been tentatively estimated at $2,326,000, compared with $2,462,000 last year.

The new estimate includes $1,243,000 for institutional or classroom type training, $865,000 for on-the-job training and $218,000 of unallotted reserve. For the current year the comparable figures were $1,764,000 institutional, $331,000 on-the-job, and $367,000 unallotted reserve.

Job Funds Up

Dr. Miller noted this means an estimated reduction of $521,000 for classroom training and an increase of $534,000 for on-the-job training.

Both Eitel and Miller expressed concern over the prospective curtailment of classroom training at Sidney, but pointed out that new trainees are being enrolled through Aug. 8 under existing programs, and that the number of trainees will gradually decrease. Dr. Miller also noted that the new state vocational technical school in Sidney is tentatively scheduled to start in October and this should bolster the Sidney economy, which has felt serious economic effects from closing of the Sioux Ordnance Depot.

Miller and Eitel also discussed the change taking effect July 1 under which the State Department of Education must provide 10% matching money for federal allocations for the classroom programs. Previously all MDTA costs were federally reimbursed.

Drill Cutback Possible For Nebraska Brigade

By Associated Press

State Adjutant General Lyle Welch said Thursday it is too early to know whether Nebraska's 67th Brigade will be among those qualifying for a cutback in drills from 72 to 58 per year.

The Army announced in Washington Thursday that units in the National Guard Selected Reserve Force which have been engaged in intensified drills since November will be permitted to cut back if they can pass battalion army training and other operational tests.

The 67th Brigade, composed largely of Nebraskans but containing also one battalion from northwest Iowa, recently completed its summer active duty training at Camp Ripley, Minn. Results of the tests undergone at that time have not been received, Gen. Welch said.

96 Formations

The brigade actually has ben training since November at the rate of 96 formations a year, but this will be cut back to 72 with the start of the new fiscal year July 1. If the brigade is permitted further to reduce its drill sessions to 58, this will be done, Welch said.

The intensified training since November, requiring two full weekends per month, has involved heavy sacrifice by the Nebraska Guardsmen, their families and employers, Welch noted.

But the result has been "a terrific state of training."

"We now have the best trained National Guard force the state has ever had," he declared. "It's also the best equipped we've ever had, and it has achieved the highest state of readiness ever attained at the home station."

Evaluations

Gen. Welch said he did not know when the brigade will receive the evaluations determining whether the further cutback to 58 drills will be allowed.

He said the brigade has been handicapped by the lack of some radar equipment and some sophisticated communications equipment. Some heavy armament including self propelled cannons also needed for training arrived only shortly before the Camp Ripley encampment, he noted.

He said he presumed allowance will be made for these conditions and the ultimate decision will be a matter of judgment.

The brigade did receive a flattering inspector general's report prior to the summer camp, he noted.

Mayor: State Has 'Nothing To Lose' On Proposal

By BOB SCHREPF
Star Staff Writer

Mayor Dean Petersen said Thursday that the state "has nothing to lose and everything to win" by the city's proposal to construct a joint off-street parking facility and state office building on a proposed site north of the Capitol.

"This will solve a number of problems for everyone concerned," said the mayor, pointing out that the state could acquire needed land for office space and additional parking, while preserving existing parking on the south side of the statehouse.

He said also that two of the city's "prime objectives" is to provide parking for the Municipal Auditorium and to further enhance the 15th St. beautification project.

Not Confined

As outlined by the mayor, the city would acquire a full square block of land between 14th and 15th and L and M. "However, the idea is not necessarily confined to that area," he said.

The block in question is ringed by residences on the south, a new and used car dealership on the west, O'Shea-Rogers and the telephone building on the north and the Scottish Rite temple on the east.

The preliminary sketch shows two high-rise structures separated by a mall. The city would finance, through revenue bonds, the development of retail shops on the ground level and the construction of 4-5 floors of parking area. No cost estimate was given.

The state would then finance the addition of other storys on both buildings for office space, and acquire "air rights," or a lease of the property, on a $1 per year basis, the mayor proposed.

State employes would be allowed use of the parking facilities he said.

He emphasized that the proposal is flexible enough to plan for one building, rather than two.

The city has strongly urged that the proposed state office building be located north of the Capitol and its hopes hinge on the recommendations of the Capitol Building Commission and the Legislative Council, possibly forthcoming in July.

At the request of the council's executive board, the commission, under fire to proceed rapidly with plans for the building, has given Lincoln until July 1 to propose a site different than the state-owned property south of the statehouse.

The proposal as advanced by the city "has been one of my dreams ever since I became mayor," Petersen said.

Firm Legal Grounds

Although the plan would require the approval of the legislature, the city appears to be on firm legal grounds as far as its authority is concerned.

According to City Atty. Ralph Nelson, the city has been given assurance that it can issue revenue bonds for off-street parking, and city participation in a joint effort with state agencies has been authorized by the state's Interlocal Cooperation Act.

There is also precedent for the city to lease its property for commercial or retail use, Nelson said, adding that "it is not unusual for a city to do this."

Under its proprietary function, Nelson noted, the city in recent years has leased to private interests property at Winthrop and South for a drive-in restaurant and independant service station; land northwest of the city for the location of a radio antenna and park land near the interstate for a campground.

State Rules Beekeeper's Damage Suit Needs Legislature Approval

By United Press International

The Nebraska Justice Department contended Thursday a Boone County bee keeper cannot sue the state for $2,500 in damages without legislative approval.

In a motion filed in Lancaster District Court, Assistant Atty. Gen. Mel Kammerlohr asked District Judge William C. Hastings to throw out the amount from a pending lawsuit.

Earlier, Albert G. Knoefler imported about 50,000 bees into Nebraska from California. The State Agriculture Department told him to deport them for failing to meet certain statutory requirements covering bee commerce.

Knoefler then asked the District Court to issue an injunction halting further interference by the Agriculture Department while he contested the statutes. The injunction was granted.

His attorney, Merril Reller of Lincoln, maintains the statutes are unconstitutional. He said they are impossible to observe.

He also seeks $2,500 in damages resulting from the Agriculture Department's action.

Kammerlohr said the state has constitutional immunity" from benig sued by a citizen, unless the Legislature gives its permission.

State, U.S. Aides Discuss Medical Plan

Washington (AP) — Nebraska officials conferred Thursday with Dr. Ellen Winston, commissioner of welfare, about Nebraska's plan for participation in a new federal program of medical assistance.

One of the participants at the closed meeting said he thought it cleared the way for federal approval of Nebraska's plan.

An agency spokesman said Thursday's session was informal and no action was taken. The spokesman said it is customary for states to discuss their plans with federal officials.

The new program starts July 1.

A Nebraskan at the meeting said one phase of the discussion dealt with distribution of money. He said federal officials explained that the new program would not permit Nebraska to continue to distribute state money to welfare recipients on the basis of actual need. The new program, he said he was told, calls for a state to set averages and then pay average amounts.

At issue Thursday was the application of this to payments for shelter, he said. For the time being, pending the results of a study, he said it was agreed that Nebraska would continue paying shelter money on a basis of need.

Safe Conduct OKd For East Germans

Bonn, Germany (AP) — The West German Parliament approved Thursday a bill to grant safe conduct to East German officials if the government decides their visit would serve "important public interests."

The measure clears the way for face-to-face debates between West Germans and Communists of East Germany.

Wirtz Files Suit Here Against 2 Firms In Gordon

U.S. Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz filed an injunction suit in Federal District Court here Thursday, alleging violations of overtime pay and record-keeping provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act by two flight firms at Gordon.

Named defendants were Sandhill Airways, Inc.; Sandhills Spraying, Inc., and Jess J. McGinley, all of Gordon. McGinley was identified as president of both firms.

The petition alleged the firms have employed workers for more than 40 hours a week without paying them at the overtime rate of time and a half for work in excess of 40 hours, and that the firms have failed to make, keep and preserve adequate payroll records.

A permanent injunction against violation of the Fair Labor Standards Act is requested.

Rancher Seeks Cattle Money In High Court

A Keith County rancher Thursday urged the State Supreme Court to reverse a lower court decision which granted $3,500 from the sale of cattle to the First National Bank in Ogallala.

Oral Lane contends the money was mistakenly awarded to the bank, which held a chattel mortgage from a Harold Swan, who raised the cattle for Lane.

Lane contends the payment for rent that Swan owed him should precede the bank's right to the money.

District Judge John H Kuns disagreed. He said Lane was entitled to only $789.

High School Returns Good On Education Plans Survey

By United Press International

Nebraska's 1966 high school graduates are showing good response to a statewide survey of educational plans at the post-high school level.

The University of Nebraska said more than 1,000 returns have been received from graduates in all parts of the state.

Forms were sent to 3,000 students selected to compose a typical 15% sample of the 24,000 youngsters who graduated from public and parochial high schools this year.

First of its kind in Nebraska, the survey is sponsored by the Nebraska Association of Colleges and Universities, both public and private.

"We are very pleased with the high level of cooperation already demonstrated by the June graduates and hope that a high percentage will return completed questionnaires by July 1," said Harry S. Allen and Russell H. Brown, University staff members coordinating the study.

From the returns, educators hope to determine how closely present collegiate operations are meeting Nebraska's needs and obtain an accurate assessment of the demand for post-high school vocational training as well as for college study.

Allen said coding will assure anonymity of respondents during the processing of questionnaires and that only the statistical results will be made public when the study is completed later this summer or early this fall.

Groundbreaking For State Road Offices Is Held

A brief groundbreaking ceremony for the new State Department of Roads Office Building was held Thursday at the site near 14th and Burnham.

The ceremony was called on short notice so the contractor could begin immediate work.

Lt. Gov. Philip Sorensen wielded the ceremonial shovel, after which workmen and machines began excavating for the basement, relocating utility lines and removing portions of drives and parking lots.

The three-story structure will cost about $1.8 million.

Olson construction Co. of Lincoln holds the general construction contract in the amount of $1,175,271.

Federal Grant Given Cass County Program

Washington (AP) — The Department of Housing and Urban Development announced Thursday approval of funds for projects.

A $13,200 grant went to Nebraska for use in helping Cass County prepare a comprehensive plan for its development.

Curtis Film Defended

By United Press International

Richard W. Smith of Lincoln, chairman of the Citizens for Curtis organization, said Thursday Gov. Frank Morrison "has given the people of Nebraska another example that he is short on facts and long on inaccuracy."

He referred to Morrison's comments concerning a 35-minute color film on Sen. Carl T. Curtis' life. The film will be used in the senator's campaign against Morrison.

"Mr. Morrison apparently is the first movie reviewer whoever reviewed a film before witnessing it," Smith said.

He said the governor is "100% wrong when he says that Mr. Curtis hired movie actor Robert Taylor to narrate the film. Mr. Taylor volunteered his service and wasn't paid a cent, he said.

"It seems strange that Governor Morrison, a native of Colorado who was reared in Kansas, now says that Bob Taylor, a native of Nebraska who received his elementary and secondary education in this state and later attended Doane College, has not been in Nebraska long enough to have any knowledge of the state.

"Mr. Taylor has investment interests in Grand Island and frequently comes home to hunt and fish within our borders. He was a hunting guest of the State of Nebraska at Fort Robinson State Park last fall. Bob Taylor also has helped in numerous Doane College financial drives and frequently contributes to this fine school in Crete.

"Robert Taylor is a successful Nebraskan who wants to re-elect Carl Curtis and apparently this disturbs Governor Morrison."

Smith said the purpose of the film, called "A Man From Minden," is to show the people of Nebraska what Curtis has done during his 27 years in Congress. He said there are other Nebraskans in the film besides Taylor.

"The best judges of the film will be Nebraskans themselves. We urge everyone to attend, including Governor Morrison," he said.

New Valuation Slows County Work

Changes in the determination of intangible valuation have "slowed the county" in its work of compiling the abstract of actual value of property to be submitted to the State Board of Equalization, Arthur Davis reported.

The assessor's office is working overtime and using extra people in an effort to complete the abstract by the Jyly 4 Board of Equalization statutory meeting, Davis said.

The April Nebraska Supreme Court decision requiring that foreign corporation stock be taxed according to book value rather than market value left the county work on that portion of intangible property at a standstill.

Needed Book Values

"We weren't able to go ahead because we didn't have the book values from the state tax commissioner's office," Davis explained.

However, as soon as it became evident that LB1 would be passed by the special session of the Legislature, "we started immediately" on work on the affected intangibles, the assessor pointed out.

LB1 set the method of valuing stock of foreign corporations for tax purposes at "fair market value" which had been the method used until the Supreme Court interpretation of the tax law.

"We hope to have the abstract finished by the end of next week," Davis remarked, although he could not give an estimate of how far behind in its work the changes had put the county.

Office Handicapped

Davis also noted that his office was somewhat handicapped with the loss of several experienced, key personnel.

Merle McNeil, assistant to the state tax commissioner, indicated that the department was able to furnish market values to the assessors almost immediately after the Legislative action.

There was not enough time after the Supreme Court's decision to get book values of foreign corporation stock to assessors for their use before the Legislature eliminated the need to compute book values, he said.

It was estimated that $3 million in revenue would be lost to the state, counties, cities and school districts if LB1 had not been enacted by Tax Commissioner George Dworak at roughly 50% of market value.

State Gets McCook Dump Controversy

By Associated Press

Another garbage dump controversy has been dropped in the laps of State Health Department officials.

State Sanitation Engineer T. A. Filipi reported Thursday the city of McCook's application for approval of a proposed garbage dump site west of the city has been protested by 23 McCook area residents.

One of the protestants, Richard L. Bunstock, a railroad employe, said the proposed dump would violate the Federal Highway Beautification Act because it would be visible from U.S. 6-34.

Site Approved

The McCook City Council and Red Willow County Board of Commissioners have approved the 215-acre site one half mile west of the city which would permit abandonment of dumps south of the city and at the municipal airport.

The Federal Aviation Agency has ordered the city to discontinue use of the airport dump because of its potential hazard to pilots, Filipi said.

McCook City Manager George Pyle said the proposed garbage dump operation could be screened from the view of motorists and would not be located within 1,000 feet of the highway right-of-way in accordance with beautification legislation.

Loss In Values

The 23 protestants, who reside or maintain businesses west of McCook, said the proposed dump location would result in a considerable loss in property values in the area.

"Papers, trash, smoke and foul odors will be carried from this dump site directly to these homes and businesses," they said.

Filipi, who must approve or reject the site, said he will make a personal inspection Tuesday and his decision will be based on health factors, not emotion.

Meeting Set

Filipi and State Health Board member Howard Yost of Grand Island are scheduled to meet with local officials and citizens in Grand Island Saturday to discuss a garbage dump relocation in that city.

The City of Grand Island has also been ordered by federal officials to abandon its dump at the municipal airport, but relocation attempts have met loud public outcrys.

Two Nebraska Post Office Bids Won By Pugsley

E. P. Pugsley of Denver Thursday was announced as successful bidder on new post offices at DuBois in Nebraska's Pawnee County and Pickrell in Gage County.

Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., made the announcement in Washington.

Both buildings will be leased by the government for 5-year periods with four 5-year renewal options.

Callan said the DuBois building will cost approximately $14,000, be completed by next January and rent for $1,476 a year.

The Pickrell building will cost approximately $15,000, also will be completed by next January and will rent for $1,444 a year.

COUNTY GOP HEAD RAPS DEMO CHIEF

Lancaster County Republican Chairman Ed Weaver Jr. Thursday accused his Democratic counterpart, Norman Krivosha, of presenting "a distorted picture" of the tax issue in the gubernatorial campaign.

Weaver noted that Krivosha had challenged Republican candidate for governor Norbert Tiemann of Wausa to make his tax position known.

Weaver said Tiemann "has made it well known that he will be making some very specific tax recommendations as soon as the Supreme Court rules on the income tax petition matter.

"Because the situation is so clouded at the present time —with none of us knowing just what system will be in use as of next January — it is rather pointless to get involved in a discussion of the tax question until after the Supreme Court tells us whether or not there will be a vote on the income tax this November," Weaver said.

Rusk Will Meet Sato

Tokyo (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk will arrive here July 4 to attend the fifth American - Japan Ministerial Conference On Trade and Economics and for talks with Prime Minister Eisaku Sato, the foreign office announced.

State Farm Bureau Will File Property Tax Petitions Today

The Nebraska Farm Bureau Federation plans to file Friday some 88,000 signatures from 88 counties on initiative petitions calling for a Nov. 8 vote on abolishment of the state property tax.

Secretary of State Frank Marsh reported Thursday the filing is scheduled for 10 a.m. in his office.

Richard Goodding, federation director for research and legislation, said petitions were collected from all counties except Furnas, Gosper, Hooker, Howard and Webster and the petition drive exceeded goals in 57 counties.

The filing was originally scheduled for last month, but the need to obtain addresses from petition circulators delayed the initiative task. Filing deadline is July 7.

The petition drive must garner 57,609 legal signatures, with at least five per cent of the voters in each of 38 counties.

The 14,000-member farm organization launched the petition effort after completion of a referendum drive to force a November vote on repeal of the 1965 state income tax law.

The State Supreme Court currently has under advisement a lower court ruling holding the income tax referendum petitions invalid.

Israel Won't Host Meet Unless German Unused

Tel Aviv Israel (UPI)—The Israel Medical Association has decided to refuse to host an international convention unless German is dropped as one of the four official languages to be used during the session, it was reported. The World Association of Physicians has scheduled a meeting here next March and Hebrew, English, French and German were designated as the official languages.

Curtis Film Defended

By United Press International

Richard W. Smith of Lincoln, chairman of the Citizens for Curtis organization, said Thursday Gov. Frank Morrison "has given the people of Nebraska another example that he is short on facts and long on inaccuracy."

He referred to Morrison's comments concerning a 35-minute color film on Sen. Carl T. Curtis' life. The film will be used in the senator's campaign against Morrison.

"Mr. Morrison apparently is the first movie reviewer whoever reviewed a film before witnessing it," Smith said.

He said the governor is "100% wrong when he says that Mr. Curtis hired movie actor Robert Taylor to narrate the film. Mr. Taylor volunteered his service and wasn't paid a cent, he said.

"It seems strange that Governor Morrison, a native of Colorado who was reared in Kansas, now says that Bob Taylor, a native of Nebraska who received his elementary and secondary education in this state and later attended Doane College, has not been in Nebraska long enough to have any knowledge of the state.

"Mr. Taylor has investment interests in Grand Island and frequently comes home to hunt and fish within our borders. He was a hunting guest of the State of Nebraska at Fort Robinson State Park last fall. Bob Taylor also has helped in numerous Doane College financial drives and frequently contributes to this fine school in Crete.

"Robert Taylor is a successful Nebraskan who wants to re-elect Carl Curtis and apparently this disturbs Governor Morrison."

Smith said the purpose of the film, called "A Man From Minden," is to show the people of Nebraska what Curtis has done during his 27 years in Congress. He said there are other Nebraskans in the film besides Taylor.

"The best judges of the film will be Nebraskans themselves. We urge everyone to attend, including Governor Morrison," he said.

New Valuation Slows County Work

Changes in the determination of intangible valuation have "slowed the county" in its work of compiling the abstract of actual value of property to be submitted to the State Board of Equalization, Arthur Davis reported.

The assessor's office is working overtime and using extra people in an effort to complete the abstract by the Jyly 4 Board of Equalization statutory meeting, Davis said.

The April Nebraska Supreme Court decision requiring that foreign corporation stock be taxed according to book value rather than market value left the county work on that portion of intangible property at a standstill.

Needed Book Values

"We weren't able to go ahead because we didn't have the book values from the state tax commissioner's office," Davis explained.

However, as soon as it became evident that LB1 would be passed by the special session of the Legislature, "we started immediately" on work on the affected intangibles, the assessor pointed out.

LB1 set the method of valuing stock of foreign corporations for tax purposes at "fair market value" which had been the method used until the Supreme Court interpretation of the tax law.

"We hope to have the abstract finished by the end of next week," Davis remarked, although he could not give an estimate of how far behind in its work the changes had put the county.

Office Handicapped

Davis also noted that his office was somewhat handicapped with the loss of several experienced, key personnel.

Government Orders Firms To Make Uniforms

New York (AP)—The federal government issued directives to more than a dozen firms from coast to coast Thursday ordering them to go ahead with manufacture of uniforms for Viet Nam before they handle civilian business.

The directives came after the firms ignored Defense Department earlier orders for about 600,000 tropical cotton poplin trousers and coats, 15,000 cotton sateen overcoats and 10,000 wool overcoats for the Marine Corps.

They're to be delivered between the end of August and the end of December, Arthur Garel, director of the Office of Textiles, Department of Commerce, said.

Letters were mailed to the firms Thursday. The Commerce Department declined to announce their names.

Other firms have accepted orders for about 4.9 million tropical coats and trousers, Garel said.

The directives were issued after the Defense Department threatened to have the uniforms made in Japan, Taiwan or Thailand.

Ellis E. Meredith, executive vice president of the American Apparel Manufacturers Association, said the manufacturers would prefer the directives to turning abroad for uniforms.

"We regret that the situation has progressed to this point," he said. "But it is our responsibility to do a job for this country and we're going to do it."

'Long Live Soviet Union!' Cries De Gaulle In Siberia

Novosibirsk, U.S.S.R. (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle flew into this Siberian city Thursday and was given a gay and spirited greeting by peasants in heavy boots and women wearing red dresses and kerchiefs.

"Long live Novosibirsk, long live Siberia, long live the Soviet Union," the French president cried in Russian, and the 2,000 Siberians at the airport cheered.

"Much imagination is directed toward this immense country where you are accomplishing one of the most gigantic efforts of all times for development and progress," he said in French.

The people of this scientific and industrial center are not used to outsiders, because the city normally is closed to all foreigners. But they crowded in rows eight deep on both sides of his route through the city, about 150,000 of them applauding, cheering and waving. De Gaulle stood in an open car and waved back.

De Gaulle is starting out on a tour of the Soviet Union during which he is expected to be the first foreigner to visit a Soviet space launching site. This may come Saturday.

He is accompanied by Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny.

Government Orders Firms To Make Uniforms

New York (AP)—The federal government issued directives to more than a dozen firms from coast to coast Thursday ordering them to go ahead with manufacture of uniforms for Viet Nam before they handle civilian business.

The directives came after the firms ignored Defense Department earlier orders for about 600,000 tropical cotton poplin trousers and coats, 15,000 cotton sateen overcoats and 10,000 wool overcoats for the Marine Corps.

They're to be delivered between the end of August and the end of December, Arthur Garel, director of the Office of Textiles, Department of Commerce, said.

Letters were mailed to the firms Thursday. The Commerce Department declined to announce their names.

Other firms have accepted orders for about 4.9 million tropical coats and trousers, Garel said.

The directives were issued after the Defense Department threatened to have the uniforms made in Japan, Taiwan or Thailand.

Ellis E. Meredith, executive vice president of the American Apparel Manufacturers Association, said the manufacturers would prefer the directives to turning abroad for uniforms.

"We regret that the situation has progressed to this point," he said. "But it is our responsibility to do a job for this country and we're going to do it."

'Long Live Soviet Union!' Cries De Gaulle In Siberia

Novosibirsk, U.S.S.R. (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle flew into this Siberian city Thursday and was given a gay and spirited greeting by peasants in heavy boots and women wearing red dresses and kerchiefs.

"Long live Novosibirsk, long live Siberia, long live the Soviet Union," the French president cried in Russian, and the 2,000 Siberians at the airport cheered.

"Much imagination is directed toward this immense country where you are accomplishing one of the most gigantic efforts of all times for development and progress," he said in French.

The people of this scientific and industrial center are not used to outsiders, because the city normally is closed to all foreigners. But they crowded in rows eight deep on both sides of his route through the city, about 150,000 of them applauding, cheering and waving. De Gaulle stood in an open car and waved back.

De Gaulle is starting out on a tour of the Soviet Union during which he is expected to be the first foreigner to visit a Soviet space launching site. This may come Saturday.

He is accompanied by Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny.

G.I. GUIDE:

Civilian Life Ends With Bus Ride

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third article in a series on the armed forces.)

By ELTON FAY

Until today you were a civilian, even though you had signed a paper back home as a draftee or volunteer and been handed an order to report for duty.

But when you stepped down from a bus just now — dressed like most of the others with you in slacks, a sport shirt or pull-over sweater and loafer shoes — you crossed the threshold. You were in the military.

Induction, processing and basic training centers are essentially the same whether Army, Navy, Marine or Air Force. They look pretty much alike, have the same purposes.

Because the Army's proportion of manpower is the largest, let's use its induction and basic training center at Fort Dix, N.J., as typical.

Reception

You go into a building under a sign which says simply "U.S. Army Reception Station." Beneath is another lettered on a pointing arrow, "Report Here." And tacked below that is one more saying "Quiet."

During the coming weeks you are going to do a lot of "reporting here" and a lot of listening while keeping "quiet."

When you report, whether as a draftee, reservist or volunteer, be sure and have some records with you.

There should be certified copies of your birth certificate as well as those of your family; your marriage certificate, if any, and if either you or your present wife has been married before, records to show death or divorce.

A non-commissioned officer, probably a sergeant, meets your arriving group and leads you in.

You are about to become a "private." Or if you are entering the Navy you'll start out as "seaman recruit;" in the Air Force, "airman basic," and in the Marines, "private."

Sergeants

Your first image of the Army will be a sergeant. You'll be seeing and hearing from sergeants for a long time.

Almost simultaneously, four things are done to start you off.

You get a first issue of clothing to make you look like a soldier. You get a medical going over which includes a blood test, a tuberculosis test, and an examination of your arms for any tell-tale traces of narcotics needle pricks. You get an Army haircut. They begin "processing" you.

"Processing" is an in word, man! The military uses it for everything from preparing strategy for waging wars down to asking you who you are, then giving you a label and a number.

Paper Work

You begin by filling out forms about yourself, which provide the foundation for the military record while you are in service — the "201 file," the Army calls it. You also get your dog tag and the "ID" identification card, with photograph and fingerprints.

Don't think you are singled out because the military sends a copy of your fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The FBI also gets them from many other sources.

The primary purpose of the military is to have handy a picture of you and your fingerprints for its own security purposes as well as to help identify you should you be injured, wounded or killed in action. The FBI, which now has more than 170 million records, uses them not only as an aid for itself and other law enforcement agencies, but for the same purpose of identification in event of accident.

The questionnaire includes the usual vital statistics about names and residences of parents and wife; your residences since your 16th birthday or during the past 15 years (whichever is shorter), plus questions (for yes or no answers).

Are you an alien or naturalized citizen of the United States? Any foreign connections, interests or employment or military service. Ever employed by a company with contracts of classified nature? Ever been in U.S. military service or employed by the federal government? Any arrest or court record?

Tomorrow: Briefing.

Herrington Quits As Equalization Board Consultant

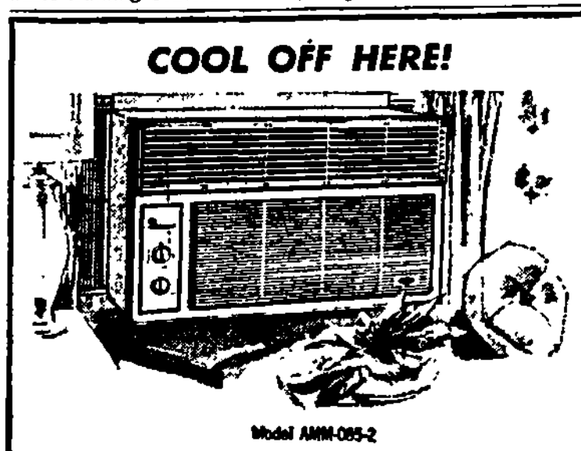

Property appraisal expert Fred Herrington of Lincoln announced Thursday his resignation as a consultant to the State Board of Equalization, effective June 30.

Herrington, a former state tax commissioner, said he is engaged in private tax work and there might be some criticism of a conflict of interest.

Herrington was hired two years ago to consult the state board on the statewide real estate appraisal program authorized by the 1963 Legislature. He also prepared a comprehensive manual for assessment of tangible and intangible property.

POSTCARD by Stan Lapple

We had Father's Day the other day and it turned out splendidly. Reminded everybody that the clay pigeon of the scatter is still soaring.

Father, can I borrow the car?"

"Daddy, can you lend me $40?"

"Fifty dollars!"

"Well, then, twenty-five. You see, it's like this etc. etc."

"Can I get a toy airplane, Daddy?"

It was a memorable day.

☆ ☆ ☆

Father's Day was started by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd in Spokane, Washington. Year 1910. I was not a father at the time and had no chance to vote.

I can't find out why she started it. (Maybe she wanted to borrow $50.)

Anyway, she started it. Clothing stores and gin makers have whooped it up each year. Have you noticed how many ads say: "Give Dad mellow old Tiger Juice?"

Father's image is that he's a soak.

☆ ☆ ☆

The Day never really got much play among the memorable days of our year.

A Father-of-the-Year is elected — the first was General Douglas MacArthur in 1942.

The Day has an official theme: "Home Is Where Democracy Begins."

The people who make billfolds advise you to give Dad a billfold. (Else where would he carry the $50 to lend you?)

The gin people advise you to soak the Old Man in squareface.

The clothing stores tell you to give Dad a tie. (Home is where you hang yourself.)

The day passed quietly. We got some cards and ties. We lent the $50. Everybody said it went very well.

☆ ☆ ☆

I don't know. When Easter is coming up, the excitement is terrific. Everybody must buy new clothing.

Everybody waits for the Easter bunny to come and hide the eggs.

Father's Day is a fizzle compared to Easter.

☆ ☆ ☆

Mother's Day is hailed two months in advance. Stores, florists and expensive jewelers warn you not to forget Mom.

Advertisers go into full pages of advice.

There is talk of Mom's apple pie, flaked with pure emotion.

Politicians are reminded of their mother's knee — at which they learned to politic.

On the exciting day, mothers are swathed in mink and sprayed with perfume. It is her due.

I call to attention that without fathers there would not be a Mother's Day. But who listens?

☆ ☆ ☆

The Day came off in great shape. The socks are a little large but can be exchanged. The tie fits.

It was explained to me that a number of toy stores stay open on Sunday, and I could take everybody out. Just to look.

It was explained to me that $50 was not much. If I just considered it was for only a few days. And she really and truly would pay it back.

It was pointed out to me that I really got more than other people got on Mother's Day — on which mother was shorted but would be willing to catch up on. Tomorrow, for instance.

☆ ☆ ☆

"Dear Old Dad" said the printed card. "Not that old," I said huffily.

Nobody tried to soak me in gin for Father's Day. But, do you know, they keep some toy stores open on Sunday. And some other stores, too.

Everybody said it was one of the best Father's Days. The best ever.

G.I. GUIDE:

Civilian Life Ends With Bus Ride

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third article in a series on the armed forces.)

By ELTON FAY

Until today you were a civilian, even though you had signed a paper back home as a draftee or volunteer and been handed an order to report for duty.

But when you stepped down from a bus just now — dressed like most of the others with you in slacks, a sport shirt or pull-over sweater and loafer shoes — you crossed the threshold. You were in the military.

Induction, processing and basic training centers are essentially the same whether Army, Navy, Marine or Air Force. They look pretty much alike, have the same purposes.

Because the Army's proportion of manpower is the largest, let's use its induction and basic training center at Fort Dix, N.J., as typical.

Reception

You go into a building under a sign which says simply "U.S. Army Reception Station." Beneath is another lettered on a pointing arrow, "Report Here." And tacked below that is one more saying "Quiet."

During the coming weeks you are going to do a lot of "reporting here" and a lot of listening while keeping "quiet."

When you report, whether as a draftee, reservist or volunteer, be sure and have some records with you.

There should be certified copies of your birth certificate as well as those of your family; your marriage certificate, if any, and if either you or your present wife has been married before, records to show death or divorce.

A non-commissioned officer, probably a sergeant, meets your arriving group and leads you in.

You are about to become a "private." Or if you are entering the Navy you'll start out as "seaman recruit;" in the Air Force, "airman basic," and in the Marines, "private."

Sergeants

Your first image of the Army will be a sergeant. You'll be seeing and hearing from sergeants for a long time.

Almost simultaneously, four things are done to start you off.

You get a first issue of clothing to make you look like a soldier. You get a medical going over which includes a blood test, a tuberculosis test, and an examination of your arms for any tell-tale traces of narcotics needle pricks. You get an Army haircut. They begin "processing" you.

"Processing" is an in word, man! The military uses it for everything from preparing strategy for waging wars down to asking you who you are, then giving you a label and a number.

Paper Work

You begin by filling out forms about yourself, which provide the foundation for the military record while you are in service — the "201 file," the Army calls it. You also get your dog tag and the "ID" identification card, with photograph and fingerprints.

Don't think you are singled out because the military sends a copy of your fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The FBI also gets them from many other sources.

The primary purpose of the military is to have handy a picture of you and your fingerprints for its own security purposes as well as to help identify you should you be injured, wounded or killed in action. The FBI, which now has more than 170 million records, uses them not only as an aid for itself and other law enforcement agencies, but for the same purpose of identification in event of accident.

The questionnaire includes the usual vital statistics about names and residences of parents and wife; your residences during the past 15 years (whichever is shorter), plus questions (for yes or no answers).

Are you an alien or naturalized citizen of the United States? Any foreign connections, interests or employment or military service. Ever employed by a company with contracts of classified nature? Ever been in U.S. military service or employed by the federal government? Any arrest or court record?

Tomorrow: Briefing.

Herrington Quits As Equalization Board Consultant

Property appraisal expert Fred Herrington of Lincoln announced Thursday his resignation as a consultant to the State Board of Equalization, effective June 30.

Herrington, a former state tax commissioner, said he is engaged in private tax work and there might be some criticism of a conflict of interest.

Herrington was hired two years ago to consult the state board on the statewide real estate appraisal program authorized by the 1963 Legislature. He also prepared a comprehensive manual for assessment of tangible and intangible property.

Peru's Summer Enrollment Up

Peru (UPI)—A total of 431 students are enrolled in college classes at Peru State College for the first five-week 1966 summer session, according to Dr. Keith L. Melvin, dean of the college and director of summer sessions.

The figure for the June 8th to July 8 session includes 329 women and 102 men. The second five-week term will begin July 11 and conclude August 12.

The first term enrollment represents an increase over the 418 students enrolled for the first session one year ago. Students enrolled in the first term are from 29 Nebraska counties and 10 additional states.

Controversial Program Seen

. . . ETV GROUP TAKES NO ACTION ON POLICY

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

The Nebraska Educational Television Commission took no action regarding its programming policy Thursday after viewing a controversial National Educational Television program, "The Right Takes Over."

Commission Chairman J. Arthur Danielson of Lincoln said the question of "political programming" has been put to the commission's programming committee and "their recommendations on any policy changes will be awaited."

The programming committee is headed by Dr. Floyd Miller, state education commissioner.

The film, one of a series entitled "The Radical Americans," was broadcast on the Nebraska network and generated some public criticism.

'Must Be Careful'

Danielson said, "I personally feel ETV must be careful not to malign racial or political groups" in noting he doesn't favor ETV airing of the program.

BILLY B. OXLEY

"Private news media take care of these things amply and well," he added. "I don't think ETV needs to be in this area."

Danielson said he didn't know whether commission policy on programming "needs any loopholes plugged" in view of the "current ripple on the pond."

The commission approved instructional television programming for the coming year over the network and from the Omaha station after being advised "no major changes or policy deviation" were involved in the proposed scheduling.

Billy Birkett Oxley, 31, of Austin, Texas, was appointed program director for Channel 12 and the Nebraska ETV network to succeed Ron Hull, who accepted last April to accept a U.S. Information Agency post in South Viet Nam.

Oxley will assume his duties July 1 at an annual salary of $11,600.

Texas U. Grad

He holds a master of arts degree in mass communication from the University of Texas and is current program director for the University of Texas' television station and the Southwest Texas Educational Television Council.

The commission also agreed to seek Federal Communications Commission approval to switch Channel 21 to 19 with a transmitter location near Pierce to cover the Northeastern Nebraska area and Norfolk.

Channel 21, originally proposed at Albion, would leave coverage gaps between the Channel 7 and Channel 12 areas, according to Jansky and Bailey, consulting engineers of Washington, D. C.

The consultants also recommended that an eighth ETV station (Channel 29) be constructed near Hastings to fill in area coverage gaps between Channels 12 and 3.

Estimated cost of the eighth station is $650,000 and an appropriation would have to be sought from the 1967 Legislature, according to Jack McBride, commission secretary.

The commission deferred action on the Channel 29 recommendation pending further report from the consulting engineer at its July 12 meeting.

The commission also:

—approved a $2.5 million budget for the 1966-67 fiscal year and was advised savings in capital outlay would offset any revenue shortages anticipated from the cigarette tax.

—Learned that a federal grant for the purchase of three video tape recorders costing $147,000 would offset loss of federal money resulting from the gift of a television tower to the commission.

NU Summer Session Draws 6,000

An all-time record high summer session enrollment of more than 6,000 students was assured Thursday at the University of Nebraska.

Registrar Floyd Hoover reported enrollment as of Thursday at 5,903.

From 175 to 300 are expected to enroll for the post-session in August, sending the total past 6,000.

The previous high enrollments was 5,336 in 1965.

In addition to regular students, more than 2,000 Nebraska high school students are attending various educational programs on the Lincoln campuses. This includes 660 enrolled at University High School, 450 in the All-State high school course, 700 in Boys and Girls States, and 300 in State 4-H Club Week.

Marsh Orders 79-County Education Unit Vote

Secretary of State Frank Marsh Thursday ordered November elections in 79 counties to determine whether those counties should be excluded from the educational service unit system created by the 1965 Legislature.

Marsh said the special issue ballot in the Nov. 8 general election will require a majority vote in a petitioning county for exclusion from the educational unit plan.

Only 1,504 of the 31,563 signatures on petitions from 80 counties were found invalid after checking procedures requiring some 300 hours of work, he said.

Five Per Cent

Petition signatures equal to five per cent of the legal voters in three-fifths of the school districts were required to qualify the county for a vote on the exclusion issue.

Allen J. Beermann, assistant secretary, said a number of counties had more tha sufficient districts, but "some just barely made it."

He said the special ballot will not be issued in Washington County, which submitted a petition but did not qualify, and Boyd, Deuel, Douglas, Franklin, Furnas, Hamilton, Hitchcock, Kearney, Sarpy, Scotts Bluff, Seward, Webster and York Counties which did not submit petitions.

Beermann said the certification and signature checking procedure was complicated by the fact that some school districts extend into two or more counties and even into two or more educational service units.

Marsh praised the cooperation of county superintendents in supplying voter and other district data necessary to the petition check.

The petition drive, coordinated by the Nebraska School Improvement Association (NSIA), was directed by LB301 creating 19 units to provide supplemental educational services on a multi-county level.

NSIA Executive Secretary S. H. Brauer Jr. predicted most counties will exclude themselves from the unit system in the November vote in noting the petition drive exceeded expectations, thus evidencing a "strong feeling" against the plan.

Beermann said the attorney general's office is drafting the title and language of the exclusion proposition that will appear on the ballot in the 79 counties eligible to vote.

7 Pct. More Hogs On State's Farms Than A Year Ago

Nebraska farms harbored an estimated 3,122,000 hogs and pigs as of June 1, or 7% more than last year at the same time, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported Thursday.

Stock on hand for breeding increased from 423,000 last year to 456,000 this year.

Sows farrowing during the three months preceding June 1 totaled 235,000, compared with 226,000 in the same quarter last year. Pigs saved per litter averaged 7.51, or 4% more than last year.

The total pig crop of 1,765,000 head during the quarter compared with 1,627,000 last year.

Nebraska farmers indicate they plan to farrow 112,000 sows during June, July and August, up 8% from the same period last year.

The commission approved instructional television programming for the coming year over the network and from the Omaha station after being advised "no major changes or policy deviation" were involved in the proposed scheduling.

Billy Birkett Oxley, 31, of Austin, Texas, was appointed program director for Channel 12 and the Nebraska ETV network to succeed Ron Hull, who accepted last April to accept a U.S. Information Agency post in South Viet Nam.

Oxley will assume his duties July 1 at an annual salary of $11,600.

Texas U. Grad

He holds a master of arts degree in mass communication from the University of Texas and is current program director for the University of Texas' television station and the Southwest Texas Educational Television Council.

The commission also agreed to seek Federal Communications Commission approval to switch Channel 21 to 19 with a transmitter location near Pierce to cover the Northeastern Nebraska area and Norfolk.

Channel 21, originally proposed at Albion, would leave coverage gaps between the Channel 7 and Channel 12 areas, according to Jansky and Bailey, consulting engineers of Washington, D. C.

The consultants also recommended that an eighth ETV station (Channel 29) be constructed near Hastings to fill in area coverage gaps between Channels 12 and 3.

Estimated cost of the eighth station is $650,000 and an appropriation would have to be sought from the 1967 Legislature, according to Jack McBride, commission secretary.

The commission deferred action on the Channel 29 recommendation pending further report from the consulting engineer at its July 12 meeting.

The commission also:

—approved a $2.5 million budget for the 1966-67 fiscal year and was advised savings in capital outlay would offset any revenue shortages anticipated from the cigarette tax.

—Learned that a federal grant for the purchase of three video tape recorders costing $147,000 would offset loss of federal money resulting from the gift of a television tower to the commission.

NU Summer Session Draws 6,000

An all-time record high summer session enrollment of more than 6,000 students was assured Thursday at the University of Nebraska.

Registrar Floyd Hoover reported enrollment as of Thursday at 5,903.

From 175 to 300 are expected to enroll for the post-session in August, sending the total past 6,000.

The previous high enrollments was 5,336 in 1965.

In addition to regular students, more than 2,000 Nebraska high school students are attending various educational programs on the Lincoln campuses. This includes 660 enrolled at University High School, 450 in the All-State high school course, 700 in Boys and Girls States, and 300 in State 4-H Club Week.

Marsh Orders 79-County Education Unit Vote

Secretary of State Frank Marsh Thursday ordered November elections in 79 counties to determine whether those counties should be excluded from the educational service unit system created by the 1965 Legislature.

Marsh said the special issue ballot in the Nov. 8 general election will require a majority vote in a petitioning county for exclusion from the educational unit plan.

Only 1,504 of the 31,563 signatures on petitions from 80 counties were found invalid after checking procedures requiring some 300 hours of work, he said.

Five Per Cent

Petition signatures equal to five per cent of the legal voters in three-fifths of the school districts were required to qualify the county for a vote on the exclusion issue.

Allen J. Beermann, assistant secretary, said a number of counties had more than sufficient districts, but "some just barely made it."

He said the special ballot will not be issued in Washington County, which submitted a petition but did not qualify, and Boyd, Deuel, Douglas, Franklin, Furnas, Hamilton, Hitchcock, Kearney, Sarpy, Scotts Bluff, Seward, Webster and York Counties which did not submit petitions.

Beermann said the certification and signature checking procedure was complicated by the fact that some school districts extend into two or more counties and even into two or more educational service units.

Marsh praised the cooperation of county superintendents in supplying voter and other district data necessary to the petition check.

The petition drive, coordinated by the Nebraska School Improvement Association (NSIA), was directed by LB301 creating 19 units to provide supplemental educational services on a multi-county level.

NSIA Executive Secretary S. H. Brauer Jr. predicted most counties will exclude themselves from the unit system in the November vote in noting the petition drive exceeded expectations, thus evidencing a "strong feeling" against the plan.

Beermann said the attorney general's office is drafting the title and language of the exclusion proposition that will appear on the ballot in the 79 counties eligible to vote.

For Experience

London (UPI)—Prince Richard of Gloucester, 21, cousin of Queen Elizabeth II, will begin work next month as a civil service architect at $1,680 a year. The prince will work for a year to gain practical experience before returning to Cambridge University for study.

7 Pct. More Hogs On State's Farms Than A Year Ago

Nebraska farms harbored an estimated 3,122,000 hogs and pigs as of June 1, or 7% more than last year at the same time, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported Thursday.

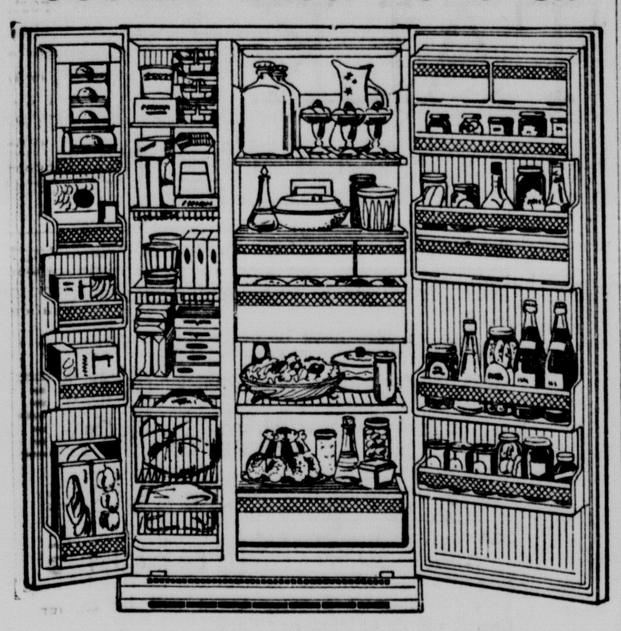

Stock on hand for breeding increased from 423,000 last year to 456,000 this year.

Sows farrowing during the three months preceding June 1 totaled 235,000, compared with 226,000 in the same quarter last year. Pigs saved per litter averaged 7.51, or 4% more than last year.

The total pig crop of 1,765,000 head during the quarter compared with 1,627,000 last year.

Prenuptial Courtesies

JULY bride-elect is party honoree

The courtesies have begun for Miss Ann Peery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Peery of Waverly, who is announcing this morning that her marriage to Barry S. Johnston will take place on Saturday, July 30.

The ceremony will be solemnized at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at the Waverly Methodist Church, in the presence of the members of the family.

The former University of Nebraska coed was honored Wednesday afternoon at a luncheon for which Mrs. John Backstrom and her daughter, Mrs. Lee Imig of Newport News, Va., were hostesses at the Black Coach Inn. Following the luncheon, a hostess-gift was presented to the bride-elect.

Entertaining Saturday evening for a mid-summer bride-to-be will be Mrs. Kenneth Jambor, Miss Carol Lefler and Miss Marilynn Wendt, who will be hostess at a miscellaneous shower in courtesy to Miss Claudia Westphalen.

Miss Westphalen, who will become the bride of W. Stewart Livers, on Saturday, July 2, was honored recently when Mrs. High T. Rangeler entertained at a one-gift shower.

A miscellaneous shower was presented to the bride-elect, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Westphalen, at a recent party given by Mrs. Albert Held at her home. Assisting Mrs. Held as hostess was Mrs. Seymour Lee.

There isn't a day in the merry month of June, it seems, that does not have its full share of courtesies for the popular brides-elect about town. This week has been no exception, and among the future brides being honored is Miss Joan Badberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Badberg, who has chosen a July date for her marriage to Larry J. Chopp.

Thursday evening, Miss Badberg was presented a miscellaneous shower at a party for which Mrs. Willard Noxon and Mrs. Ebert Kramer were hostesses.

Twenty-five guests were invited for an informal evening. Busy playing "bride's bingo" are (from the left) Miss Sandy Parris, two unidentified guests, Mrs. Cernal Miers and Mrs. Henry Hughes, Seward, Mrs. Henry Badberg, the honoree and her mother, Mrs. Roland Badberg, and Miss Gayle Hughes of Seward.

Friday evening, the soon-to-be bride was honored at a bridal shower for which Miss Sharon Gartner was hostess at her home.

The wedding of Miss Badberg and Mr. Chopp will take place at an 8 o'clock evening ceremony, Friday, July 1, at the Cathedral Of The Risen Christ.

For her maid of honor, the bride-elect has chosen her cousin, Miss Lorraine Hughes of Seward. The bridesmaids will be Miss Sharon Gartner and Miss Badberg's sister, Miss Karen Badberg, and the flower girls will be Miss Sherri Gruenemeyer and Miss Cindy Gruenemeyer.

Paul Chopp will serve his brother as best man, and the corps of ushers will include Wallie Hughes and Vance Hughes of Seward; Rick Haney, Carl Dill, Jr., and Patrick Fisher. Jimmy Kirkland will be the ringbearer.

We Hear That

Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Davis left late last week to spend 10 days in Washington, D.C. The trip was planned as a celebration on their first wedding anniversary.

NEWS of suburban areas

In and out, in and out, Suburban residents never seem to be still for a moment. And why should they, when there are "places to go, things to do, and people to see?" Places mean Minnesota, Oklahoma, Bermuda and Canada. Things mean vacations, conventions, picnics. People mean family—such as grandparents, brothers and sisters and so on—

MAPLE VILLAGE

Two coolers of fish and assorted sunburns were among the results of 10 days in Minnesota for the Riley K. McGinness family. Mr. and Mrs. McGinness and their children have just returned from their vacation in Richville, Minn., where they fished and explored Lake Pickerell.

PARK VALLEY HEIGHTS

Mrs. Sarah Brinkman had houseguests last week and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cannon, and their children, Stephen, Becky, Bryan, Kimberly and Kevin, arrived from Woodridge, Va., to spend a week visiting relatives in Lincoln. This is a somewhat yearly summer jaunt for the Cannons, and this time activity included a picnic at Antelope Park and the Children's Zoo. Last Sunday the family headed for Texas, there to visit more relatves on the Cannon side.

EASTBOROUGH

Mrs. Thomas Spahn has been chosen to represent the executive board of Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae at the bi-annual International convention of the sorority which will be held in Victoria, B.C., June 26 through July 1. While Mrs. Spahn is in Canada, her mother, Mrs. E. I. Eitner, of Lincoln, will provide one of a grandmother's specialties—babysitting.

New arrivals to Eastborough are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Joa and family, who moved here recently from Greeley, Colo. The Joas have three children, Mark, 5, Michael, 4, and Mary, 2, who will tentatively attend Meadowlane School.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Blair, Jr., had visitors at their home on June 4. Mr. Blair's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Blair, arrived from Richmond, Mo., to enjoy their grandchildren and also to see the Blairs' new home. They also did a little sightseeing in Omaha during the weekend.

SOUTH BROOK SUMMIT

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Campbell of Nebraska City, had two small houseguests last week when Sue Ann, 7, and Linda, 4, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis D. Sederberg, spent Wednesday through Saturday with their grandparents. Then Mother and Dad joined the travelers, and all headed for Essex, Iowa, and had a quiet Father's Day with Mr. Sederberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sederberg.

TALK of the town

Reunions seem to be the order of the day this weekend—We're particularly interested because reunions always bring guests from out of town, and guests we have.

But we also have homecomers to mention this morning—and an autumn bride-elect and, of course, prenuptial courtesies.

• • •

As everyone has already heard, the class of 1956, Lincoln High School, has some festivities planned for its reunion. The activity begins on Saturday morning with a 10 o'clock coffee at the Lincoln High School Activities building.

Then on Saturday evening the grads of 10 years ago will dine and dance at Hotel Lincoln, and on Sunday there will be a family picnic at Pioneers Park.

• • •

Among those who have arrived to attend the reunion fun is Mrs. Richard Falconer (Sandra Ellis) of Fargo, N.D., who is the house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Ellis.

Mrs. Falconer, it seems, had some plans of her own—such as a party for an autumn bride-elect.

So, last evening, Mrs. Falconer complimented Miss Sandra Lichtenberg, whose marriage to Calvin Robinson will take place in early autumn, when she entertained at a miscellaneous shower. The guest list included a group of former high school and college classmates of both the honoree and the hostess.

• • •

Back in town is Mrs. George Williamson who returned on Monday from Los Angeles, Calif., where, as president of the Lincoln Alumnae Chapter of Delta Delta Delta she attended the sorority's national convention. Following the convention she lingered in the Los Angeles area to visit an old classmate, Mrs. T. P. Allen (Mary Gibson) who, with her daughter, Susan, accompanied Mrs. Williamson back to Lincoln for a two-weeks stay.

At the top of the list of reasons for Mrs. Allen's Lincoln visit is her Lincoln High School 20-year class reunion. During their stay in town Mrs. Allen and her daughter are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Williamson.

love—and toothache—know no logic

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother and brother and I live in a little dinky 2-room apartment. There is hardly room to breathe, and I know we can afford better, but my mother refuses to move because Ellis lives downstairs. Ellis is divorced and has five kids to support. Mother is divorced, too. Ellis is sort of a ladies' man who needs lots of watching. My father was a man like that, so I can't understand why mother would want to make the same mistake twice. When I try to tell mother we need a bigger apartment she says we can't move because she has to keep her eye on Ellis. How can a 13-year-old girl get her 33-year-old mother to be logical?

THE DAUGHTER

DEAR DAUGHTER: She can't. So don't try. All logic is useless against "love" and a toothache. So quit nagging your mother. A divorcee with two children who has to keep her eye on a boy friend with five kids to support has enough trouble as it is.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: My husband, who is 62, refuses to grow up. When the two of us are alone he is babyish. If he doesn't get his own way he lies down on the floor and screams and kicks. He was in the middle of one of these kicking fits once when the door bell rang. He got up and went to the door like a gentleman. As soon as the people were out of sight, he laid down on the floor again and resumed his kicking and screaming fit. I am completely dominated by him, yet people are always telling me what a nice husband I have. I have no money of my own, no job, and am 54 years old, so I can't leave him. What do you suggest? He's getting worse.

NO PEACE

DEAR NO PEACE: Your husband is a very sick man. Tell your family doctor about these fits and let him advise you.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: With regard to the letter signed "OFTEN A GUEST" and your reply: I disagree with you, Abby.

I am a pastor's wife, and oh, how I wish well meaning parishioners would quit feeding my husband! His clothes are bursting at the seams. He is earnestly trying to lose weight, but with all the calls he has to make, and people shoving goodies at him constantly, it is almost impossible for him to stay on a diet.

I am not saying he doesn't enjoy eating, because he does. But it would be so much easier for him to refuse if he were asked, instead of served. Please publish this. It might help. But don't use my name or the town from which this came. Thank you.

DEAR ABBY: With regard to the letter signed "OFTEN A GUEST" and your reply: I disagree with you, Abby.

I am a pastor's wife, and oh, how I wish well meaning parishioners would quit feeding my husband! His clothes are bursting at the seams. He is earnestly trying to lose weight, but with all the calls he has to make, and people shoving goodies at him constantly, it is almost impossible for him to stay on a diet.

I am not saying he doesn't enjoy eating, because he does. But it would be so much easier for him to refuse if he were asked, instead of served. Please publish this. It might help. But don't use my name or the town from which this came. Thank you.

MISERY loves lots of company

If you have ever tried to lose five pounds — or 10 or 20 — you know what misery it is to deny yourself that serving of strawberry shortcake, or mashed potatoes and gravy, but if your doctor tells you must lose over a hundred pounds and those pounds come off mighty slow, then your misery knows no bounds.

But misery loves company, or so they say, and a group of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) Club members in Lincoln who have a long way to go to attain their goals banded together a year ago to form the "Never Say Never" TOPS Club.

The only club of its kind in the nation, the group seeks to encourage consistent, steady weight loss, not competition to see who can lose the most. Practical, obtainable goals of 10 pounds at a time make the misery a bit easier to bear.

Celebrating the group's first anniversary — and a total membership weight loss of 200 pounds — are some of the 15 members (from the left) Mrs. C. E. Rose, leader; Mrs. Paul Portsche; Mrs. Lloyd Duckett, co-leader; Mrs. William Owen; Mrs. Henry Bossung, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Edgar Edwards; Mrs. Warren Standard; Mrs. Marvin Rhodes, TOPS county chairman; and Mrs. Jack Davoll.

Incidentally, Mrs. Rhodes recently returned home from the international convention of TOPS Clubs, at which it was proudly announced — after all vital statistics were added — that club members throughout Canada and the United States lost more than 600 TONS during the past year.

Attendants Announced

For her mid-summer wedding, which will take place Saturday, July 2, Miss Sharon Kay Leader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Leader, has chosen her sister, Miss Ann Leader, as her maid of honor. Miss Julie Lee will attend the bride-elect as flower girl for the afternoon service, which will be solemnized at St. John's Church.

Tim Leader and Larry Leader will be ringbearers for their sister's marriage to Deryl Overcash of Andrews, Tex.

Serving his brother as best man will be Royce Overcash, and the ushers will be the bride-elect's brother, Randy Leader, and Bob Lee.

The soon-to-be bride was honored last Tuesday evening when Miss Carol Bartlett entertained a group of guests at her home. During the informal evening, a one-gift shower was presented to the honoree.

Tuesday evening, June 14, Miss Leader was presented a personal shower when Mrs. Bob Lee and Mrs. Ralph Fell were hostesses, and a miscellaneous shower was presented to the bride-elect at a party given by Mrs. Francis Kimberly at her home recently.

Honored

A prenuptial courtesy which honored both a bride-elect and her fiance was held last Sunday morning when Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stanard entertained at breakfast at their home honoring Miss Nancy Jean Johnson and Stephen James Loos.

The guests, who included members of the family, presented a grocery and pantry shower to the bride-to-be, and gifts of household tools and hobby accessories were given to Mr. Loos.

The wedding of Miss Johnson and Mr. Loos will take place Saturday evening, July 2.

BIDDING QUIZ

You are South, both sides vulnerable. The bidding has been:

| West | North | East | South |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 ♥ | Pass | Pass | ? |

What would you bid now with each of the following five hands?

1. ♠KJ3 ♥QJ72 ♦K95 ♣K74
2. ♠K9762 ♥J ♦J84 ♣AJ53
3. ♠A2 ♥J9643 ♦Q754 ♣A8
4. ♠A94 ♥5 ♦A872 ♣KQJ93
5. ♠A10 ♥92 ♦AKQ984 ♣K93

1. One notrump. Special rules of bidding apply when the opponents stop at a low part score contract and the last bidder has a choice of either passing or contesting the part score. The last bidder — in this case, South — is said to be in the balancing position.

Rather than give up on a hand when the opponents have already admitted limited strength, the last bidder frequently keeps things going with less values than the bid he makes would normally indicate. Thus, in this hand, South should balance with one notrump even though he has considerably less than the 16 to 18 points customarily required for that call. Because of the even distribution, the notrump bid is preferable to a double.

2. One spade. Since the all-around strength for a double is lacking, and we don't want to sell out for one heart without putting up some sort of fight for the part score, we bid one spade, showing both a long suit and limited high-card values.

3. Pass. With West having bid our longest suit, the hand becomes more attractive defensively than offensively. North undoubtedly has some scattered strength, but these values are likely to be more useful on defense than offense. North can hardly have the strength necessary to produce a game, in view of his pass of one heart.

4. Double. Here we have a sound suit of our own to bid, but the double stands out because it is much more important to identify general strength than it is to show the club suit. A two club overcall would constitute only a protective bid and would ordinarily be based on a hand of less than opening bid proportions. The double is used in the blancing position to suggest at least some prospect of game.

5. Three diamonds. Although we have considerably more values than necessary for a takeout double, a jump to three diamonds is the better bid. The jump overcall indicates a good hand with not much interest in any suit except diamonds.

It urges partner to continue the bidding, but it specifically limits the chances for game to either diamonds or notrump. The bid is not forcing, but it suggests to partner that about all he needs is a heart stopper to produce a game in notrump.

Marriage Announced

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Warren Williams of Wayne announce the marriage of their daughter, Anne Butler Williams, to Gerald Keith Shannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold Shannon of Lancaster, Calif.

The ceremony took place on Monday, June 6, at the All Souls Unitarian Church in Kansas City, Mo. Dr. Raymond C. Bragg read the lines of the service.

The bride, a former student at Carleton College, Northfield, Minn., now is attending the University of Nebraska Mr. Shannon was graduated from San Jose College, San Jose, Calif., and presently is working toward an advanced degree in clinical psychology at the University of Nebraska.

Alumnae Reunion

The annual reunion of all alumnae of the Lincoln General Hospital School of Nursing will be held Saturday beginning with an 11 o'clock coffee at the Nurses Home.

This will mark the 15th anniversary for the members of the class of 1951, who have planned a special reunion.

Arrested Neighbor 'Was Generous'

"He was generous."

This is the way two Lincoln girls summed up their impressions of Charles Robertson, their next door neighbor, who was arrested in Cleveland by the FBI in connection with two bank robberies and a theft in 1965.

Robertson — whose real name is Earl L. Wright, 36, according to the FBI — operated Charlies Cafe, 112 No. 14th, during February, March and April. He was among the FBI's 10 most wanted men.

Robertson, or Wright, was arrested for alleged robberies in Maryland and Ohio in 1965 which netted some $110,000. In addition to federal warrants for the robberies, a federal warrant was issued on February 1965 by authorities in Huntington, W. Va., for his arrest in connection with the theft from an interstate shipment at Huntington.

Three Incidents

The girls, Miss Agnes Wise, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wise, 360 No. 33rd, and Linda Jackson, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jackson, recalled three incidents that prompted their appraisal of the man.

"He gave my brother $10 just to rake his yard once, and another time he gave quite a bit of money to my mother who was collecting for the Community Chest," Miss Wise said.

Miss Jackson said she was with a girl friend who was selling Girl Scout cookies when they called on Robertson at his 350 No. 33rd residence.

"He ordered a box of each kind," Miss Jackson said.

One Wild Party

With the exception of a "wild party" he gave one night, nobody in the neighborhood saw or heard much of the stocky, blond cafe owner, Miss Wise said.

Otherwise, he had a reputation of being a nice guy, and an easy touch who liked kids, dogs and entertaining his employes.

Robertson was linked to Lincoln while on vacation in Kentucky. He did not return to Lincoln, however, and the FBI arrested him in Cleveland.

The FBI said he has served time in state and federal penal institutions in California, Georgeia, Ohio, Washington and was last imprisoned at the U.S. Penitentiary at McNeil Island, Wash.

Job Corps Director Here Gets $20,000

The director of the Lincoln Job Corps Center for men will earn $20,000 a year and his top 30 staff members $12,000 or more, it was reported Thursday.

J. O. Grantham of Omaha, who will run the facility, said the salaries are not considered high in light of the positions and the nature of the work.

The center will open this fall on 500 acres of the Lincoln Air Force Base. It will aim to lure out-of-work persons between 16 and 21 from idle hours on city streets into useful, productive lives.

The facility will be operated by Management Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of the Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha, in cooperation with the University of Nebraska.

Grantham said salaries paid administrators are comparable to those in private industry. He also said it is good to pay enough to insure proper expenditure of public funds.

New Social Security Office Set

Construction will begin next month on a building on the northwest corner of 30th and O to house the Lincoln district Social Security offices.

Occupancy in November will free the fourth floor of the National Bank of Commerce Building—the present Social Security office location—to house a crowded bank trust department, Bank President Glenn Yaussi said.

Social Security District Manager A. F. Silber said the contract to build and lease the new one-story building was awarded to Darrell Werth Construction of Aberdeen, S.D.

The Lincoln district serves a 17-county area.

Hallam Plant Prompts Call For Hearings

Washington (AP) — The National Coal Policy Conference, Inc., has asked the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee to hold a hearing on future disposition of obsolete nuclear plants.

The Hallam, Neb., nuclear plant situation prompted the suggestion, the organization said in a letter to Committee Chairman Chet Hollifield, D-Calif.

The conference suggested something should be known, in the disposition of radioactive parts of obsolete plants, as to these problems:

Who should pay for such disposition and how the masses of machinery that is radioactive and must be sealed off from the public would be disposed of.

Whether this is a proper cost for a utility concern or whether the federal government will assume the cost.

If it is a part of the utility's cost, will it be applied to power generating costs, thereby affecting consumer rates?

A conference spokesman quoted the committee as replying it was investigating the suggestion.

The Consumers Public Power District has announced it does not plan to continue operation of the Hallam plant and will turn it over to the government.

Curtis Urges Organizations Give Flags

Washington (AP) — Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., has proposed that Nebraska veterans organization give Nebraska flags to servicemen in Viet Nam who ask for them.

A Curtis aide said a serviceman had written Nebraska's governor asking for a state flag to fly with the United States flag over his unit's headquarters in Viet Nam.

The governor replied, the aide said, that while a number of such requests had been filled initially, funds were no longer available to provide the flags but they could be purchased from a supply house.

Curtis, the aide continued, wrote the serviceman that he was air mailing him a state flag.

In a letter to Roy Sheaf, commander of American Legion Post 3 in Lincoln, Curtis asked that Sheaf try to work out arrangements with the Nebraska Legion and other veterans organizations to give from that state who desire to fly them with American flags in Viet Nam.

Summer Boys' Program Begun By Southeast 'Y'

The Southeast YMCA kicked off its Summer Neighborhood Y Program this week with the organization of groups of younger boys for participation in a variety of special events.

Jack Huck, supervisor of the Y groups, has scheduled horseback riding, swimming, miniature golf, canoeing, overnight camp-outs, archery, fishing, and bowling. Indoor events are planned when the weather prohibits outdoor activities.

The groups, who meet weekly, are made up of boys ages 8 to 12 from several neighborhoods in southeast Lincoln. New groups are planned if further requests are presented to the Southeast Y office.

Wilson, husband and wife, owners of a plat of land located in the Northwest Quarter of Section 22, Township 9 North, Range 7 East of the 6th P.M., Lancaster County, Nebraska, more particularly described as beginning at the northwest corner of said Section 22; thence south along the west line of said Section 22 a distance of 1630.0 feet; thence east and parallel to the north line of said Section 22 a distance of 1918.82 feet; thence north and parallel to the east line of said Northwest Quarter a distance of 311.8 feet; thence east a distance of 732.0 feet to a point on the east line of said Northwest Quarter, 961.7 feet south of the Northeast corner of said Northwest Quarter; thence north along said east line of said Northwest Quarter to said northeast corner of said Northwest Quarter; thence west along the north line of Section 22 to the point of beginning, all in Lancaster County, Nebraska, having platted said real estate under the designation of Clarendon Hills, and having filed said plat in the office of the Planning Department of the City of Lincoln with a request for approval and acceptance thereof in the manner and form as by ordinance required, and

WHEREAS, it is for the convenience of the inhabitants of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, and for the public that said plat be approved as filed.

NOW, THEREFORE, Be It Ordained by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska:

Section 1. That the grades of certain streets in Clarendon Hills, an addition within three miles of the corporate limits of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska, be and they are hereby established with reference to a datum plane, which is located as follows: Bench mark cut in the City Hall building is 79.74 feet above said datum plane said datum plane being coincident with the datum plane of what is known as the Harvey Grade.

The grades hereby established shall be uniform straight lines between adjacent points hereinafter specified in said streets and between grade points heretofore established by ordinance in adjacent streets.

Section 2. Grade at the center line of Revere Lane and the center line of 70th Street: 218.0.

Arrested Neighbor 'Was Generous'

"He was generous."

This is the way two Lincoln girls summed up their impressions of Charles Robertson, their next door neighbor, who was arrested in Cleveland by the FBI in connection with two bank robberies and a theft in 1965.

Robertson — whose real name is Earl L. Wright, 36, according to the FBI — operated Charlies Cafe, 112 No. 14th, during February, March and April. He was among the FBI's 10 most wanted men.

Robertson, or Wright, was arrested for alleged robberies in Maryland and Ohio in 1965 which netted some $110,000. In addition to federal warrants for the robberies, a federal warrant was issued on February 1965 by authorities in Huntington, W. Va., for his arrest in connection with the theft from an interstate shipment at Huntington.

Three Incidents

The girls, Miss Agnes Wise, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wise, 360 No. 33rd, and Linda Jackson, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jackson, recalled three incidents that prompted their appraisal of the man.

"He gave my brother $10 just to rake his yard once, and another time he gave quite a bit of money to my mother who was collecting for the Community Chest," Miss Wise said.

Miss Jackson said she was with a girl friend who was selling Girl Scout cookies when they called on Robertson at his 350 No. 33rd residence.

"He ordered a box of each kind," Miss Jackson said.

One Wild Party

With the exception of a "wild party" he gave one night, nobody in the neighborhood saw or heard much of the stocky, blond cafe owner, Miss Wise said.

Otherwise, he had a reputation of being a nice guy, and an easy touch who liked kids, dogs and entertaining his employes.

Robertson was linked to Lincoln while on vacation in Kentucky. He did not return to Lincoln, however, and the FBI arrested him in Cleveland.

The FBI said he has served time in state and federal penal institutions in California, Georgeia, Ohio, Washington and was last imprisoned at the U.S. Penitentiary at McNeil Island, Wash.

Job Corps Director Here Gets $20,000

The director of the Lincoln Job Corps Center for men will earn $20,000 a year and his top 30 staff members $12,000 or more, it was reported Thursday.

J. O. Grantham of Omaha, who will run the facility, said the salaries are not considered high in light of the positions and the nature of the work.

The center will open this fall on 500 acres of the Lincoln Air Force Base. It will aim to lure out-of-work persons between 16 and 21 from idle hours on city streets into useful, productive lives.

The facility will be operated by Management Systems, Inc., a subsidiary of the Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha, in cooperation with the University of Nebraska.

Grantham said salaries paid administrators are comparable to those in private industry. He also said it is good to pay enough to insure proper expenditure of public funds.

Hallam Plant Prompts Call For Hearings

Washington (AP) — The National Coal Policy Conference, Inc., has asked the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee to hold a hearing on future disposition of obsolete nuclear plants.

The Hallam, Neb., nuclear plant situation prompted the suggestion, the organization said in a letter to Committee Chairman Chet Holifield, D-Calif.

The conference suggested something should be known, in the disposition of radioactive parts of obsolete plants, as to these problems:

Who should pay for such disposition and how the masses of machinery that is radioactive and must be sealed off from the public would be disposed of.

Whether this is a proper cost for a utility concern or whether the federal government will assume the cost.

If it is a part of the utility's cost, will it be applied to power generating costs, thereby affecting consumer rates?

A conference spokesman quoted the committee as replying it was investigating the suggestion.

The Consumers Public Power District has announced it does not plan to continue operation of the Hallam plant and will turn it over to the government.

Curtis Urges Organizations Give Flags

Washington (AP) — Sen. Carl T. Curtis, R-Neb., has proposed that Nebraska veterans organization give Nebraska flags to servicemen in Viet Nam who ask for them.

A Curtis aide said a serviceman had written Nebraska's governor asking for a state flag to fly with the United States flag over his unit's headquarters in Viet Nam.

The governor replied, the aide said, that while a number of such requests had been filled initially, funds were no longer available to provide the flags but they could be purchased from a supply house.

Curtis, the aide continued, wrote the serviceman that he was air mailing him a state flag.

In a letter to Roy Sheaf, commander of American Legion Post 3 in Lincoln, Curtis asked that Sheaf try to work out arrangements with the Nebraska Legion and other veterans organizations to give from that state who desire to fly them with American flags in Viet Nam.

Summer Boys' Program Begun By Southeast 'Y'

The Southeast YMCA kicked off its Summer Neighborhood Y Program this week with the organization of groups of younger boys for participation in a variety of special events.

Jack Huck, supervisor of the Y groups, has scheduled horseback riding, swimming, miniature golf, canoeing, overnight camp-outs, archery, fishing, and bowling. Indoor events are planned when the weather prohibits outdoor activities.

The groups, who meet weekly, are made up of boys ages 8 to 12 from several neighborhoods in southeast Lincoln. New groups are planned if further requests are presented to the Southeast Y office.

New Social Security Office Set

Construction will begin next month on a building on the northwest corner of 30th and O to house the Lincoln district Social Security offices.

Occupancy in November will free the fourth floor of the National Bank of Commerce Building—the present Social Security office location—to house a crowded bank trust department, Bank President Glenn Yaussi said.

Social Security District Manager A. F. Silber said the contract to build and lease the new one-story building was awarded to Darrell Werth Construction of Aberdeen, S.D.

The Lincoln district serves a 17-county area.

AN ORDINANCE amending Chapter 6.08 of the Lincoln Municipal Code by adding thereto a new section numbered 6.08.035, requiring the sale of beer at retail from separate premises from bottle clubs; and repealing all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith, and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of the City of Lincoln, Nebraska:

Section 1. That Chapter 6.08 of the Lincoln Municipal Code is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section numbered 6.08.035, to read as follows:

6.08.035. RETAIL SALE OF BEER SEPARATE FROM BOTTLE CLUBS. It shall be unlawful for any person to hold a license for the sale of beer at retail, except in premises which are separate and distinct from premises where a bottle club is located. Premises shall be deemed separate and distinct only when so separated by walls that access cannot be had directly from one to the other by means of doors or other openings. Premises shall not be deemed separate and distinct when access to a bottle club can be had only by going into or through premises licensed for the sale of beer at retail, or when access to premises licensed for the sale of beer at retail can be had only by going into or through a bottle club.

Section 2. That all ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict herewith be and they are hereby repealed.

Section 3. Whereas an emergency exists, this ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Stock Mart Shifts From Rise To Dip

New York (AP)—The stock market did a quick turnabout from an advance to a decline Thursday, ending the session with some substantial losses among volatile stocks.

The drop on averages was not exceptionally severe on a net basis, but was rather stiff considering the retracement of the early rise.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.12 to 904.12—a recovery high for this spring and summer—but the indicator closed with a decline of 4.57 at 896.43.

Thus it took the closely watched Dow industrials below 900 again shortly after they had again scaled that psychological barrier, as they did last week.

Would this represent a formidable "double top" — a touch obstacle—from the chartist's viewpoint? or would the average break out well above the 900 line on volume next time and go on to increase its recovery: These were the unanswered questions on Wall Street.

Trading was the week's heaviest, with volume at 7.94 million shares compared with 7.81 million Wednesday.

Of 1,388 issues traded, 459 rose and 680 fell. New highs for the year totaled 37 and new lows 54.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 1.3 to 320.9 with industrials off 3.0, rails off .2 and utilities up .3.

The market's early advance was ragged affair, with many of the glamor stocks in airlines, aerospace, color televisions and other fast-stepping groups, down on profit taking. The market was working higher despite the selling in this congested supply area. Nevertheless, things looked pretty good for a further rise until a series of unconfirmed rumors and some news items upset the bullish mood.

Prices first began to fade on unconfirmed Washington reports that President Johnson was conferring with congressional leaders in regard to the Viet Nam hostilities. Later came a rumor that Johnson was to meet with his top economic policy makers.

The entire aerospace section as well as Douglas Aircraft was upset by bearish reports about Douglas, including a decline in profits for the latest five months period compared with a year ago.

Douglas was the most-active stock, down 8¾ at 78¾ on 261,500 shares. Others in the aerospace group as well as airlines, electronics and other high-stepping groups were sold heavily.

Eleven of the 15 most-active stocks fell and 4 rose.

Xerox and IBM dropped 6 each, Polaroid 6¾, Fairchild Camera 5¾, Braniff 5⅜, United Air Lines 3½, Zenith 3¾, Texas Instruments 3¾ and Texas Gulf Sulphur 3⅛.

Prices declined irregularly on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed.

Apathy Toward Business Is Rising On Campuses

By Merryle S. Rukeyser

The panorama of business changes with great swiftness.

Two decades ago this writer, in a piece in the Saturday Evening Post, entitled "Scouting for Industry," described what was then a new trend on the part of big busines to send personnel executives to college campuses to enlist promising graduates for on-the-job training in corporations.

Rukeyser

Until recent years, through holding out the carrot of monetary and fringe incentives, business was able to attract the cream of the crop.

But attitudes on the campuses toward private business have been changing, and this season the lack of interest in corporate associations is reported to be rising.

Various explanations have been given for the psychological change. Some point to the fact that, while corporate salaries are higher than ever, the gap between pay in business, on the one hand, and in government and the professions, on the other, has been narrowed. Some students of the problem point out that about half the graduates go to graduate school, and that the business scouts neglect this expanding reservoir for talent. Peter Drucker in the "Harvard Business Review" contends that trainee programs are boring and make too little demands on the initiative and resources of students.

In recent years, an increasing ratio of college men and women have shunned business for government jobs and careers in the professions. The motivation behind such choices should be explored in depth. To me it is in part a throwback to the past when the normal outlet for talented persons was in the "learned professions." By the Nineteen Twenties, however, the trend was the other way, and some of the ablest young minds were drawn to business as the unique expression of American civilization.

Various Viewpoints

This writer has had an opportunity to observe the shifting attitudes from various viewpoints.

In the interest of the long term advance of the nation, it is important again to excite ambitious young people with the notion that modern business is more than a mode of earning income and can be a great adventure. In this new scientific age, industry is based increasingly on what the creative mind is accomplishing. Research and development are the keys to preserving a company from decaying through obsolescence.

There are a variety of reasons why these aspects are not fully understood. In the first place, ever since the advent of the New Deal in 1933 the institution of business and free enterprise has taken a beating from politicians, who preached that government should be expanded to diffuse goodies more widely.

Secondly, on top of this, corporations have become unduly institutionalized, and have given the impression that progress in an organization must be slow and must proceed along preordained lines. Likewise, personnel officials have been stuffy and intrusive, and have even suggested that they would like to take a look at the applicant's wife.

Much academic nonsense has crystallized around business careers, and there has been an underplaying of the importance of individual initiative, creative restlessness and a capacity for innovation.

Better Way

This is unfortunate, particularly since technological progress is made when nonconformists venture to find a new and better way.

To reverse the tides and get topflight manpower to flow back into industry, it behooves business leaders to modify company policies in such a way that young idealists will find that business will give them an opportunity for self expression.

Men of topflight ability don't want to fit into a narrow schedule of activity. As H. G. Wells pointed out, progress is made nowadays when one specialist impinges on the field of another.

Of course, a company must have an image—a personality, but it should not be so rigid that all of the executive and other personnel must fit into a hard-and-fast pattern. It's the job of the chief officer to interpret the policies of the managing directors, and keep others from nuduly going off on tangents. But it seems to me that fixity can be overdone, and that progress will be enhanced when creative young men and women are given their heads by corporate overlords.

(Mr. Rukeyser will be pleased to receive inquiries with stamped, self-addressed envelope concerning their financial problems in care of The Lincoln Star. Questions of general interest will be answered in the column. Others, to the extent time permits, will be handled by mail.)

Stock Mart Shifts From Rise To Dip

New York (AP)—The stock market did a quick turnabout from an advance to a decline Thursday, ending the session with some substantial losses among volatile stocks.

The drop on averages was not exceptionally severe on a net basis, but was rather stiff considering the retracement of the early rise.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.12 to 904.12—a recovery high for this spring and summer—but the indicator closed with a decline of 4.57 at 896.43.

Thus it took the closely watched Dow industrials below 900 again shortly after they had again scaled that psychological barrier, as they did last week.

Would this represent a formidable "double top" — a touch obstacle—from the chartist's viewpoint? or would the average break out well above the 900 line on volume next time and go on to increase its recovery: These were the unanswered questions on Wall Street.

Trading was the week's heaviest, with volume at 7.94 million shares compared with 7.81 million Wednesday.

Of 1,388 issues traded, 459 rose and 680 fell. New highs for the year totaled 37 and new lows 54.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined 1.3 to 320.9 with industrials off 3.0, rails off .2 and utilities up .3.

The market's early advance was ragged affair, with many of the glamor stocks in airlines, aerospace, color televisions and other fast-stepping groups, down on profit taking. The market was working higher despite the selling in this congested supply area. Nevertheless, things looked pretty good for a further rise until a series of unconfirmed rumors and some news items upset the bullish mood.

Prices first began to fade on unconfirmed Washington reports that President Johnson was conferring with congressional leaders in regard to the Viet Nam hostilities. Later came a rumor that Johnson was to meet with his top economic policy makers.

The entire aerospace section as well as Douglas Aircraft was upset by bearish reports about Douglas, including a decline in profits for the latest five months period compared with a year ago.

Douglas was the most-active stock, down 8¾ at 78¾ on 261,500 shares. Others in the aerospace group as well as airlines, electronics and other high-stepping groups were sold heavily.

Eleven of the 15 most-active stocks fell and 4 rose.

Xerox and IBM dropped 6 each, Polaroid 6½, Fairchild Camera 5¼, Braniff 3⅞, United Air Lines 3⅞, Zenith 3¾, Texas Instruments 3¾ and Texas Gulf Sulphur 3⅛.

Prices declined irregularly on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed.

DID YOU KNOW THIS? IT'S A FACT:

In Massachusetts it is illegal to travel with a horsedrawn sleigh "unless there are at least three bells attached to some part of the harness."

The smallest U.S. possession is Kingman Reef, 150 feet long and 120 feet wide at high tide. It's 1,000 miles south of Hawaii.

More than 90% of the 1,850 billion Asians subsist mainly on rice.

Tignes, in Savoie, is France's — and Europe's — highest winter resort at 6,930 feet above sea level.

Tourists can go canoeing on an underground lake at Meramec Caverns on Route 66 in Missouri.

Motorists in Moscow can get a ticket for appearing in public with their car unwashed.

The Milky Way contains an estimated 30 billion stars.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's How To Work It

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another in this example. A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to unfold your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 5. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. ### Pre-Vacation Clearings

Notes gathered from the four corners of the desk while sweeping everything on it into file 13 prior to a week's vacation (Okay, Lowell Poague, go ahead and say, "How can he tell when he's on vacation").

Nebraska's football squad this fall is going to be so big in numbers that it has led one observer to remark, "They'll still have the kickoff at 2 p.m." but they'll have to start the run-on at 1:30.

"They've got 98 available numbers starting with 1 and going through 99, but that's not goin to be enough. They may have to unretire Tom Novak's No. 60."

Limited Scholarship

When Kansas State golfer Ron Schmedemann played in the quarterfinals of the Kansas Amateur, he had K-State athletic director Babe Lee carrying his clubs.

When Lee didn't show up for the semifinals, Schmedemann explained, "My scholarship calls for a caddy for only one round."

The tornado that struck last week in Manhattan, Kan., has caused Wildcat coach Doug Weaver to rebuild his home—from the basement up. We imagine he'll find this an easier job than building Kansas State football where he also started with the basement.

Flakey, I Guess

Omahan Jackie Brandt, now playing the outfield for the Phiadelphia Phillies, has gone through life with a reputation for being a bit "flakey."

Brandt has never denied the charge and a story told by a teammate in the current issue of Sport Magazine documents the label.

"During spring training, Jackie begged me to drive him 20 miles to a certain ice cream stand because it was the only one that carried 29 flavors," the teammate explains. "And then he ordered vanilla."

Jack Kendzior, the Omaha amateur golfer, was a roommate of Rives McBee, the young Texan who shot a 64 in the U.S. Open last week. Both attended North Texas State.

Credits O-State Coach

Grier Jones, an Oklahoma State student from Kansas who won the Kansas Amateur Golf Tournament, credits the golf atmosphere at Oklahoma State with making vast improvements in his game.

"It's just the atmosphere around Oklahoma State," he says in explaining the improvement. "Everybody plays well and everybody practices. If you don't practice, you just don't play."

Golf at Oklahoma State means hitting 200 practice balls in the morning, 50 or so more in the afternoon, then playing 18 holes

But how can you hit that many golf balls and still make it scholastically? Jones did it by being on the practice tee from 6 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

"I had to leave at 7:30," he says. "That's when the girls' golf class reported. It wasn't safe out there the way they swing."

Willie Leader In Giants' Win

. . . CHICAGO FALLS, 6-4

Chicago (AP) — Wonderous Willie Mays pounded the 521st home run of his career to tie Ted Williams for third place on the all-time homer list Thursday and touched off a 6-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs

Mays unloaded his 16th homer of the season with a 2-0 count off Dick Ellsworth in the first inning. Ossie Virgil and Jim Davenport scored ahead of him.

The blast went into the right center field stands and brought screams from a Ladies Day crowd of 14,336. It was Mays first homer since June 15 in San Francisco in the Giants' 4-0 triumph over Houston.

Mays' next target is the career total of 534 by Jimmy Foxx, which would make Willie the greatest right-handed home run hitter in major league history.

The all-time high is 714 by Babe Ruth.

The league-leading Giants swept the four-game series with the Cubs, but had to break out of a 4-4 deadlock in the eighth.

The Cubs had scored on John Boccabellaos No. 4 homer in the second inning and tied it, 3-3, with a pair of runs in the fourth while knocking out Ray Sadecki.

Billy Williams slammed his 11th homer to lead off. Then Ron Santo stretched his hitting streak through 21 games with a single. He took second on Ernie Banks single, third on Boccabella's sacrifice and scored on Ron Hundley's sacrifice fly.

The Giants went ahead 4-3 on Virgil's first homer, the second of his three hits in the fifth. The Cubs moved into the 4-4 stalemate in the sixth when Williams singled, raced to third when Santo's grounder went through Davenport's legs and scored on Boccabella's sacrifice fly.

Mays also collected two singles for his first three-hit game since the seventh game of the season. One of them came in the tie-breaking eighth and aided in the leading run

Tranquil Bolt Leads Western

. . . CASPER TIED FOR 2ND

Chicago (AP)—Tommy Bolt, now a tranquil and infrequent circuit player, shot a three-under-par 68 and captured the first-round lead in the $100,000 Western Open Thursday.

"I felt like Arnold Palmer out there, all over the place, but still getting that ball in the hole," asserted Bolt, 48, once known as Terrible Tommy because of his temper.

Bolt's 32-36 round over Medinah's tree-choked, 7,014-yard par 71 layout, gave him a one stroke lead over a trio locked at 69, including U.S. Open champion Billy Casper, the defending Western Open champion

Also notched at 69 were Harold (Catfish) Kneece and Doug Sanders.

Tied at 70, one under par, were Bert Yancey and R. H. Sikes.

Bolt, making only his 11th start this season—he has finished only five tourneys—fired four straight birdies from the fourth through the seventh holes as he came up with what he described "a super round of putting, for me."

Palmer, whose game collapsed in his head-to-head closing duel with Casper for the U.S. Open crown Sunday and Monday, continued to have his troubles with a one-over-par 72.

That put Arnie, one of the late starters among a field of 127 pros seeking the Western's top prize of $20,000, far back in the pack.

No fewer than 11 players were deadlocekd at even par 71, while another nine were bracketed with Palmer at 72.

Bolt, last a tournament winner in 1961 when he took the Pensacola Open, used 28 putts. The most important, in Tommy's book, was a 13-footer to salvage par three on the short 170-yard 14th hole.

"That was a super hole for me, and it could have been any easy double bogey," said Bolt, who is bothered by chronic bursitis in both shoulders.

My drive with a five iron skidded over the green into trashy, heavy grass. But I pitched back with a sand wedge to 13 feet and got down that big putt."

In his string of birdies from the fourth through the seventh, Bolt sank putts of 4, 15, 17 and 6 feet.

"That's a real good golf course out there and I think even par 284 may be good enough to win it," said Bolt.

Sanders, although complaining of an ailing stomach and "tired feeling", shot rounds of 34-35, including successive birdies on the fourth and fifth with the rest all pars.

Casper scored two birdies in 16 pars on his steady drive for his 34-35 nines.

One-Run Setbacks Plague Bombers

. . . IN AAA SOFTBALL DEBUT

By KENT SAVERY
Star Sports Writer

Although the Bombers haven't had great success this season in the City Softball League, their story is an interesting one.

The club originally planned to play in the AA-1 division, but when other clubs in that category found out that Dwight Tietjen, a standout athlete at Nebraska Wesleyan, was going to pitch for the Bombers, they convinced league officials the Bombers should be boosted to AAA.

"The team wasn't too happy about it at first," explains coach Darrel Butts. "But they like AAA now."

The Bomber team was formed in 1961. They started in the A-1 division where they won the championship. Then they won the B tourney and two years ago another A-1 title, the latter with Tietjen pitching.

The club is 2-6 in league play this year, both wins coming against KOLN-TV. But they have lost three games by just one run, one of which was a 1-0 decision when Skyline's John Jackson tossed a no-hitter at them.

"I think the hitting will come around the second half of the season," said Butts.

Leading hitter for the club is Tietjen with a .304 average. Skip Peterson, a Wesleyan regular who plays shortstop for the Bombers, is hitting at a .292 clip.

Butts also cites Peterson's fielding and Steve Carlson's "good arm" in centerfield as Bomber strong points.

The club boasts several other players who have made a name in college athletics, but the Bombers are young by AAA City League standards.

Three Nannen brothers, Roger, Gary, and Ron also play for the Bombers.

"King's and Skyline are the teams to beat," Butts says.

The Bomber coach would only speculate that his club will do better in the second half of the split City League schedule.

Bankers, Bellevue Tie

By TOM HENDERSON
Star Sports Writer

An error on Don Berglund's hot grounder through the box scored Dick Hawley from second base with the tying run in the top of the 10th as the First National Bank battled Bellevue to a 12-12 tie in a Cornhusker Legion League contest which would have decided the top spot in the Eastern Division at Sherman Field Thursday night.

The contest was called after 12 innings by mutual agreement of the coaches.

It looked like it would be a long night for the Bankers when Bellevue, previously unbeaten and untied, scrambled to a 9-2 lead after four innings.

But First National exploded in its half of the fifth, sending 15 batters to the plate and scoring nine runs to take a 11-9 lead.

A double by Berglund, coupled with singles by Steve Russell, Hawley, Tom Kos, Dave McEwen, Leland Sasse and Dick Henderson accounted for the runs.

Russell, who relieved starting pitcher Jon Roberts in the fourth, settled down to keep Bellevue hitless through the eighth; but a single by Don Davern, hit batsman, and two Banker errors in the ninth tied the score, 11-apiece.

Bellevue got the go-ahead run in the top of the 10th on a single and two more First National errors, but the Bankers got it back and nearly won the game in the bottom of that inning.

Leadoff hitter Hawley drew a walk from Bellevue hurler Don Davern, and Henderson lived when Davern muffed a throw to second on a double play attempt.

Davern then struck out Tom Tidball and Kos, but Berglund smashed a shot through the box to second and Frey watched as the ball dribbled through his legs. Hawley scored on the play, but Henderson was left stranded on third when Dave McEwen struck out.

Four Homers Boost Tribe Past Bosox

Boston (AP)—Rocky Colavito hit a two-run homer and Fred Whitfield, Jim Landis and Chico Salmon contributed solo shots Thursday in powering the Cleveland Indians to a 8-6 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Colavito's 11th homer of the season, and fourth within 21 broke a 1-1 tie in the third inning.

Whitfield led off the second with his 11th homer. Landis started the seventh with a pinch homer, his third, and Salmon connected for his fifth with two out in the same inning.

Salmon also had three singles and a sacrifice fly for three runs batted in.

Cleveland starter Luis Tiant allowed only one run on one hit for five innings, but needed help as the Red Sox erupted for three tallies in the sixth.

Gary Bell put down the uprising and Dick Radatz, former Boston relief ace, finished up in preserving Tiant's fifth victory in eight decisions

Lee Stange was the loser. Stange, who has a 1-2 record, was shelled in the eighth. He was followed on the mound by five other Boston hurlers.

State Senior Golfers Set July 15 Meeting

The Nebraska Men's Senior Golf Association will meet at 10 a.m. July 15 at Hillcrest Country Club to make plans for the second annual Men's Senior Golf Tournament.

The tournament will be held at Hillcrest Sept. 28-30.

Arlin To Combine Baseball, With Dentistry As Career

Lima, Ohio (AP)—Steve Arlin, one of the nations most promising young pitchers, turned to professional baseball and dentistry Thursday for what is believed to be more than $100,000.

"I'm very, very satisfied," said the 20-year-old right-hander who twice earned All-America baseball honors at Ohio State University, and gave up a year of college eligibility to sign a contract with the Philadelphia Phillies.

General manager John Quinn came to Arlin's home here to sign the agreement.

Arlin said he had agreed with the Phillies not to reveal how much he got. But he said his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arlin of Lima, "were knocked right off their feet."

Expected Bonus

Earlier he had indicated he expected a bonus of more than $100,000, plus the chance to continue his college education.

Arlin will report Sunday to the Phillies' Bakersfield farm team in the Class A California League. He said he would be back at Ohio State this fall to enter dental school.

The Phillies agreed to review his baseball and educational status at the start of each year, Arlin said.

It normally would take him four years to complete dental school. Playing in the major leagues could interfere with a normal college schedule "if I want it to interfere with it," Arlin said.

Eventually, he said, he will "have to decide what is more important, baseball or dentistry."

His dental skill is still untried. His baseball skill led the Phillies to make him their first choice in the major league free agent draft this month.

Most Valuable

Arlin, a 6-foot 2-inch 190-pounder, was voted the most valuable player in the College World Series, pitching in five games as the Buckeyes won the NCAA title. He hurled two complete games and relieved in three others during the tournament, pitching two 12-strike-out victories over No. 1 ranked Southern California.

He noted then that Rick Monday of Arizona State reportedly received $104,000 for signing last year with Kansas City and said, "I think I'm worth as much as Monday is."

Asked Thursday if he had done as well as Monday, Arlin replied: "absolutely."

Pre-Vacation Clearings

Notes gathered from the four corners of the desk while sweeping everything on it into file 13 prior to a week's vacation (Okay, Lowell Poague, go ahead and say, "How can he tell when he's on vacation").

Nebraska's football squad this fall is going to be so big in numbers that it has led one observer to remark, "They'll still have the kickoff at 2 p.m." but they'll have to start the run-on at 1:30.

"They've got 98 available numbers starting with 1 and going through 99, but that's not goin to be enough. They may have to unretire Tom Novak's No. 60."

Limited Scholarship

When Kansas State golfer Ron Schmedemann played in the quarterfinals of the Kansas Amateur, he had K-State athletic director Babe Lee carrying his clubs.

When Lee didn't show up for the semifinals, Schmedemann explained, "My scholarship calls for a caddy for only one round."

The tornado that struck last week in Manhattan, Kan., has caused Wildcat coach Doug Weaver to rebuild his home—from the basement up. We imagine he'll find this an easier job than building Kansas State football where he also started with the basement.

Flakey, I Guess

Omahan Jackie Brandt, now playing the outfield for the Phiadelphia Phillies, has gone through life with a reputation for being a bit "flakey."

Brandt has never denied the charge and a story told by a teammate in the current issue of Sport Magazine documents the label.

"During spring training, Jackie begged me to drive him 20 miles to a certain ice cream stand because it was the only one that carried 29 flavors," the teammate explains. "And then he ordered vanilla."

Jack Kendzior, the Omaha amateur golfer, was a roommate of Rives McBee, the young Texan who shot a 64 in the U.S. Open last week. Both attended North Texas State.

Credits O-State Coach

Grier Jones, an Oklahoma State student from Kansas who won the Kansas Amateur Golf Tournament, credits the golf atmosphere at Oklahoma State with making vast improvements in his game.

"It's just the atmosphere around Oklahoma State," he says in explaining the improvement. "Everybody plays well and everybody practices. If you don't practice, you just don't play."

Golf at Oklahoma State means hitting 200 practice balls in the morning, 50 or so more in the afternoon, then playing 18 holes.

But how can you hit that many golf balls and still make it scholastically? Jones did it by being on the practice tee from 6 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. every Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

"I had to leave at 7:30," he says. "That's when the girls' golf class reported. It wasn't safe out there the way they swing."

Willie Leader In Giants' Win

. . . CHICAGO FALLS, 6-4

Chicago (AP) — Wonderous Willie Mays pounded the 521st home run of his career to tie Ted Williams for third place on the all-time homer list Thursday and touched off a 6-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Mays unloaded his 16th homer of the season with a 2-0 count off Dick Ellsworth in the first inning. Ossie Virgil and Jim Davenport scored ahead of him.

The blast went into the right center field stands and brought screams from a Ladies Day crowd of 14,336. It was Mays first homer since June 15 in San Francisco in the Giants' 4-0 triumph over Houston.

Mays' next target is the career total of 534 by Jimmy Foxx, which would make Willie the greatest right-handed home run hitter in major league history.

The all-time high is 714 by Babe Ruth.

The league-leading Giants swept the four-game series with the Cubs, but had to break out of a 4-4 deadlock in the eighth.

The Cubs had scored on John Boccabellaos No. 4 homer in the second inning and tied it, 3-3, with a pair of runs in the fourth while knocking out Ray Sadecki.

Billy Williams slammed his 11th homer to lead off. Then Ron Santo stretched his hitting streak through 21 games with a single. He took second on Ernie Banks single, third on Boccabella's sacrifice and scored on Ron Hundley's sacrifice fly.

The Giants went ahead 4-3 on Virgil's first homer, the second of his three hits in the fifth. The Cubs moved into the 4-4 stalemate in the sixth when Williams singled, raced to third when Santo's grounder went through Davenport's legs and scored on Boccabella's sacrifice fly.

Mays also collected two singles for his first three-hit game since the seventh game of the season. One of them came in the tie-breaking eighth and aided in the leading run.

Tranquil Bolt Leads Western

. . . CASPER TIED FOR 2ND

Chicago (AP)—Tommy Bolt, now a tranquil and infrequent circuit player, shot a three-under-par 68 and captured the first-round lead in the $100,000 Western Open Thursday.

"I felt like Arnold Palmer out there, all over the place, but still getting that ball in the hole," asserted Bolt, 48, once known as Terrible Tommy because of his temper.

Bolt's 32-36 round over Medinah's tree-choked, 7-014-yard par 71 layout, gave him a one stroke lead over a trio locked at 69, including U.S. Open champion Billy Casper, the defending Western Open champion.

Also notched at 69 were Harold (Catfish) Kneece and Doug Sanders.

Tied at 70, one under par, were Bert Yancey and R. H. Sikes.

Bolt, making only his 11th start this season—he has finished only five tourneys—fired four straight birdies from the fourth through the seventh holes as he came up with what he described "a super round of putting, for me."

Palmer, whose game collapsed in his head-to-head closing duel with Casper for the U.S. Open crown Sunday and Monday, continued to have his troubles with a one-over-par 72.

That put Arnie, one of the late starters among a field of 127 pros seeking the Western's top prize of $20,000, far back in the pack.

No fewer than 11 players were deadlocekd at even par 71, while another nine were bracketed with Palmer at 72.

Bolt, last a tournament winner in 1961 when he took the Pensacola Open, used 28 putts. The most important, in Tommy's book, was a 13-footer to salvage par three on the short 170-yard 14th hole.

"That was a super hole for me, and it could have been any easy double bogey," said Bolt, who is bothered by chronic bursitis in both shoulders.

My drive with a five iron skidded over the green into trashy, heavy grass. But I pitched back with a sand wedge to 13 feet and got down that big putt."

In his string of birdies from the fourth through the seventh, Bolt sank putts of 4, 15, 17 and 6 feet.

"That's a real good golf course out there and I think even par 284 may be good enough to win it," said Bolt.

Sanders, although complaining of an ailing stomach and "tired feeling", shot rounds of 34-35, including successive birdies on the fourth and fifth with the rest all pars.

Casper scored two birdies in 16 pars on his steady drive for his 34-35 nines.

Bankers, Bellevue Tie

By TOM HENDERSON
Star Sports Writer

An error on Don Berglund's hot grounder through the box scored Dick Hawley from second base with the tying run in the top of the 10th as the First National Bank battled Bellevue to a 12-12 tie in a Cornhusker Legion League contest which would have decided the top spot in the Eastern Division at Sherman Field Thursday night.

The contest was called after 12 innings by mutual agreement of the coaches.

It looked like it would be a long night for the Bankers when Bellevue, previously unbeaten and untied, scrambled to a 9-2 lead after four innings.

But First National exploded in its half of the fifth, sending 15 batters to the plate and scoring nine runs to take a 11-9 lead.

A double by Berglund, coupled with singles by Steve Russell, Hawley, Tom Kos, Dave McEwen, Leland Sasse and Dick Henderson accounted for the runs.

Russell, who relieved starting pitcher Jon Roberts in the fourth, settled down to keep Bellevue hitless through the eighth; but a single by Don Davern, hit batsman, and two Banker errors in the ninth tied the score, 11-apiece.

Bellevue got the go-ahead run in the top of the 10th on a single and two more First National errors, but the Bankers got it back and nearly won the game in the bottom of that inning.

Leadoff hitter Hawley drew a walk from Bellevue hurler Don Davern, and Henderson lived when Davern muffed a throw to second on a double play attempt.

Davern then struck out Tom Tidball and Kos, but Berglund smashed a shot through the box to second and Frey watched as the ball dribbled through his legs. Hawley scored on the play, but Henderson was left stranded on third when Dave McEwen struck out.

Four Homers Boost Tribe Past Bosox

Boston (AP)—Rocky Colavito hit a two-run homer and Fred Whitfield, Jim Landis and Chico Salmon contributed solo shots Thursday in powering the Cleveland Indians to a 8-6 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Colavito's 11th homer of the season, and fourth within 24 broke a 1-1 tie in the third inning.

Whitfield led off the second with his 11th homer. Landis started the seventh with a pinch homer, his third, and Salmon connected for his fifth with two out in the same inning.

Salmon also had three singles and a sacrifice fly for three runs batted in.

Cleveland starter Luis Tiant allowed only one run on one hit for five innings, but needed help as the Red Sox erupted for three tallies in the sixth.

Gary Bell put down the uprising and Dick Radatz, former Boston relief ace, finished up in preserving Tiant's fifth victory in eight decisions.

Lee Stange was the loser. Stange, who has a 1-2 record, was shelled in the eighth. He was followed on the mound by five other Boston hurlers.

State Senior Golfers Set July 15 Meeting

The Nebraska Men's Senior Golf Association will meet at 10 a.m. July 15 at Hillcrest Country Club to make plans for the second annual Men's Senior Golf Tournament.

The tournament will be held at Hillcrest Sept. 28-30.

One-Run Setbacks Plague Bombers

. . . IN AAA SOFTBALL DEBUT

By KENT SAVERY
Star Sports Writer

Although the Bombers haven't had great success this season in the City Softball League, their story is an interesting one.

The club originally planned to play in the AA-1 division, but when other clubs in that category found out that Dwight Tietjen, a standout athlete at Nebraska Wesleyan, was going to pitch for the Bombers, they convinced league officials the Bombers should be boosted to AAA.

"The team wasn't too happy about it at first," explains coach Darrel Butts, "But they like AAA now."

The Bomber team was formed in 1961. They started in the A-1 division where they won the championship. Then they won the B tourney and two years ago another A-1 title, the latter with Tietjen pitching.

The club is 2-6 in league play this year, both wins coming against KOLN-TV. But they have lost three games by just one run, one of which was a 1-0 decision when Skyline's John Jackson tossed a no-hitter at them.

"I think the hitting will come around the second half of the season," said Butts.

Leading hitter for the club is Tietjen with a .304 average. Skip Peterson, a Wesleyan regular who plays shortstop for the Bombers, is hitting at a .292 clip.

Butts also cites Peterson's fielding and Steve Carlson's "good arm" in centerfield as Bomber strong points.

The club boasts several other players who have made a name in college athletics, but the Bombers are young by AAA City League standards.

Frank Solich of Husker football fame, is the Bomber third basemen. Rudy Stoehr, a former Wesleyan basketball great, plays first base.

Three Nannen brothers, Roger, Gary, and Ron also play for the Bombers.

"King's and Skyline are the teams to beat," Butts says.

Arlin To Combine Baseball, With Dentistry As Career

Lima, Ohio (AP)—Steve Arlin, one of the nations most promising young pitchers, turned to professional baseball and dentistry Thursday for what is believed to be more than $100,000.

"I'm very, very satisfied," said the 20-year-old right-hander who twice earned All-America baseball honors at Ohio State University, and gave up a year of college eligibility to sign a contract with the Philadelphia Phillies.

General manager John Quinn came to Arlin's home here to sign the agreement.

Arlin said he had agreed with the Phillies not to reveal how much he got. But he said his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arlin of Lima, "were knocked right off their feet."

Expected Bonus

Earlier he had indicated he expected a bonus of more than $100,000, plus the chance to continue his college education.

Arlin will report Sunday to the Phillies' Bakersfield farm team in the Class A California League. He said he would be back at Ohio State this fall to enter dental school.

The Phillies agreed to review his baseball and educational status at the start of each year, Arlin said.

It normally would take him four years to complete dental school. Playing in the major leagues could interfere with a normal college schedule "if I want it to interfere with it," Arlin said.

Eventually, he said, he will "have to decide what is more important, baseball or dentistry."

His dental skill is still untried. His baseball skill led the Phillies to make him their first choice in the major league free agent draft this month.

Most Valuable

Arlin, a 6-foot 2-inch 190-pounder, was voted the most valuable player in the College World Series, pitching in five games as the Buckeyes won the NCAA title. He hurled two complete games and relieved in three others during the tournament, pitching two 12-strike-out victories over No. 1 ranked Southern California.

He noted then that Rick Monday of Arizona State reportedly received $104,000 for signing last year with Kansas City and said, "I think I'm worth as much as Monday is."

Asked Thursday if he had done as well as Monday, Arlin replied: "absolutely."

—11 DAYS REMAIN—

Fleming Within Reach Of 2nd Ak Jockey Title

Omaha (AP) — Willie Fleming chose horses over high school at the age of 16 and so far hasn't regretted his decision.

At 21, Fleming is one of the busiest jockeys at Omaha's Ak-Sar-Ben track with a good chance of becoming the second rider ever to win Ak-Sar-Ben's jockey championship two years in succession.

The only other rider to achieve this distinction is Sonny Ray Williams, who won back-to-back honors in 1956 and 1957 and now is a patrol judge at Ak-Sar-Ben.

In 1965, while he was still an apprentice jockey, Fleming won 43 races to take top honors. All told, 1965, was a $30,000 season before expenses for him.

This year, with only 11 racing days left, Fleming had 30 firsts, 27 seconds and 27 thirds. His nearest rival, Don Lewis, has a 20-19-18 record. Fleming had 195 mounts and Lewis 165.

Despite his youth, the 109-pound Marshalltown, Iowa, jockey has had horses in his blood for a long time. As a boy, he spent as much time with the ponies as with his schoolbooks, and at 16 he was at Ak-Sar-Ben "taking care of horses."

"That taking care means grubby work," Fleming recalls, "but I loved it."

The youthful stable hand went back to Marshalltown's Anson Junior High School that fall, but next spring he was back at Ak-Sar-Ben mucking stables and doing the rest of the "grubby work."

Fleming never tossed a leg over racing stock until he was 18. He started galloping horses for owners, spent six months on a California horse ranch and then became an apprentice jockey. He won his first race soon after and kept right on winning, ending up with apprentice honors at Turf Paradise and Arizona Downs in Arizona.

Last season he was really moving, and wound up his apprenticeship by taking jockey honors at Ak-Sar-Ben.

Fleming is an all-business jockey.

"I'm trying to save money for the future," he said. "I hope to ride 15 or 20 years. I'd like to ride in the Kentucky Derby . . ."

Fleming is up at 5:30 a.m. daily working out future mounts and even on his day off he goes to the track to gallop horses for owners who don't have regular exercise boys to "protect my own interests."

As a rider he's seldom involved in a foul claim. "Most of us riders are good friends and I like to keep it that way. I never file a foul claim unless it's absolutely necessary."

Fleming has posted four wins on a single day more than once and has sometimes ridden in all nine races at Ak-Sar-Ben. But he thinks five to seven races ought to be enough for any rider.

Fleming and his wife, Darla, will observe their first wedding anniversary next month and are looking forward to the birth of their first child.

Darla, like Willie, doesn't bet on horses, "but she sure cheers me during the races," Fleming said. "Some of our friends say our baby will be born in the winners' circle."

Del Gould Wins On Ramos Blast

A two-run homer by Jose Ramos in the bottom of the seventh gave Del Gould its first Elks League baseball win Thursday night, a 5-3 triumph over Bonebright.

Ramos' blow gave the win to reliever Bill Schommer, who came in in the fourth inning. He gave up just one hit, one walk and struck out 10 in his four innings of relief.

Hartack To Ride At Ak-Sar-Ben

Omaha, Neb. (AP)—Bill Hartack, who has ridden four Kentucky Derby winners, will ride Mike Ford's Royal Gunner in the $50,000-added Cornhusker Handicap at Ak-Sar-Ben Saturday.

Ford's Kauai King won the Derby and the Preakness this year and only last week was syndicated for a record $2,520,000.

3 Legion Midget Games Reslated

Three schedule changes in the Lincoln American Legion's midget baseball program have been announced by Legion athletic chairman John Kahler.

Games pitting Roberts against Northeast at 8 p.m. June 26 and Roberts against CWA at 5:30 p.m. July 10 have been added to the schedule at Sherman Field.

Games sending Yukon, Okla., against both CWA and AAA July 5 have been canceled and CWA will now play AAA at 8 p.m. on that date.

Gibson's 4-Hitter Stops Astros, 2-1

. . . CARDINALS WIN

Houston (AP) — Bob Gibson's four-hit pitching and Phil Gagliano's run-producing single in the eighth inning carried St. Louis to a 2-1 victory over Houston Thursday night.

Gibson, the major league strikeout leader, fanned four Astros and raised his total to 139 for the year as he lifted his record to 11-6.

Gagliano's single followed a leadoff triple by Lou Brock in the eighth and broke a 1-1 tie. That tagged Dave Giusti with his fourth loss against nine victories.

The Astros took a 1-0 lead with an unearned run in the fourth inning when Jim Wynn was safe on Dal Maxvill's error and scored on the first hit off Gibson, Rusty Staub's single.

Gibson batted in the run that tied the score in the fifth. Bob Tolan was hit by a pitch but was forced by Julian Javier to third, and he scored on Gibson's force out.

State Has No Power To Enforce Dump Rules

By United Press International

State officials disclosed Thursday the Health Department has no power to enforce its rules and regulations covering the more than 600 garbage dumps in Nebraska.

"We were afraid of this but it appears there is nothing we can do until the next session of the Legislature," State Sanitation Director T. A. Filipi said.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Bernard L. Packett advised Filipi that the Health Department was powerless to make cities comply with refuse control regulations.

Can Decide Location

However, he said Filipi can determine where a dump site shall be located.

"In approving a site he (Filipi) can only assume that the site will be operated in a proper manner. If it is not, it is the responsibility of the municipality operating the dump site," Packett said.

The Health Department has long operated under the assumption that it had authority to control the operation of dump sites, Filipi said.

"We have a set of regulations covering the operation of the dumps. We always point these standards out to the cities when we believe corrective action is necessary," he said.

"I don't know what effect this newest development will have on the operation of dumps. I would hope, however, that local officials would follow the present regulations in the interest of common decency and public health."

The current regulations include a prohibition against fires, require that dump sites be covered and state that rats and other insects must be controlled.

Filipi said there are some dumps in the state that are a "real nuisance." He said most need some improvement.

"We have only about three or four examples of excellent dumps," he said.

The mixup over enforcement authority apparently stems from too many inconsistencies in laws dealing with garbage disposal, Filipi added.

"We will ask the next session of the Legislature to harmonize these laws, for authority to spell out specific rules and regulations, and for power to enforce them," he said.

Packett said the Legislature could require all dump sites in Nebraska to be licensed through the state health department.

He also said the lawmakers could empower the health board to establish operation standards.

Assailant Clubs Girl To Death

Seattle (AP)—Lovely, dark-haired Lonnie Trumbull was clubbed to death and blonde Lisa E. Wick savagely beaten into insensibility Thursday morning by an unknown assailant who left them to be found by a stunned roommate, Joyce Bowe.

All three girls were United Air Lines stewardesses, all were 20 and all had lived in Portland, Ore., before joining UAL.

A piece of blood-stained wood about 20 inches long and three inches square was found in a nearby vacant lot.

As to the killer's identity, a police officer said, "We don't have a thing."

Late Thursday afternoon Miss Wick remained unconscious, her condition critical. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl A. Wick, were here from Portland.

Recent Grads

Newly graduated from stewardess school in Chicago, the three were based here and had been scheduled for their first regular runs in July, Miss Bowe said.

The sobbing girl told police she had spent the night with another stewardess friend and found the door unlocked and a light on when she returned to the apartment.

"I looked at Lonnie and couldn't believe my eyes," said Miss Bowe.

"I started to wake Lisa and she was in the same state."

A neighbor, George Stoss, said he heard an automobile roar away from the apartment building shortly after midnight and "at the same time I heard someone scream."

Most Heard Nothing

One other neighbor said she heard a car; others heard nothing.

Terry Allman, a deputy sheriff who lives on Vashon Island, said he had been with Miss Trumbull Wednesday, leaving the apartment about 5 p.m. He talked with her by telephone around 10 p.m., Allman said.

The dead girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Trumbull. Her father is a lieutenant in the Portland Fire Department. The Trumbulls, Miss Bowe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowe, were en route to Seattle Thursday.

Minneapolis Man 20, Is Bound Over

Jerome George Ullman, 20, of North Minneapolis, Minn., charged with the armed robbery of the Keep-U-Neat Cleaners at 123 So. 23rd, was bound over to District Court Thursday following a preliminary hearing in County Court.

Bond was set at $5,000.

Ullman, specifically charged with stealing money from the person of Dorothy Ebner, was taken into custody in Oklahoma City, Okla.

No plea was entered by the defendant when he was arraigned in County Court. A preliminary hearing was requested.

Gambling Counts Against Omaha Pair Dismissed

Omaha (AP) — Chief Federal District Judge Richard E. Robinson Thursday dismissed 18 charges against two Omahans in connection with alleged gambling activities.

The charges were against Max Abrahamson, 58, and John Quinn, 47, who were indicted by a grand jury in May, 1963, on charges of failing to possess federal gambling stamps, evading excise taxes, conspiracy to evade excise taxes for allegedly declaring about $1,500 in income each of nine months when the figure should have been $10,000 for each of these months.

In making his ruling Judge Robinson said the government had not exerted any great effort to bring the matter to trial and it has been pending for three years.

U.S. Attorney Theodore Richling said the government has been waiting for the defendants to secure information they desire in the way of depositions under court orders granted last year.

Normal Board Is Awarded Student Aids Office Fund

Washington (UPI) — The U.S. Office of Education has awarded the Nebraska State Normal Board $64,508 for a directorate for student financial aids.

Rep. Clair Callan, D-Neb., who made the announcement, said the grant will enable the board to establish an office to work with high schools, post-secondary schools and welfare agencies to identify low-income students with academic promise.

Callan also announced the Office of Education has awarded York College $1,507 for a laboratory and other special equipment.

Mrs. Salisbury Elected NARCE President Again

The Lincoln chapter of National Association of Retired Civil Employees (NARCE) re-elected Mrs. Florence Salisbury of Lincoln as president of the organization.

Also reelected were John Wright, first vice-president, and Lawrence Neuman, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Emma Gardiner is the newly-elected second vice-president.

Tigers Use Early Punch To Handle Senators, 6-1

Washington (AP) — The Detroit Tigers disposed of Washington's starting pitcher in the first inning for the third straight night and beat the Senators 6-1 Thursday behind the five-hit pitching of Earl Wilson and Larry Sherry.

Mike McCormick followed starters Diego Segui and Phil Ortega in retiring only one batter as the Tigers broke on top in each game and swept the series.

Walks to Dick McAuliffe and Norm Cash, a two-run double by Al Kaline, and a single by Willie Horton accounted for three runs in the sixth of the season.

Wilson, making his second start since being obtained from Boston, posted his first victory for the Tigers and counted for three runs in the first.

Sherry took over with one out in the eighth following Willie Kirkland's pinch single and Dick Tracewski's error on Don Blasingame's grounder. He was tagged for Frank Howard's homer in the ninth.

The Tigers scored two in the sixth when Wilson was hit by a pitch, Dick McAuliffe singled and scored all the way from first on Tracewski's squeeze bunt and Blasingame's error.

Pappas, Pinson Homers Bring 5-3 Win To Reds

. . . PIRATES BEATEN

Cincinnati (AP) — A solo homer by pitcher Milt Pappas and a two-run shot by Vada Pinson in the fifth inning brought the Cincinnati Reds a 5-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night.

The Reds swept the three-game series from the Pirates as they ran their winning streak to six games.

Pappas' homer, his first of the season and 12th of his career, snapped a 2-2 tie. Pinson connected for his sixth homer after Tommy Harper singled. Both blasts came off Don Cardwell.

Pappas, with relief help from Don Nottebart, brought his record to 6-5.

Jose Pagan homered in the fifth inning and knocked in another Pirate run with a sacrifice fly in the seventh. Jim Pagliaroni's second inning single scored Donn Clendenon who had doubled, with Pittsburgh's first run.

John Edwards knocked in Cincinnati's first run with a second inning double. The Reds got a run in the fourth when Pagan fumbled Tommy Helms' grounder, permitting Gordy Coleman to score.

—11 DAYS REMAIN—

Fleming Within Reach Of 2nd Ak Jockey Title

Omaha (AP) — Willie Fleming chose horses over high school at the age of 16 and so far hasn't regretted his decision.

At 21, Fleming is one of the busiest jockeys at Omaha's Ak-Sar-Ben track with a good chance of becoming the second rider ever to win Ak-Sar-Ben's jockey championship two years in succession.

The only other rider to achieve this distinction is Sonny Ray Williams, who won back-to-back honors in 1956 and 1957 and now is a patrol judge at Ak-Sar-Ben.

In 1965, while he was still an apprentice jockey, Fleming won 43 races to take top honors. All told, 1965, was a $30,000 season before expenses for him.

This year, with only 11 racing days left, Fleming had 30 firsts, 27 seconds and 27 thirds. His nearest rival, Don Lewis, has a 20-19-18 record. Fleming had 195 mounts and Lewis 165.

Despite his youth, the 109-pound Marshalltown, Iowa, jockey has had horses in his blood for a long time. As a boy, he spent as much time with the ponies as with his schoolbooks, and at 16 he was at Ak-Sar-Ben "taking care of horses."

"That taking care means grubby work," Fleming recalls, "but I loved it."

The youthful stable hand went back to Marshalltown's Anson Junior High School that fall, but next spring he was back at Ak-Sar-Ben mucking stables and doing the rest of the "grubby work."

Fleming never tossed a leg over racing stock until he was 18. He started galloping horses for owners, spent six months on a California horse ranch and then became an apprentice jockey. He won his first race soon after and kept right on winning, ending up with apprentice honors at Turf Paradise and Arizona Downs in Arizona.

Last season he was really moving, and wound up his apprenticeship by taking jockey honors at Ak-Sar-Ben.

Fleming is an all-business jockey.

"I'm trying to save money for the future," he said. "I hope to ride 15 or 20 years. I'd like to ride in the Kentucky Derby . . ."

Fleming is up at 5:30 a.m. daily working out future mounts and even on his day off he goes to the track to gallop horses for owners who don't have regular exercise boys to "protect my own interests."

As a rider he's seldom involved in a foul claim. "Most of us riders are good friends and I like to keep it that way. I never file a foul claim unless it's absolutely necessary."

Fleming has posted four wins on a single day more than once and has sometimes ridden in all nine races at Ak-Sar-Ben. But he thinks five to seven races ought to be enough for any rider.

Fleming and his wife, Darla, will observe their first wedding anniversary next month and are looking forward to the birth of their first child.

Darla, like Willie, doesn't bet on horses, "but she sure cheers me during the races," Fleming said. "Some of our friends say our baby will be born in the winners' circle."

Del Gould Wins On Ramos Blast

A two-run homer by Jose Ramos in the bottom of the seventh gave Del Gould its first Elks League baseball win Thursday night, a 5-3 triumph over Bonebright.

Ramos' blow gave the win to reliever Bill Schommer, who came in in the fourth inning. He gave up just one hit, one walk and struck out 10 in his four innings of relief.

Hartack To Ride At Ak-Sar-Ben

Omaha, Neb. (AP)—Bill Hartack, who has ridden four Kentucky Derby winners, will ride Mike Ford's Royal Gunner in the $50,000-added Cornhusker Handicap at Ak-Sar-Ben Saturday.

Ford's Kauai King won the Derby and the Preakness this year and only last week was syndicated for a record $2,520,000.

3 Legion Midget Games Reslated

Three schedule changes in the Lincoln American Legion's midget baseball program have been announced by Legion athletic chairman John Kahler.

Games pitting Roberts against Northeast at 8 p.m. June 26 and Roberts against CWA at 5:30 p.m. July 10 have been added to the schedule at Sherman Field.

Games sending Yukon, Okla., against both CWA and AAA July 5 have been canceled and CWA will now play AAA at 8 p.m. on that date.

Gibson's 4-Hitter Stops Astros, 2-1

. . . CARDINALS WIN

Houston (AP) — Bob Gibson's four-hit pitching and Phil Gagliano's run-producing single in the eighth inning carried St. Louis to a 2-1 victory over Houston Thursday night.

Gibson, the major league strikeout leader, fanned four Astros and raised his total to 139 for the year as he lifted his record to 11-6.

Gagliano's single followed a leadoff triple by Lou Brock in the eighth and broke a 1-1 tie. That tagged Dave Giusti with his fourth loss against nine victories.

The Astros took a 1-0 lead with an unearned run in the fourth inning when Jim Wynn was safe on Dal Maxvill's error and scored on the first hit off Gibson, Rusty Staub's single.

Gibson batted in the run that tied the score in the fifth. Bob Tolan was hit by a pitch but was forced by Julian Javier to third, and he scored on Gibson's force out.

State Has No Power To Enforce Dump Rules

By United Press International

State officials disclosed Thursday the Health Department has no power to enforce its rules and regulations covering the more than 600 garbage dumps in Nebraska.

"We were afraid of this but it appears there is nothing we can do until the next session of the Legislature," State Sanitation Director T. A. Filipi said.

Assistant Atty. Gen. Bernard L. Packett advised Filipi that the Health Department was powerless to make cities comply with refuse control regulations.

Can Decide Location

However, he said Filipi can determine where a dump site shall be located.

"In approving a site he (Filipi) can only assume that the site will be operated in a proper manner. If it is not, it is the responsibility of the municipality operating the dump site," Packett said.

The Health Department has long operated under the assumption that it had authority to control the operation of dump sites, Filipi said.

"We have a set of regulations covering the operation of the dumps. We always point these standards out to the cities when we believe corrective action is necessary," he said.

"I don't know what effect this newest development will have on the operation of dumps. I would hope, however, that local officials would follow the present regulations in the interest of common decency and public health."

The current regulations include a prohibition against fires, require that dump sites be covered and state that rats and other insects must be controlled.

Filipi said there are some dumps in the state that are a "real nuisance." He said most need some improvement.

"We have only about three or four examples of excellent dumps," he said.

The mixup over enforcement authority apparently stems from too many inconsistencies in laws dealing with garbage disposal, Filipi added.

"We will ask the next session of the Legislature to harmonize these laws, for authority to spell out specific rules and regulations, and for power to enforce them," he said.

Packett said the Legislature could require all dump sites in Nebraska to be licensed through the state health department.

He also said the lawmakers could empower the health board to establish operation standards.

Assailant Clubs Girl To Death

Seattle (AP)—Lovely, dark-haired Lonnie Trumbull was clubbed to death and blonde Lisa E. Wick savagely beaten into insensibility Thursday morning by an unknown assailant who left them to be found by a stunned roommate, Joyce Bowe.

All three girls were United Air Lines stewardesses, all were 20 and all had lived in Portland, Ore., before joining UAL.

A piece of blood-stained wood about 20 inches long and three inches square was found in a nearby vacant lot.

As to the killer's identity, a police officer said, "We don't have a thing."

Late Thursday afternoon Miss Wick remained unconscious, her condition critical. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl A. Wick, were here from Portland.

Recent Grads

Newly graduated from stewardess school in Chicago, the three were based here and had been scheduled for their first regular runs in July, Miss Bowe said.

The sobbing girl told police she had spent the night with another stewardess friend and found the door unlocked and a light on when she returned to the apartment.

"I looked at Lonnie and couldn't believe my eyes," said Miss Bowe.

"I started to wake Lisa and she was in the same state."

A neighbor, George Stoss, said he heard an automobile roar away from the apartment building shortly after midnight and "at the same time I heard someone scream."

Most Heard Nothing

One other neighbor said she heard a car; others heard nothing.

Terry Allman, a deputy sheriff who lives on Vashon Island, said he had been with Miss Trumbull Wednesday, leaving the apartment about 5 p.m. He talked with her by telephone around 10 p.m., Allman said.

The dead girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Trumbull. Her father is a lieutenant in the Portland Fire Department. The Trumbulls, Miss Bowe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bowe, were en route to Seattle Thursday.

Minneapolis Man 20, Is Bound Over

Jerome George Ullman, 20, of North Minneapolis, Minn., charged with the armed robbery of the Keep-U-Neat Cleaners at 123 So. 23rd, was bound over to District Court Thursday following a preliminary hearing in County Court.

Bond was set at $5,000.

Ullman, specifically charged with stealing money from the person of Dorothy Ebner, was taken into custody in Oklahoma City, Okla.

No plea was entered by the defendant when he was arraigned in County Court. A preliminary hearing was requested.

Gambling Counts Against Omaha Pair Dismissed

Omaha (AP) — Chief Federal District Judge Richard E. Robinson Thursday dismissed 18 charges against two Omahans in connection with alleged gambling activities.

The charges were against Max Abrahamson, 58, and John Quinn, 47, who were indicted by a grand jury in May, 1963, on charges of failing to possess federal gambling stamps, evading excise taxes, conspiracy to evade excise taxes for allegedly declaring about $1,500 in income each of nine months when the figure should have been $10,000 for each of these months.

In making his ruling Judge Robinson said the government had not exerted any great effort to bring the matter to trial and it has been pending for three years.

U.S. Attorney Theodore Richling said the government has been waiting for the defendants to secure information they desire in the way of depositions under court orders granted last year.

Neurnberger Is Elected To Post At National Meet

Wilfred W. Neurnberger of Lincoln was elected vice president of the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges Thursday in Minneapolis, Minn. at the council's annual convention.

Judge Horace S. Bellfatto of Newark, N.J., was elected president of the council.

Mrs. Salisbury Elected NARCE President Again

The Lincoln chapter of National Association of Retired Civil Employees (NARCE) re-elected Mrs. Florence Salisbury of Lincoln as president of the organization.

Also reelected were John Wright, first vice-president, and Lawrence Neuman, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Emma Gardiner is the newly-elected second vice-president.

Tigers Use Early Punch To Handle Senators, 6-1

Washington (AP) — The Detroit Tigers disposed of Washington's starting pitcher in the first inning for the third straight night and beat the Senators 6-1 Thursday behind the five-hit pitching of Earl Wilson and Larry Sherry.

Mike McCormick followed starters Diego Segui and Phil Ortega in retiring only one batter as the Tigers broke on top in each game and swept the series.

Walks to Dick McAuliffe and Norm Cash, a two-run double by Al Kaline, and a single by Willie Horton acsixth of the season.

from Boston, posted his first victory for the Tigers and counted for three runs in the first.

Wilson, making his second start since being obtained Sherry took over with one out in the eighth following Willie Kirkland's pinch single and Dick Tracewski's error on Don Blasingame's grounder. He was tagged for Frank Howard's homer in the ninth.

The Tigers scored two in the sixth when Wilson was hit by a pitch, Dick McAuliffe singled and scored all the way from first on Tracewski's squeeze bunt and Blasingame's error.

Pappas, Pinson Homers Bring 5-3 Win To Reds

. . . PIRATES BEATEN

Cincinnati (AP) — A solo homer by pitcher Milt Pappas and a two-run shot by Vada Pinson in the fifth inning brought the Cincinnati Reds a 5-3 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday night.

The Reds swept the three-game series from the Pirates as they ran their winning streak to six games.

Pappas' homer, his first of the season and 12th of his career, snapped a 2-2 tie. Pinson connected for his sixth homer after Tommy Harper singled. Both blasts came off Don Cardwell.

Pappas, with relief help from Don Nottebart, brought his record to 6-5.

Jose Pagan homered in the fifth inning and knocked in another Pirate run with a sacrifice fly in the seventh. Jim Pagliaroni's second inning single scored Donn Clendenon who had doubled, with Pittsburgh's first run.

John Edwards knocked in Cincinnati's first run with a second inning double. The Reds got a run in the fourth when Pagan fumbled Tommy Helms' grounder, permitting Gordy Coleman to score.

Laughlin Services Are Held

Loren H. Laughlin, former Nebraska public official, was buried Thursday in a private funeral service at Arlington National Cemetery in Arlington, Va.

He died Tuesday at Chevy Chase, Md., at the age of 69.

Mr. Laughlin served two terms as state senator, and was a former Lincoln city attorney, a former state budget supervisor, and a former state insurance director.

The native of Mount Ayr, Iowa, had been a hearing examiner with the Federal Trade Commission before his retirement last month.

Mr. Laughlin was a veteran of World War I, serving with the American Expeditionary Force from 1918 to 1919 as an artillery man. During 1947 and 1948, he served as senior claims commissioner at Manila, handling the claims in the Philippines which grew out of World War II.

Cuban Refugees Learn English Here

By LUCILLE HUTCHINSON
Star Staff Writer

Although the students are literate in their own language, a group of Cuban refugees is enrolled in the Lincoln Public Schools Adult Basic Education program to learn English.

In another special center here a group of American Indians are taking a basic course that could eventually provide them with an eighth grade education.

The 100% federally-funded anti-poverty project designed to provide elementary level education for adults in the skills of reading, writing and computation, will close its first session June 30 with 100 students in six different classes, according to director Frank Burden.

The Adult Basic Education course is expected to continue next fall if a proposal being prepared is approved.

"Our adult students will have an opportunity to become less dependent on others, obtain or retain more productive or profitable employment and better meet their adult responsibilities," Burden pointed out.

Except for the Cubans and American Indians, the adult students ranging in age from 18-45 are not grouped in the program except for convenience in attendance. Ten instructional classes are held at Lincoln High, Whittier Junior High and Lincoln State Hospital.

Mrs. Bruce McSpadden teaches English to the Spanish-speaking group of nine. None of the Cuban students have been in the United States more than six months, Burden said.

Attendance at the basic education class held at the Salvation Army's Red Shield Club varies as the Indians, primarily transients, move in and out of Lincoln.

Registration for the course at the special center reached 20, but only 14 showed up the first night, the director said. However, he added, the others gradually started coming.

Now the agricultural work on Indian reservations has started and many have left Lincoln for the employment, leaving the class with just a few students.

Although students in the Adult Basic Education anti-poverty program are unable to pay for such a course, Burden estimated that only 20% of those registered are on some kind of welfare.

Ten of the adults are taking standardized tests to show their attainment in all basic academic areas. Passing scores would qualify the people for high school courses, but currently there is no free high school available to them here.

The school district is considering a request for federal funds to expand the basic education project through high school, Burden noted. His office has received 35-40 expressions of interest in free high school for low-income persons.

Some capable persons, even though they are illiterate when starting in the basic education program, can take the course through the eighth grade in one year, the director indicated. Others, he added, might take a year just to get through the alphabet.

Rogers Stresses Three Education Areas

By Associated Press

Vance D. Rogers, president of Nebraska Wesleyan University, used three words Thursday night — priorities, programs and people—to represent some of the areas of concern facing higher education in 1966.

In a keynote banquet address prepared for the opening of an advanced placement administrators conference continuing through Saturday at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education, Dr. Rogers said "priorities" involves finding an answer to the question, "What knowledge is most worth having?"

"Program" raises the question of what technology and techniques to be utilized in higher education.

An "people" involves recognition that students represent differing and individual personalities.

"They represent cultural opposites, religious diversities, varying social strata, and yet they have one thing in common, they are striving for identification," he said.

"They want to know and they want to be known.

"A college is people and teaching and learning in higher education must treat students as individual persons with an identity, and not as numbers to be fed into the computer."

In the field of education, this is "a thrilling time to be alive," Dr Rogers said.

"There is a demand for invention, innovation, imagination and decision. There are new problems as well as new opportunities. There is a call for leadership. We are on the threshold of a new age."

First Degree Charge Filed

Pender (AP) — A charge of first degree murder has been filed in Thurston County Court against 19-year-old Richard T. Walker of Winnebago for the slaying of Mrs. Bertha Chamberlain, 60, Winnebago motel operator, Tuesday.

Thurston County Attorney Ronald K. Samuelson said the charge, filed under the felony murder statute, alleges that Walker killed Mrs. Chamberlain "while in the perpetration or attempted perpetration of burglary and rape."

Samuelson said District Judge John M. Newton of Ponca has designated Mark Ryan of South Sioux City as attorney for Walker, who is filing a poverty affidavit.
